MISSOULA--

The Missoula chapter of "The Friends of Channel 7" (KSPS-TV), a nonprofit educational television station in Spokane, Wash., will sponsor a coffee hour for Walter J. Schaar, Channel 7 general manager, at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Nov. 20, in the Newman Center of Christ the King Church, 1400 Gerald Ave.

Schaar will discuss the Channel 7 fund raising drive during the coffee hour. "Funds are needed to enrich our programming and improve transmission equipment," Schaar said. He said he also is interested in what Missoula area residents think of Channel 7.

Members of "The Friends of Channel 7" from the University include Dr. James W. Cox, professor of chemistry and education; Dr. Leon B. Lott, professor of political science, and Mrs. Lois G. Herbig, secretary in the UM botany department. Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Lott also are members of "The Friends of Channel 7."

Wednesday's program is open to the public without charge.
