SIX UM COEDS ELECTED TO FILL AWS VACANCIES

Margaret Borg, a sophomore psychology major from Missoula, has been elected president of the Associated Women Students of the University of Montana.

Miss Borg, the daughter of Frank Borg of Missoula, has been active in AWS affairs since her freshman year. She and the other new officers will assume their duties spring quarter.

Bonnie Pfeifle is the new AWS vice president in charge of standards. She is a sophomore majoring in elementary education, a member of Delta Delta Delta social sorority and Alpha Lambda Delta, a scholastic society. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Pfeifle, reside in Great Falls.

The new vice president in charge of committees is Lesley Maynard. She is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma social sorority and a sophomore majoring in journalism. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Burton Maynard, live in Billings.

Vonne Kay Helmer, a freshman majoring in history and political science, has been elected AWS secretary. She is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta social sorority and is a resident of Poplar where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Helmer, reside.

The new AWS historian is Marilyn Lund, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Lund of Circle. She is a freshman majoring in German at UM and a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Home economics major Susan Cramer is the new AWS treasurer. She is a freshman and a member of Delta Gamma Sorority. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Cramer, reside in Missoula.
