MODERNIZED MAN IS UP WITH PEOPLE GOAL

Modernization of the character of man to match his rapidly advancing technology is only one of the many objectives of the Up With People people scheduled for a two day appearance in the Garden City this week.

According to Mike Brown of Adelaide, Australia, "with one half of the world's population 25 and under, it's about time the youth of the world began to accept its responsibility.

"Our effort is to create a brand new young leadership based on a way of life and commitment of our youth."

The cast of 150 college and high school students singing 28 original fast-paced songs will make other Montana appearances in Butte, Bozeman, Helena and Great Falls. There are three other casts touring the United States and other continents.

The qualifications of these sing-out musical exploders? Conviction, says Brown and enthusiasm, and interest, and initiative in taking leadership. Up With People is the basis for a world revolution--for the world's people not against the world.

Besides their infectious smiles and energetic goals of modernizing the character of man, Up With People people put on a show which has taken rave notices in foreign countries on every continent and in the United States.

This sing-out explosion is being sponsored by the University of Montana Associated Students' Program Council. Partial casts will be sent to assemblies at Sentinel and Hellgate High Schools Wednesday and the complete cast is slated for the UM Adams Field House Thursday at 8:15 p.m. Advance tickets are available at the Lodge.
