Sunday's program is open to the public without charge under the sponsorship of the UM School of Fine Arts and Department of Music.

Those assisting during the UM faculty recital will include Forest Cornwall, a bassoonist from Billings, and Jerry Mader, who is a composer and violist from Missoula. UM faculty members who will assist are: Lucien Hut, pianoforte and harpsichord; Mary Jean Simpson, assistant professor, flute; Janet Eckberg, graduate assistant, flute; Jerry Domer, associate professor, oboe; Priscilla Chaddock, instructor, soprano, and Frank Diliberto, instructor, string bass.

Included this Sunday will be the premiere performance of one work, "Sonata, Opus 266" by Composer Alan Hovhaness, and "Invention 109" by Mader.
