Plans are under way for the Interfraternity and Panhellenic debate tournament which will be sponsored by the Debate and Oratory club, Prof. Ralph McGinnis, debate coach, announced.

The Debate and Oratory club is urging all students planning to compete in these debates to attend their Wednesday night meetings to get information and materials. It has been ruled that students who have done varsity debating will not be eligible.

Ratio Runs Rampant In Shorthand

BY WARD SIMS

Some would call it bad luck, and some would call it good luck; nevertheless, the four gentlemen to be named presently are still pondering the quirk of fate that leaves them marooned each fourth period of the week in a room containing 17 "wimmin'."

Unless the reader is one of the ten that drops away from a news story at the end of the second paragraph (Kaimin, Jan. 15, 1948), an explanation is forthcoming.

The four men, Paul Grove, Elmira, N. Y.; John Kelly, Butte; Bennie McEachern, Medicine Lake; David Milstein, Weehawken, N. J., all members of Miss Cleo Crow's Stenography 22a class, have little worry about the men-women ratio on the campus.

From the official tabulation of the student enrollment for the winter quarter (Kaimin, Jan. 14, 1948) we see that there are 2,372 men and 832 women.

Utilizing what little mathematical ability we have retained from high school, we find that the ratio is about 2.86 (plus) men to every coy miss on the campus. The gentlemen named have little worry, however; they are faced with an unlucky or lucky ratio, whichever the reader may prefer, of four (plus) women to every man.

We repeat—some would call it bad luck and some would call it good luck.

CHRISTIAN GROUP GATHERS TONIGHT

A meeting of the Student Christian Association will take place Tuesday evening at 7:15 in J106, according to Rev. Sullenberger, group advisor.

Further plans will be made for the World Student Service Fund and its organization on the campus.

CLUB WILL DISCUSS INTERNATIONAL BANKS

The International bank and the International Monetary fund will be discussed by Dr. John Wolfard, assistant professor of economics, before the International Relations club in the Bitterroot room at 7:30 tonight.

Convo Features UWF Goals, IRC Convention Report, Songs

The International Relations club, United World Federalists, and the music school presented last Friday's convocation.

Joseph McCracken, Dillon, reported on the trip taken by a delegation of the IRC to Vancouver, B. C.

The convention, held on the campus of the University of British Columbia, was attended by 153 delegates and 16 faculty members representing clubs from the colleges of the Northwest. The subject under discussion at the convention was, "Can the East-West split be reconciled."

A quartet composed of Dick Humphrey, Billings; Bill McNamer, Shelby; Bruce Johnson and Vernon Alf, Missoula, sang "Old Gray Robe." Donna Skates, Billings, joined them in singing "Let the Rest of the World Go By."

Floyd Chapman, Great Falls, was accompanied by the chorus in singing "Old Man River." The music was under the direction of Norman Gulbrandsen.

Frank Gonzalez, Helena, spoke regarding the United World Federalist movement. He said that the goal of this organization on the campus was to inform the students.

Following his talk, the film "One World or None" was shown.

Donna Erickson, Lewistown, will play Bach's "Prelude Number 21" and "Sonata, Opus 13" by Beethoven. Dolores Knutson, soprano from Malta, will sing "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" by Ambrose.

The other numbers on the program are Mozart's "Sonata in A Major," Henriette Zakos, Missoula; "Consolation, Number 6" by Liszt, Ellen Wallin, Rosebud; Chopin's "Nocturne in E Flat," Corrine Heyen, Valier; and Beethoven's "Sonata, Opus 13" by John Cowan, Hobson.

Placement Bureau Lists Jobs Open

Students who will be graduated in March, June, or August are asked to register with the Placement bureau in Craig hall, according to Miss Grace Johnson.

There are jobs open with the Russell-Miller Milling company, Minneapolis, Minnesota; the National Supply company, Pittsburgh oil field equipment manufacturer; Van Waters and Rogers, Inc., industrial raw materials distributors of Portland; Timken Roller Bearing company; and the Hormel Meat company. In addition to these openings there are many other jobs open with smaller firms, said Miss Johnson.

King, Queen Crowned

Heddy Creel, La Canada, Calif., New hall candidate, and Wayne Mowbray, Cut Bank, SAE candidate, were crowned King and Queen of Mardi Gras Saturday evening by Mark Dwire, Shelby, president of Newman club.

The coronation was made at 11:15 during the floor show, at which time KGVO broadcast 15 minutes of the program.

Before announcing the king and queen the candidates formed a procession to the two thrones on the stage. The women wore formals and had donned masks before the winners were announced.

Phi Chi Chapter Completed Here

Installation of a new chapter of Phi Chi Theta, women's business administration honorary, was completed Saturday night with a banquet in the Rose room of the Hotel Florence.

Thirteen women were initiated in the Eloise Knowles room Saturday afternoon before the banquet.

Miss Calire O'Reilly, national inspector for PCT, came to Missoula from Chicago for the ceremonies. She expressed her pleasure in the initiation of the new chapter at MSU.

Guests at the banquet included President and Mrs. James A. McCain, Dean and Mrs. Theodore H. Smith, Dr. Maurine Clow, Mrs. Brenda F. Wilson, Miss Kathleen Campbell, Mrs. Dorothy Kilburg, and Miss O'Reilly.

Wilma Oksendahl, Plentywood, entertained after the banquet with a fashion show from "Saks, Fifth Avenue." The models were potato sacks, designed in the latest of fashion.

Strip Construction Shows Progress

Eighty-five percent of the construction of the 92-family strip housing unit has been completed, according to figures on the monthly estimate chart kept in the university maintenance office.

Although much of the construction is ahead of schedule, work has been held up in some instances because wallboard is not available in sufficient quantities. Painting work is behind schedule because of inclement weather.

Work on sewers, chimneys, windows, roofs and floors has been completed, but floor and ceiling insulation and wallboard installation are behind schedule, the chart shows.

Los Gringos Plans Special Meeting

Myrl Elliott, Missoula, will present native Chilean dances and a short talk in Spanish on Chile at a meeting of Los Gringos Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the Bitterroot room, according to Douglas Sheppard, Chinook, club president.

Miss Elliott spent three years in Santiago, Chile, as a secretary for the United States State department, Sheppard said.

The A Cappella choir will present a joint concert with Andor Foldes, eminent Hungarian pianist, Thursday at 8:15 p.m. in the Student Union.

"The purpose of the concert is to raise money to help pay for the choir robes which were recently purchased, and to bring the finest music to students," Director Norman Gulbrandsen said in interview.

"We are fortunate in being able to secure the services of Andor Foldes because he stands today as one of the foremost interpreters of piano literature," he said.

Last year the A Cappella choir received recognition when it appeared before the Northwestern Music Educators national conference in Seattle. It also performed in various cities throughout the state in the tour made last year.

"The philosophy that governs this organization," Gulbrandsen said, "is centered on the premise that ensemble singing should be a result of the finest tone production from each singer."

Some solo singers in the choir have received national recognition and others have received superior ratings in state solo contests. The 60 choir members were selected by tryouts from the 500 choral students registered this quarter.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained from members of the choir. General admission is $1.20 and balcony seats for students are 60 cents, according to Kay Warnke, Glendive.

Library Display Honors Dickens

To stimulate interest in Charles Dickens, the library plans a display beginning this Wednesday and continuing for a week, according to Miss Jean Brotsman, assistant reference librarian.

The display, in honor of Dickens' birthday, Feb. 17, 1821, will be in the Wicker collection case at the entrance of the reference section in the reading room.

Books dealing with Dickens and the London of his time, pamphlet material from the Philadelphia Free library, and books on the personalities that Dickens modeled his characters after will complete the group in this case.

The open shelf, facing the reading room, will contain Dickens' novels. All books, including the display material, will be available for circulation.

Vets NSLI Extended to July

The reinstatement date of National Service Life Insurance, without a physical examination, has been extended to July 31, 1948, according to the Veterans administration. The previous expiration date was December 31, 1947.

The VA states that it does not matter how long the term insurance has lapsed, only two premiums are required to get it back in force. One is for the month of lapse, the other for the month of reinstatement. Premium rates are the same as those paid while in the service.

During the last 10 months, Montana veterans have reinstated $37,820,000 worth of National Service Life Insurance, the VA announced.

Want A Job?

Some non-journalism students have asked us recently about the possibility of working for the Kaimin. They had the impression that eligibility for Kaimin workers was restricted to journalism majors.

The Kaimin will welcome with open arms any student who desires to work on the paper. In fact, the paper would be more representative if scientists, mathematicians, home economists, etc., contributed to its contents.

Incidentally, the Kaimin photo engraving department, a fascinating field, has several vacancies.

Unsportsman-like

Many sororities, fraternities, and living groups sponsored candidates for honors as king or queen of the Mardi Gras. They prepared many posters for their individual campaigns, and posted them in the Student Union.

These posters were defaced, torn down, or stolen. They were placed in prominent places for a reason, and cost the sponsoring groups time and money to produce. Don't you think it would have been a little more sporting to have left them in their places, at least until the contest was over?—Ron Rice.

Letters to The Editor...

COW PATHS AT MSU

Dear Sir:

In regard to Mr. Bottomly's letter of Jan. 29, I would like to suggest that MSU adopt a policy similar to MSC. At the state college the cows are put back in the barns after registration, whereas at the University they are allowed to run at large throughout the year as evidenced by the numerous cowpaths cutting across our campus.

Since the Spurs' whistles have failed why don't they try using cowbells? It might be more effective.

REBUTTAL

Dear Editor:

Mr. Kramer cannot have read Kravachenko's book "I Choose Freedom" or he would not say I quoted from it verbatim or used it as the basis of my speech. I did neither.

Nor did I, as your reporter inferred, cite Kravachenko's book as documentation for all my remarks. I referred to it only as giving a clear picture of what goes on behind the iron curtain in Russia from the viewpoint of a high Communist party member and engineer. It is not possible to verify the truth of such a book, except in part, but to date I have seen nothing to show that it is an overdrawn picture.

Mr. Turner indicates the historian's dilemma as to such a subject. But the subject is current events, not history. You get the facts from the newspapers and periodicals and a few books, from personal experiences and talking with a considerable number of people who have had direct contact with the Communists.

You can't document statements

Meet the "Playboy" Cast

Marvin McArthur, Butte, will play the part of Philley, one of the village men in "Playboy."

McArthur has had three years experience with the stage crew at Butte high school. He also had a major part in his senior class play.

Kenneth Boulet, Butte, a freshman in the business administration school, has been cast as Jimmy. This will be his first appearance on the university stage. Boulet did dramatic work in a number of productions in high school.

These two men, together with the four village girls, represent the support and opposition to the Playboy. Through their efforts the riddle is finally solved, and the Playboy saved from disaster.

ALUMNI TO ORGANIZE

An organizational meeting has been scheduled in Spokane for Feb. 6 for the approximately 125 MSU alumni in that area, Andrew C. Cogswell, director of the Public Service division, announced.

on such a subject by reference to book and page as a historian would an event occurring in the past century. But anyone can use his own knowledge of the facts and continue to check the thesis of my speech from current news sources.

Your reporter omitted the thesis of my speech—that the conflict between communism and democracy is one of ideologies—basic values. We value freedom and integrity of the individual and limit the powers of government to maintain such freedom. Communism uses materialism (material things) as its ultimate test of value, denies all spiritual values, and uses the doctrine of the good of the state as justifying tyrannical power.

Sincerely,
F. E. Coad

Residence Halls Are Overcrowded

Colleges and universities all over the country are suffering from overcrowded conditions, and Montana State University is no exception. Montana's five residence halls are housing 1,013 students. Normal capacity for these halls is 783.

New hall, built to house 112 women, has 155 residents. North and South halls, with supposed capacities of 106 and 121 respectively, now have 156 and 172 occupants.

Corbin hall, the smallest of the five, was originally built to house 87 men, but its fall quarter roster shows 129 occupants. Jumbo hall, which is operating closer to normal than the others, is housing 401 men instead of the intended 372.

School Loses 19 Registrants

The University lost 19 registrants this quarter because the housing units were not completed at the beginning of winter quarter.

Letters were sent to 100 on the housing list for fall quarter, asking if they were still interested in housing units. Seventy-two wanted to be put on this quarter's list, five cancelled their application and registration in school, one withdrew from school, and 13 others did not register because they could find no housing. At the beginning of the quarter there were 126 on the list.

The 92 two-bedroom units were supposed to be completed by winter quarter but because of a wall-board shortage they will not be finished until later. They are the last of the FPHA project started in 1946. Construction was stopped in December, 1946, when the government ordered a cutback. President McCain reapplied for 92 units and they were started this summer.

Each meeting is complete in itself and includes the teaching of new leadership skills as well as the discussions, Miss Hillstrand said.

All high school students are eligible to compete in the music festival, which will be held spring quarter, she said.

Who's After What?

Big Dick Carstensen seems intent on finding that elusive ball in the shot taken Friday night at the Grizzly-Bobcat game in Bozeman, but Timor Moses (29) is more concerned with recovering his glasses from the floor. That's Hatfield of the Bobcats hanging fast to the leather, with the Grizzlies' Selstad peeking over Carstensen. A fifth fellow is taking a beating in the middle of all this.

Bobcats Win 56-49, 53-50 On Home Court

By VIN CORWIN

Deliberate slow-down tactics and an unexpected set offense by Montana State Bobcats defeated the Montana University Grizzlies twice last week end at Bozeman, 56-49 and 53-50. The losses stopped the university's winning streak of nine games.

The first game was poorly played by both teams, the players apparently under great tension.

The Grizzlies took the lead right away and held it to the half, as Graham at one time connected for nine straight points. MSU led, 28-20, at the half.

In the second half the Cats came right back with their slow style to close the gap in the scores. In the last three minutes quick baskets by DeTonancour, McCormick, and Johnson sent MSC ahead as the Grizzlies couldn't do anything right.

Five Bobcats and one Grizzly went out on fouls in the closely officiated game.

The second game saw the renewal of the same slow tactics by the Bobcats. The game was again rough and tense, with only Cope consistent for the University. Brown was outstanding for MSC, showing fine ball-handling. The State college led at the half, 30-21, as DeTonancour did some spectacular shooting.

Montana caught up in the second half on the shooting of Cope and John Holding, and with 15 seconds left MSC led, 52-50. In a scramble under the university basket the tension proved too much and a small scale riot broke out, first among the players, and then the spectators joined in. The trouble lasted but a few seconds and play was resumed.

DeTonancour was the leading scorer for the series, with 29 points for the two nights. Graham paced Montana scorers with 21 in the two games.

MSU Skier Places Third

Kathy Lloyd, Van Nuys, Calif., placed third in the women's combined downhill and slalom skiing race at Whitefish Sunday.

Miss Lloyd was third to Marcia Hinderman of the Whitefish High School Ski club, who won the event.

Former students who placed in the meet were: George Savage, third in the combined men's events; Otto Ost, sixth; and Tom Hawkins.

Bob Hawkins of the University also participated but failed to place.

McCain Speaks In Great Falls

Last night the president was to speak to the Men's Brotherhood of the Methodist church. He will address the Great Fall high school this morning and the Electric City Kiwanis club at noon.

COACH DAHLBERG

to become head basketball coach.

Dahlberg-coached teams and players have set many enviable Montana basketball records. His 1939-40 squad, with 17 victories, set the record for the most wins in one season. Thirteen consecutive wins in 1942 is tops in MSU hoop history.

Other records which his teams have made include the one game scoring record of 103 points against Gonzaga in 1946, and the best point average per season in 1947 with 58.6 points per game.

Also in 1947, the Grizzlies broke previous records for total points in one season by making 1,641 points.

His most successful year, Dahlberg said, was the 1939-40 season when his boys won 17, lost eight, and went to the fourth round in the National AAU tournament in Denver.

Three of the seven state championship tournaments which the Grizzlies have taken from the Bobcats were won by teams which Dahlberg piloted. The Grizzlies took that series three consecutive years in addition to winning 12 straight games from the Cats in 1939, 1940, and 1941.

During his two-year stretch in the army in 1943 and 1944, Dahlberg successfully coached the Fort Lawton, Wash., team to the Washington State semi-pro championship.

With 10 games yet to play, Dahlberg's 1947-48 squad has a good chance of setting new records. Already the Grizzlies have won 13 games this season, and, before the Bobcat series last week end, their average points per game was 60.9.

Chinske's Cubs Drop Series To Bobkittens

The preliminaries as well as the main events at Bozeman last week end went bad for the University. Coach Eddie Chinske's Cubs dropped their series to the Bobkittens, both games by the identical score, 56 to 52.

In Friday's contest, the Cubs surpassed an early Bobkitten lead to pull ahead by a 32-31 margin at the half. The Kittens came back in the second half, however, to win their victory in the hard-fought match.

Kingsford led the Cub's scoring Friday with 15 points, followed by Adams and Walsh who both scored nine.

Saturday's preliminary saw the Bobkittens grab an early advantage and stretch it to 28 to 16 at halftime. A second-half scoring spree by the Cubs tied the game at 44-all with five minutes to go, but again the Bozeman squad poured on the coal to come out ahead.

High scoring for the Cubs Saturday was Walsh, 13; White, 8; and Kingsford, 7.

Despite the losses, Coach Chinske said his Cubs played their two best games of the season. A couple of new combinations are working out pretty well, he said.

We could have just as easily won as lost," Chinske said. "I am very pleased with the squad."

The Cub record stands at six wins to four losses with seven games left to play. The squad travels next to Great Falls to play the College of Education, Thursday and Friday.
