FILM, 'OFF-ROAD CONTROVERSY,' TO BE PRESENTED
WEDNESDAY, DEC. 4, AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

An environmental film entitled "Off-Road Controversy" will be presented Wednesday, Dec. 4, at the University of Montana by David T. Webb, a UM graduate student.

Presentation of the Sierra Club film, which is open to the public without charge, will be at noon in room 202 of the UM Natural Science Building.

Webb, who is studying for his doctor of philosophy degree in botany, said Wednesday's film "deals with the controversy of using two-wheel and four-wheel drive vehicles off the road on public property." Webb is from Lansdowne, Pa.
