300 Voices To Present "Elijah"

THE MONTANA KAIMIN

Montana State University, Missoula, Montana Z400 Vol. XLVI Thursday, May 22, 1947 No. 85

Vets Must Return Statements Or Be Dropped From Payroll

Student veterans who received statement form 1963 from the Veterans Administration office at Fort Harrison should turn the completed forms in to the VA office in Main hall as soon as possible, N. S. Murray, campus VA training officer, announced yesterday.

Murray said that these forms had been sent to veterans whose C-numbers end in two or three, and that their failure to return them promptly will result in an interruption in their subsistence payments.

Veterans planning to attend summer session who do not report to the VA office this week, will be dropped from the subsistence payroll, Murray said.

MSU veterans attending school under the GI bill who plan to continue their education this summer in a different school should apply immediately through campus training officers.

The request for a supplemental certificate should indicate the name of the institution, acceptance of the student by that institution, and the course of instruction to be followed.

VA training officers located on the MSU campus in Main hall or VA contact representatives in Missoula (please see page four)

Ex-Forester To Lecture

David S. Olson, former chief of planting in Region one, U. S. Forest Service, will present the first of a series of lectures on forest seeding and planting in Forestry 106 at 4 p.m. Monday.

Mr. Olson served for 19 years as chief of planting, and in 1934 he transferred to the Prairie States Shelterbelt project as assistant director in charge of nursery development and planting.

Since retiring from the forest service in 1945, Mr. Olson has lived in Spokane.

Mr. Olson will lecture at 4 p.m. on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, and at 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Thursday. The first three lectures will be delivered in Forestry 106, the Thursday morning lecture in Forestry 306, and Thursday afternoon he will speak in Natural Science 307.

Larsen Named As Sentinel Business Mgr.

Publications board last night chose Dave Larsen, Missoula, as business manager for the 1947-48 Sentinel. The recommendation is subject to the final approval of Central board.

Larsen, a member of the university golf team, is currently completing his junior year in the journalism school.

Chairman Mary Morrow, Oak Park, Ill., said that all students who wish to apply for the three positions of copy, layout, and photo editor of the yearbook should submit their applications to Sentinel Editor Bob Van Luchene, Missoula, by Monday at 4 p.m.

Room Rates To Be Raised Next Year

Board rates in the university dormitories will remain at $38 for a 30-day month during the 1947-48 school year but double and multiple occupancy room rates will be raised $3 and $5 per quarter respectively, according to Mrs. Monica B. Swearingen, director of residence halls.

"Next year we go back to the requirement of former years, that students living in the halls board there also," Mrs. Swearingen stated. Jumbo hall will be the exception.

Information bulletin No. 3, containing all the facts concerning residence halls for next year, has been posted on dormitory bulletin boards and is being circulated to prospective students of the university, she said.

Board in the halls, as listed in the bulletin, will cost $106 for the fall quarter, $92.60 during the winter quarter, and $102.65 in the spring.

The rent for single rooms remains at $52 per person per quarter, double rooms will cost $39, and multiple occupancy rooms $34 per person.

The director also announced that Jumbo hall will be closed during the summer quarter and that the demand for rooms this fall will determine whether Corbin will be a women's or men's hall next year.

Novel Parade Will Precede Installation

An "M" of university women carrying Japanese lanterns will frame the AWS installation ceremony in the oval June 7, Lantern Parade Chairman Donnanae Winters, Bridger, announced Wednesday.

AWS Pres. Bette Hillstrand, Great Falls, will replace Marion Headley, Missoula; Zorka Mastorovich, Roundup, succeeds Joan Kuka, Havre, as vice president; Joan Carroll, Corvallis, takes over Miss Hillstrand's old office as secretary; and Hilda Myre, Somers, replaces Mary Kidd, Deer Lodge, as treasurer.

The lantern parade was inaugurated in 1922 by Dean Harriet Sedman. The parade is led by new and old officers of AWS, followed by senior girls garbed in caps and gowns. The formation of women begins on the steps of Main hall and extends around the oval. While senior women form the "M" on the oval, outgoing AWS officers officially turn their jobs over to their successors.

Gillespie Heads Silent Sentinel

Dale Gillespie, Missoula, was chosen president of Silent Sentinel, senior men's honorary, at a meeting last night in Dean Burly Miller's office.

Charles Moses, Midwest, Wyo., was elected vice-president, and Johnny Cheek, Dillon, was chosen secretary-treasurer.

Dahlstrom, Nine Others, To Sing Roles; Cast Includes Mixed Chorus, Glee Clubs, Symphony, Mendelssohn Club, A Cappella Chorus

Ten soloists represent characters in Mendelssohn's "Elijah," a dramatic oratorio to be given by a cast of 350 tonight at 8:15 in the Student Union auditorium under the direction of Norman Gulbrandsen.

Pharmacy Assistants Appointed

Pharmacy Dean Curtis H. Waldon yesterday announced the following appointments as graduate assistants for next year: Evelyn Rasmussen, Whitefish; Trygve Brensdal, Missoula; and Miss Chee-Pin-Shih, Chungking, China.

Dean Waldon said that Miss Rasmussen is a graduate assistant in pharmacology at present. Brensdal will be graduated this year and his assistantship will be pharmaceutical chemistry.

Miss Chee-Pin-Shih is a graduate of Western China Union university, where she has been an assistant in pharmacy for the past two years. She will be an assistant in pharmacy here and will work on her master's degree, the dean said.

The 300-voice combined chorus, accompanied by the 50-piece University Symphony orchestra, is reputed to be one of the biggest casts ever to present a college or university oratorio in the United States.

Dahlstrom Sings Title Role

One of the leading parts in the oratorio, that of Elijah, is taken by Earl Dahlstrom, Missoula, a graduating senior in the School of Music. Two other seniors, Janet Jillson, Missoula, and Susan Brenner, Glendive, are featured among the soloists.

Other soloists are Barbara Williams, Deer Lodge; Erwin Overby, Somers; Beverly Preiss, Missoula; Carol Chaffin, Corvallis; Coyne Burnett, Missoula; Joyce Degenhart, Philipsburg, and Alice Byers, Missoula.

The combined chorus is comprised of five vocal groups, directed by Mr. Gulbrandsen. These groups are: the 50-voice a cappella choir, 27-voice men's glee club, 38-voice women's glee club, the 149-voice mixed chorus, and the 44-voice Missoula Mendelssohn club.

"Elijah" Is Dramatic

Mendelssohn said of the subject-matter, "With a subject like Elijah, the dramatic element should be predominant. Persons should act and speak as if they were living beings—let them not be a musical picture, but a real world."

This, in a word, is what he tried to do in the "Elijah." Mr. Gulbrandsen has revised and shortened the oratorio without losing any of the continuity of musical text contained in the original.

Davis Appoints 14 Seniors To Committees

Bob Wylder, Havre, and Jack Zimmerman, Townsend, are in charge of the mixer.

Chairman Una May Arras, Cut Bank; Louise Dreibelbus, Butte; and Marion Headley, Missoula, will make arrangements for the dinner, said Miss Davis.

The Frosh Take Over

Tomorrow's Kaimin will be edited by the Introduction to Journalism class, consisting of about 80 students. Under the competent direction of Editor Ralph Davidson, they are planning to put the regular staff to shame.

Our only hope is that their edition is not of such excellence that the regular staff will have to turn in their typewriters and pencils and bow out of the profession.

Let's Applaud Our Musicians

Should we applaud sacred music? Many times audiences on the campus, not wanting to do the wrong thing and not sure of what is "proper," maintain what they consider a holy awe at the completion of a sacred program.

Why should Bach's "Sarabande" be applauded while a sacred oratorio which has been equally appreciated goes unrecognized? Is it sentiment or simply uncertainty? If it's uncertainty, let's get in the know.

There's nothing in the rule book prohibiting vigorous appreciation. This whole business of applause is entirely a matter of tradition. Conventionally Americans don't, as a rule, applaud in church. From this convention has stemmed the uncertainty regarding applause of all sacred music. Most music leaders on our campus feel rather strongly "pro-applause."

"If the music is good and well received," declared one, "I see no reason why the audience should be restrained."

In more cosmopolitan districts, applause has become a matter of appreciation. Audiences listening to Chicago's large choral groups do not feel suppressed at the close of a fine presentation of sacred music, nor do audiences at the Cistine Chapel. They stand up and cheer and shout.

Musicians are only human. Like anyone else, they like to know about it when they have done a good job. The 350-member "Elijah," to be presented Thursday, is on par with the best that any college or university in the United States has to offer. So, if we like it, let's show our appreciation!—Beverly Brink.

A World Of Politics

By DAVE C. MARTIN

The roll of Democratic senators who voted for the Taft-Hartley labor bill, the one that will "break" unions down to the company level, reads like a roll call of southern senators. The Democratic party would be better off without "southern democracy."

Up to the time the Wagner act went into effect ideal labor conditions existed in the southland. An employer, when his employees struck, could go out into the "hills" and recruit a complete new force. In a few days they could be trained to run his machines.

It has happened. During the early thirties a newly organized AF of L union of clothing workers in a plant outside Atlanta struck for higher wages and better working conditions. The manufacturer fired them all, kicked them out of the company houses, closed out their accounts at the company stores with back wages, and hired a complete new force. Within a few weeks the new men and women were after the A F of L to form a new union.

That is what these Democrats mean when they vote for "breaking" unions down to the company level.

The Democratic party will be a divided party until it can cut off the southern wing of the party. In the north the party stands for progress and government in the interests of the working man. In the South it stands for the status quo in politics and society. It stands for the continued power of a class of people. Southern democracy is not unlike the "legitimacy" that Metternich and Tsar Alexander I pressed on Europe in 1815.

These pseudo Democrats should have been driven out of the party long ago. They might have been during the past 16 years but for the antiquated electoral system.

Flathead Indians War Songs Recorded

Recordings of war, gift, stick, and canvas dance songs of Indians from the Flathead reservation were made Tuesday, said Mrs. Mary Elrod Ferguson, assistant director of the museum.

The visitors were the third Indian group to examine relics in the museum. Colored photos were taken of the group in their native costumes, she said.

Mt. Dean Stone Dedication Sunday

Mount Dean Stone, the woods-covered 6,100 foot peak south of the campus, will be dedicated by a ceremony and picnic atop the mountain Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Ray W. Fenton, journalism instructor, said Tuesday.

Mountaineer club President Stanley R. Davison, will speak on Dean Stone's early day mountain trip experiences which the Dean related in his book, "Old Trails," Fenton stated. A delegation from the journalism school will trace his development of journalism at MSU from its early beginnings in an army tent to the present school.

A group of Mountaineers plan to climb the peak Sunday morning while the majority of students, faculty, and others are scheduled to leave the School of Journalism at 1 p.m. Transportation will be provided to the mountain base, Fenton said, while each one is responsible for his picnic lunch.

Faculty members and students who plan to attend the dedication are asked to sign with Mr. Fenton at 4 p.m. tomorrow.

The Dean Stone family and relatives have been invited by the Mountaineer club for this special event, Fenton stated.

Please Don't Delay Bleed Today

By RALPH CRAIG

Got any extra blood? Well you can get rid of it, bud. The operation is painless and the cause is worthy, and, who knows, you might get it back some day.

The university health service announced yesterday that a blood-bank is soon to be started in Missoula at the Memorial hospital. Everyone knows that without blood there can be no blood-bank, and that's where you come in.

E. B. Coleman, medical technologist at the hospital, says that the project can be successful if a sufficient number of free donors are willing to part with a few of their red and white corpuscles. He suggested that contributors might be found on the campus.

So, if you wish to contribute to a worthy cause, here is your chance. There is no cover charge. The loss might make you feel a little giddy for a time and you might look a little anemic to your brethren—but you'll recover.

Education School Sponsors Course For H. S. Students

A five-week summer program in the field of art, music, physical education, and social studies will be offered to students who have completed the ninth grade, J. W. Maucker, dean of the education school, announced Tuesday.

An intensive study of Latin America with closely related work in music, art, and physical education is planned.

The high school and university libraries, an exhibit prepared by the Spanish department, and personal collections of several Missoula citizens interested in South American culture will be available to the students for study, the dean said.

The program was organized by Dean Maucker and D. H. Beary, principal of Missoula County high school.

SUMMER JOBS OPEN

University students hunting jobs for summer quarter should contact the employment-housing office in Main hall, Peggy T. Leigh, director of university housing and employment, announced Monday.

SK's Win 14-11 Over Thetas

Sigma Kappas nosed out the Thetas the last half of the fourth inning to cop a 14-to-11 softball victory Tuesday. At the end of the third the score was tied at nine. The Thetas pulled in two more runs but Sigma Kappas batted in five during the last inning of the game.

New hall topped the Tri Deltas, 10 to 3. New hall picked up a four-point lead during the first inning. The Tri Deltas held them to one run the second inning, but were unable to run up their own score.

Archery finals will be shot at 4 p.m. Friday. Archers will shoot a Columbian round, 24 arrows at 20, 30, and 40 feet. To be eligible for a participation credit, archers must have seven hours of practice.

Tennis semi-finals must be played off this week.

Sigma Nu's Trim Foresters; ATO's Lose to Phi Deltas

The Sigma Nu's remained undefeated in the softball league last night as they trimmed the Forester ball club, 4 to 7, and Phi Delta Theta kept only one game behind by whipping Alpha Tau Omega, 13 to 5.

Sigma Nu battery Dick Kern, pitcher, and Jim Hall, catcher, gave up two hits. Bob Patton on the mound for the Foresters and Keith Armstrong behind the plate allowed seven hits.

Bill Jones was Phi Delta moundsman with Babe Young catching. Jack Hollowell and John Tihista pitched for ATO.

Over the Fence

BY BILL COONEY

With the increased night baseball this year, Luke Appling, veteran shortstop for the Chicago White Sox, should be among the top clouters in the circuit. Last season Appling supported a hefty .309 average, but his after dark hitting reached the .393 mark.

One year ago this month Joe McCarthy, one of the greatest managers in baseball, resigned his position with the New York Yankees. Bill Dickey took the job and was ridiculed for not turning out a winning club. Now this year we see Bucky Harris, who has traveled the majors for many a decade, in the helm, and yet the Bronx Bombers just completed their worst western jaunt in 22 years . . . Dickey is currently leading Little Rock, a potent contender for the Southern Association crown.

Harrison Dillard, 24-year-old hurdle demon from Baldwin Wallace, has grabbed the spotlight with his sensational hurdle races. Dillard's coach is looking for the star to appear in the London Olympics in 1948. In the Drake Relays this year Dillard breezed over the high hurdles in a speedy 14.1 and against a stiff wind. Sportsters are looking for him to establish a new record in the low hurdles in the Ohio State meet.

Earl Torgeson, prize rookie for the Boston Braves, is living up to his expectations. The lanky first sacker, who starred for the lowly Seattle Rainiers last season, is socking the pill around a .320 clip, and is tied for the leadership in home runs with nine. Torgeson played under Jiggs Dahlberg while in the Army.

Washington State looms as the favorite in the coming Northern Pacific Coast meet, since they have downed all their opponents so far this season, their latest being the University of Washington. Like the Montana-Idaho meet the relay was the deciding event.

Judging by the track records that have been set on the coast this year, Montana will be a serious contender for the title. The meet takes place next week in Seattle, and we think the Grizzlies will score between 30 and 35 points . . . last year that was enough to win.

Ed Porter, captain of Ohio State track team, clipped off a 440-yard dash in 49 seconds—pretty fast when you consider he ran it with 4 inches of water on the track.

Seabiscuit, one of the all-time great race horses, died last week. Doctors claim that the 14-year-old horse suffered a heart attack.

Netmen Lose Close One

Grizzly netmen lost a close 4-3 decision to Oregon State yesterday, winning both doubles matches but only one of the singles.

No. 1 man Bev Garrett measured Oregon's Findlay, 6-1, 6-2. Montana's Wayne Cumming and Detler, Oregon, fought a marathon battle until Detler finally forged ahead, 14-12, after winning the previous set, 6-2. Carrothers, OSC, downed Ost, 6-1, 6-0; Oregon's Russell took Annas, 6-2, 6-1; and Jardine, Montana, went down before Brigham as a result of two 6-4 decisions, after winning the first set, 1-6.

In the doubles Montana's Garrett and Cumming downed Findlay and Detler, 5-7, 7-5, 8-6, and Annas and Jardine defeated Oregon's Carrothers and Brigham, 6-8, 6-4, 6-4.

New Hall Cops Championship

Last night in a fast, hard game New hall women scored again and became softball champions for 1947 by defeating the Sigma Kappas, 5 to 7.

The two teams walked onto the diamond with equal standing, neither having lost a game this season. They were also the two teams that battled it out for the championship last year, with New hall being the victor.

During the early innings Sigma Kappas were in the lead, but at the end of the first half of the fifth inning the two teams were tied and heading down the home stretch with New hall up to bat. These last few minutes told the story as New hall belted in two runs, thus retaining their title for another year.

SAE Wins Pool Meet By Jumbo Forfeit

SAE won over Jumbo by a forfeit in the Wednesday night intramural swimming finals. Sigma Nu and Phi Sigma Kappa each pulled a loss when both teams failed to show up.

Friday Sigma Nu swims against SAE and the Phi Sigs against Jumbo.

PSK and SPE Victors In Clover Bowl

Phi Sigma Kappa squeezed out a 11-to-10 victory over the Independents and the Sig Eps played heads-up ball to whip Sigma Chi, 5 to 4.

Battery for Phi Sigma Kappa was Rudy Collins, pitcher, and Lou Stevens, catcher. Wilbur Funk and Pres Towle did the mound work for the Independents with Mike Naglich catching.

Jack Schwab, recuperating from a wrist injury, pitched the first two innings for Sigma Chi, then was replaced by Art Smith. Catcher was Jim Hoffman. Sig Ep battery was Jack Swarthout, moundsman, and Bill Bush, backstop.

Vets Must Return Forms To VA

soula can assist the veteran in this procedure.

Supplemental Certificates

Many returned GIs, pursuing accelerated courses of education, are finding it necessary to attend different colleges to receive desired fields of instruction, VA officials have pointed out. Possession of a supplemental certificate of eligibility is necessary before the veteran can be admitted to a new school.

Prior approval must be received from the VA before a change in the major subject will be allowed. In many cases advisement and guidance may be required by the VA to determine the wisdom of the student's entering an unrelated field. Tests and counseling are given to determine the field or occupation in which the veteran is most likely to succeed as determined by his capabilities, background and interests.

Transfers from institutional training to on-the-job training also call for a supplemental certificate of eligibility as well as advisement and guidance.
