Health Committee Says Water Situation Doesn't Warrant Vacation Yet

The Health committee made no recommendations to close school at a special meeting yesterday. The committee felt that although the water supply is inadequate and unpredictable, the situation is not yet serious enough to recommend closing school.

Should the water supply fail further and reduce sanitation still more, there is the possibility of widespread dysentery, according to Dr. C. R. Lyons of the health service. Further complicating the problem is the increasing number of measles cases report-

A check of university residence halls at press time indicated that bathrooms on the third floor of North, and on the second and third floors of South, are out of order due to the decrease in water pressure, while Jumbo, Corbin and New halls reported their water supply unimpaired.

ing to the infirmary, he said. Simultaneous occurrence of dysentery and measles would make isolation at the infirmary impossible because of limited space, he said, and an epidemic is possible.

The committee adopted the recommendation, effective immediately, from Dr. Lyons stating that, "health excuses be given only to the students under these circumstances: 1. when confined to the infirmary; 2. when hospitalized by any physician; 3. when a written statement from any physician showing that they were confined at home is presented; 4. under circumstances when the student must receive dental or medical care at hours which conflict with his classes; 5. all other excuses from classes must be secured in person from the office of Dean of Students."

Article by Fiedler In Partisan Review

"An Expense of Spirit," by Dr. Leslie A. Fiedler, associate professor of English and humanities, appears as the lead story in the January issue of the "Partisan Review." It is a story told through the eyes of a weak, retiring man who cannot deal with the real problems of life.

"Partisan Review," according to Dr. Fiedler, is chiefly a literary and critical magazine. The magazine began as a quarterly and is now in its twelfth year of publication as a monthly.

Jumbo Hall Elections Tied Up In Deadlock; Men Vote Again

Four late votes threw the Jumbo hall presidential and vice-presidential elections into another deadlock Monday night.

The final tally of votes gave Cecil Zezula, Whitehall, a one-vote majority over Danny Marinkovich, Anaconda.

Marinkovich contended that the polls were kept open after the time set for their closure and the votes that came in during this time decided the election in Zezula's favor.

Marinkovich requested a new election and the board of control, at a special meeting, decided to grant Marinkovich's request. The new election will take place from 6 to 10 Thursday night in the main lounge of Jumbo.

Taino Kauhanen, Butte, defeated Jerry Levine, Poplar, in the vice-presidential race, 204 to 121, but that election will have to be run again too, because the validity of the ballots was questioned.

At 11 p.m., after the votes had been counted, Zezula was trailing Marinkovich, 161 to 164. The results were just about to be announced when an election committee member brought in four votes for Zezula. Marinkovich contends that the votes were not entitled to be counted as part of the balloting because they were brought in after the polls had closed and the ballots counted.

When Zezula was contacted yesterday morning and asked about the outcome of the election he at first stated that he did not think he would compete in a run-off for an office that he already had.

Later Tuesday Zezula changed his mind and said that although he felt that he had won the election fairly he would be willing to run again to eliminate any question as to his right to the office.

"According to Jumbo's constitution," Zezula said, "the action of the board of control is not justified."

Marinkovich said that the constitution specifically states that it is the duty of the board to interpret the constitution and that the board was justified in its action.

Marinkovich said that several men who were absent from the hall at the time of the election were refused the right to vote when they returned. He said that if four votes could be admitted after the polls had closed, then everyone in the hall who didn't have the chance to vote should be able to do so, or be able to vote in a run-off election.

Sigma Chi Sweetheart Contenders

Board Transfers $275 To Intramural Sports

By SHIRLEY McKOWN

A transfer of $275 from the ASMSU reserve fund to intramural athletics for winter quarter was authorized by Central Board yesterday.

A deficiency in regular intramural funds necessitated the allocation. The money will be returned to the reserve fund when veterans' fees for fall quarter are received from the government.

Morris McCollum, manager of the Student store, spoke to the board on the financial status of the store and the student benefits made possible from it.

He said that the largest profit from the Student store comes from the sale of books and supplies and that surplus on hand at the end of April should be between five and six thousand dollars.

In 1945, a profit of $7,000 was appropriated to Central board funds from the Student store to retire the debt of the athletic board and in 1948, $5,500 was transferred to board funds. Four thousands, five hundred dollars more will be paid before April 1 of this year and used for the installation of a lighting system in the baseball park.

McCollum said that all texts and supplies were sold to students at the lowest rate possible and that cigarettes sell in the Student store for less than in many local stores. He stated that the book store allows 10 per cent more on used texts than any other college store in the country. Prices on such items

Debate Squad Good This Winter

MSU's Debate and Oratory association participated in 69 programs during fall quarter, winning 11 out of 22 intercollegiate debates, according to Ralph Y. McGinnis, director of university forensics. There are more than 40 undergraduate students in the association.

as slide rules, dissecting kits, and cap and gown rentals are far below those of other schools, but drug items may be priced somewhat higher than at regular drug stores. The reason for this, according to McCollum, is that the Student store has to purchase supplies from a wholesale house, while a drug company secures its items direct from the manufacturer.

In 27 years of operation the Student store has averaged nearly $2,000 in profits a year, McCollum said. The net worth of the store is nearly $6,000.

MSU Grad Is Medic On Harry's Ship

Comdr. Horace D. Warden, MSU graduate, is the new medical officer aboard President Truman's yacht, the Williamsburg.

Warden, a veteran of Pearl Harbor and the Iwo Jima and Okinawa invasions, went aboard the ship last Friday.

He was severely injured during the campaign at Okinawa when his ship was struck by a Japanese suicide plane. As a result his right arm was paralyzed for several months.

"Luckily, I am left-handed," he said.

Warden will do clinical work at the naval hospital in Bethesda, Md., when not on duty aboard the presidential yacht.

The commander, formerly of Broadview and Roundup, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. M. I. Warden, Richland, Wash.

He graduated with honors from the chemistry school of the University in 1933. He attended Rush Medical college, Chicago, and did internship at the marine hospital in Seattle.

His wife is the former Jay Browning of Belt. They have two children.

Sociology Students to Hear Professional Talks in Labs

Students in the Social Work laboratory will meet with guest consultants throughout the quarter, according to Harold Tascher, associate professor of sociology.

Scheduled to appear before the group are Miss Evelyn Rimel, dean of girls, Missoula County high school; Dr. Gladys V. Holmes, state hospital, Warm Springs; and Mrs. Vi Thompson, executive of Campfire Girls.

The guest consultants will present the lab students with a professional viewpoint of the social agencies in the community and lead a discussion of social problems and their corrective methods.

University students in the social work lab are to receive practical experience this quarter by doing field work in the various social agencies represented by the guest speakers. Assigned to these fields are Connie Shuder, Represa, Calif., and Daisy Turley, Broadus, university kindergarten; Margaret Allen, Livingston, and Pat Kinney, Great Falls, university nursery school; and Barbara Lou Kitt, Missoula, Campfire Girls.

Obtaining practical experience in the field of public welfare are Cecilia Williams, Missoula; Eleanor Linse, Ronan; Kay Ritenour, Pendroy; and Esther Halverson, Lonepine. Assigned to the Missoula County high school are Clair Dickson, Geyser; Dorothy Working, Wilsall; Hilda Myre, Somers; Marjorie Christy, Butte; and Phyllis Barrett, Billings.

Previous guest consultants who appeared before the social work lab were Miss Elizabeth Schubert, Department of Public Welfare, and Miss Sylvia Goeltz, university kindergarten teacher.

Orchids to Tom and Cyrile

While it may seem adverse to certain past Kaimin policies we wish to give credit today where credit is certainly due. The maintenance department has worked exceedingly hard and has put in some all night stands in attempts to keep MSU's water supply flowing. The unusually cold winter is just one thing that Tom Swearingen can't do much about. Thanks for a good job in keeping things moving.

Also in line for favorable comment is the Student Union. Cyrile Van Duser, manager, was happy to report yesterday that the usually messy lounge has been receiving better treatment. Let's keep returning all cups and plates that are used above the ground floor and also make an honest attempt to keep the dirty cups from littering the stairways. — P. A. H.

Editorially Speaking

BY PAUL A. HAWKINS

I don't think Representative June McCarthy, that lady legislator with the gambling bill, has been around much. In fact, I doubt if she has been out of the state in the last 20 years. I may be wrong.

For the second time "in fact," McCarthy may even be a nice lady, even though she has been flaunting that nasty bill to legalize gambling all over the congressional floor. That's really where it belongs, on the floor.

Then again, maybe McCarthy got down to Nevada to look the gambling situation over. She must have noticed, providing our traveling premise is correct, that the Nevada gangs get all their money from the big shots in California and New York—not from the natives. Half of the natives down there don't even know what a roulette wheel or a dice table look like. Or maybe she didn't notice, (again, providing she did travel that far.)

Trouble for Gamblers

I wonder if she visited Idaho recently to see how things were working over there with the good

Drama Course Begins Soon For Authors

A four-credit course in the techniques of writing and producing historical pageant-drama will be offered by the English department in spring quarter if enough students are interested, Dr. H. G. Merriam, chairman, announced last week.

Prof. Bert Hansen of the English department, who will be actively engaged in this work in Montana communities during the spring and summer, will be the instructor.

Students registered in the course will have ample opportunity to study the development of one or more of these pageant-dramas. They will also analyze and study historical pageant-dramas produced in western Montana during the past two years.

Those interested in studying the pageant-drama should see Professor Hansen in the Public Service division office, Law 10, before Monday, Feb. 21. If enough students indicate interest in the work by that date, it will be offered as an accredited course.

old "slots." I have the facts of a typical, successful Idaho city before me now.

They made money for a while—so did the state, but the gamblers always have an ace up their sleeves, at least that's what my uncle used to tell me.

But within a short time, (as any "good" thing does), it came to an end. Instead of reaping a harvest of nickels, the one-armed bandits were reaping a harvest of troubles:

1. Owners were cheating by "milking" the cash tubes (tsk tsk);
2. False bill of sales were given to the city clerk (crooks);
3. A policeman was convicted of extortion (scandal);
4. Police got confessions from two family men that they had spent their checks on machines and hadn't gotten robbed after all—they were afraid of their wives (hen-pecked);
5. Relief agencies said their rolls were growing;
6. Businessmen reported overdue accounts, and
7. General confusion, etc. etc.

A Passing Fancy?

Well, what has it come to, McCarthy? Gov. C. A. Robins wants to repeal the 1947 law that legalized gambling in Idaho. Too much grief, too much trouble, too many crooks.

I'll bet you my editorial hat and rocking chair to boot, Mrs. McCarthy, that if that bill of yours gets by the legislature and Governor Bonner (which I doubt) someone will put the kabosh on it two years hence. Wanna bet?

DR. STEWART TO SPEAK AT CHEM CLUB MEETING

Dr. J. M. Stewart will speak to the Chemistry club meeting about "Possible Futures for a Chemist with a B.A. Degree." The meeting will be tonight at 7:30 in CP 108. There will also be a Journal club talk.

Bismarck, N. D., has recorded the greatest temperature extremes in the United States—from 114 above to 45 below.

Social Spotlight

Social activities center around entertaining our country cousins from Bozeman this week end. The two victories chalked up by our team were of course the outstanding events of the two-day activities.

Delta Gamma

Four Spurs, Bette Hall, Jean Heidt, Marjorie Kalousek, and Phyllis Birkland, were house guests during the series. Shirley Campbell and Agnes Hovland, Gamma Delta chapter of Delta Gamma, were also week-end guests. Pat Ettinger, formerly of Pi chapter and now a Bozeman DG, was a Sunday dinner guest.

Dinner guests during the week were Jackie Loisselle, Rose Ellen Mudd, Eddie Thompson, Margot Luebben, Gretchen Rasmussen, Betsy Kitt, and Lolly Koefod.

Friday afternoon a new name was added to the pledge roll, Xenia Batista of Panama City, Panama.

Wednesday evening an exchange dinner was given with the fellows next door.

Jean Kaiser received an engagement ring from SAE Bob Svoboda Monday afternoon. Shirley Moyer received a Sigma Nu serenade Monday. She is pinned to Bill Walker.

Letters . . . to the Editor

WHY ARE THE DOORS LOCKED?

Dear Editor:

This is not a letter of criticism but one asking a question.

I would like to know why the policy of locking the gymnasium doors prior to a basketball game is followed.

If the doors are locked or not the first persons through them will get the best seats, and the present method tends to create confusion and discomfort for the Grizzly basketball fans.

Respectfully yours,
Hugh James
Jumbo hall

Ed. note: Doors are locked and scheduled to open at a designated time to eliminate confusion. Pre-game arrangements such as P.A. system, ticket office, band seating, etc., have to be made prior to all the game-time activities.

SWIM TEAM MANAGER BLASTS HOOPSTERS

Dear Editor:

Concerning the event of Jan. 31 in the Men's gym: Jiggs Dahlberg's basketball prodigies might have been big time in high school but until they can go out and earn glory for MSU maybe they should practice on the basketball court and not in the swimming pool.

It might interest Jiggs to note that while he daddles with basketball we would like to shape a good swimming team. Also, I believe certain health rules and regulations guarding the correct use of a university swimming pool specify that those who use the pool should take a hot shower before entering the pool.

New pledges are Rich Gunlickson, Shelby, and Joe Chelini, Butte.

Don Harris and John Kincaid spent the week end in Spokane.

Kappa Alpha Theta

The annual Founders' Day banquet was held Monday evening in the Blue room of the Montmartre cafe.

Wednesday featured an exchange dinner with the SAE's.

Girls pledged Friday afternoon are Joyce Frigaard, Anaconda; Helen Kuhne, Lewistown; Nancy Hair, Seattle; and Denise Zunch, Great Falls.

Week-end guests were MSC students Alice Riebeth, Joan Kipp and Alice Stork.

Sigma Nu

Mrs. Roy Stitzel, Alpha Phi housemother, and Joan Sheffield were dinner guests Wednesday evening.

Bart Stitz, Terry, and Frank Bernatz and Bob Brazill, Anaconda, are new pledges.

New Hall

Some 200 guests attended the New hall team dance Saturday afternoon. The Music Men provided dance music and refreshments were served.

Chaperones were Dean and Mrs. Herbert Wunderlich, Dr. Maurice Clow, Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Howard, Mr. and Mrs. James Cole, Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll, Mrs. W. Thompson, and Mrs. H. E. Rimel.

Marion Lenn was in charge of arrangements for the affair.

Phi Delta Theta

Dinner guests Sunday were Allie Harris, Buddy LeRoux, and Bruce Guesin, better known as the "Three Guys from Hollywood."

Dorothy Thomas, Geraldine, received a diamond from Bill Patterson, also of Geraldine, last week.

Bob Alkire, Missoula, is a new pledge of PDT.

Sigma Kappa

Six girls were initiated Saturday morning. The new wearers of the triangle are Jo Brockway, Norine Joyce, Marge Semrau, Jean Mallett, Colleen Moore, and Natalie McGregor.

Helen Nelson and Jo McCracken were guests from Montana State college for the week end.

Audrey Gage, Shelby; Pat Beaubien, Missoula; and Betsey Sherrburne, Browning, are new pledges.

Mrs. John Lester, charm and personality program speaker, talked to the group on clothes selection and care Thursday evening.

All the actives and pledges living at the dorm were guests at a buffet supper Friday night. The Alpha Phis dropped in for cocoa and cookies Thursday night after the pep convocation.

Mrs. P. R. Peery visited her daughter, Marjorie, and was a dinner guest Sunday. Catherine Kunc, Helena, was also a guest Sunday.

South Hall

Stewart Fitschen, a former resident of the hall, was a week-end guest. Stewart is now teaching at Ronan.

Cellar-Dwellers Win In Faculty Bowling

Cellar-dwelling Bus Ad scored two upset victories over league-leading Military science in the fourth round of the faculty bowling league Monday night at the Echo Bowling alleys.

By taking two of three matches, Bus Ad climbed into a tie with Humanities for third place in the four-team league. Journalism moved into a first-place tie with Military science by winning two of three from Humanities. Humanities and Journalism tied in their first game, an oddity on a bowling lane. The Journalists won the game in a single frame play-off.

Dean Theodore Smith of Bus Ad turned in the best game score with 198 pins. James Dew, who previously had averaged 123 rolling for Humanities, hit 194 pins for runner-up honors. Guy Renzaglia, Humanities, and W. L. Alcorn, Journalism, followed with scores of 186 and 180. Alcorn maintained his average leadership with a record of 164.

Echo alley officials report that most averages are steadily improving. The lowest game posted Monday was 54.

With 15 more games slated in the remaining five weeks of play, league officials are considering expanding the size by admitting one or two new members.

League standings:

	Won	Lost
Military science	3	4
Journalism	8	4
Humanities	4	8
Bus Ad	4	8

Stritch Passes Swimming Test For Aquamaids

Irene Stritch, Missoula, was the only woman to pass the requirements for Aquamaids, swimming honorary, last week.

Miss Stritch will be given a part in the Aquamaid water carnival to be presented the middle of April. Theme of the pageant is the "Nutcracker Suite" which will include among others, a Russian and Chinese act and the Dance of the Silver Flutes.

Beverly Burgess, Missoula, president, asked members to report at 7 p.m. every Tuesday.

Women Reminded To Play Off Matches

All women entered in the badminton and ping pong tournaments must get their first round matches played at once, Mrs. George Sarsfield, physical education instructor, said yesterday.

The lists of pairings for the tournaments are posted on the bulletin board in the women's gymnasium. The second round of games is being delayed by those who have not made arrangements to play their first matches, according to Mrs. Sarsfield.

Men's Gym Back In Use

Basketball activity in the men's gym, suspended for 24 hours by a broken water main, resumed yesterday after maintenance crews repaired the main and turned on the water.

Intramural basketball games were played off last night for the benefit of the March of Dimes drive. Games slated for Monday night were postponed. Last night's games are the only ones scheduled for this week because of the decorating of the gym for the Forester's ball.

Coach Jiggs Dahlberg's varsity cagers returned to the practice courts yesterday afternoon after laying off Monday. Concerned over the high scores the Montana State Bobcats ran up against the Grizzlies last week, Dahlberg ordered emphasis on defense. The Cats tallied 71 points two nights in a row.

Lift Injures Woodside

Don Woodside, Butte, university student who was injured Saturday while operating the Diamond mountain ski lift, was not a skier or a spectator at the time of the accident. Woodside said that other newspapers carrying the account of the accident had misleading headlines.

According to Woodside, he was at the top of the run, tending the tow machine, at about two o'clock Saturday afternoon. While attempting to brush some snow from the oil cups, his right hand was caught in the chain drive. The chain came off the cogs, but not before his hand was severely crushed. He ran down the hill to the warming cabin, where first aid attendants bandaged his hand. Bob and Chuck Kern, also students at the University, drove him back to Missoula, where he was admitted to St. Patrick's hospital.

There is still no word from his physician, other than "So far, so good."

If every boy in the U could read every girl's mind, the gasoline consumption would drop 50 per cent.

North Hall Flashes Form In Tourney

In the second round of the women's basketball tournament played Thursday, North hall beat the Kappas, 23 to 19. Phyllis Tanner, Geraldine, paced the winners and Joyce Carstensen, Helena, the losers, each with 10 points.

Saturday morning Sigma Kappa won from Alpha Chi Omega, 29 to 15. Normamae Milkwick, Anaconda, with 12 points, was high scorer for Sigma Kappa while June Smith, Wallace, Ida., made nine of Alpha Chi's points.

In the second game Saturday, New hall swamped Kappa Alpha Theta, 30 to 14. Regina Gilmore, Miles City, and Donna Harlan, Columbus, each with 14 points, accounted for most of the winners' score. Carol Fraser, Billings, made 10 points for Theta.

Operation Lotion Rub It in

BY JACK KIELY

"Walter Winchell may get 'lotions of love' from Jergens, and various and sundry debutantes may be 'lovely, engaged and use Pond's,' but the pharmacy school's manufacturing class has surpassed Winchell and the debutantes, they've invented their own lotion.

The manufacturing class, nineteen strong, with Francis C. Hamerness as their instructor, undertook Operation Lotion at the beginning of winter quarter. According to Hamerness, the lotion is the real thing, good enough in fact, to be manufactured by the pharmacy school and sold in its apothecary.

The lotion, as yet unnamed, is a thick, white liquid with a pleasing odor. After being rubbed into the skin, the lotion loses its pleasant odor, a feature that should make it welcomed by those males who suffer from chapped hands, yet hesitate to use the lavender and old lace lotions on the market.

In a small survey conducted in the Kaimin newsroom and the halls of the journalism school, the answers to the query, "Do you like it?" were overwhelmingly in the affirmative.

Hamerness said yesterday that a contest to name the new lotion will be announced soon.

ISA Emphasizes Social Activities

Future Independent Students' association meetings will have emphasis placed on the social, rather than the business activities of the group, the organization decided Monday night.

From now on Independents' meetings will consist of a 15-minute business meeting, followed by an hour of card-playing, informal dancing, and other entertainment. A larger share of the association's business decisions will be delegated to the ISA council henceforth.

As entertainment, Nancy Critelli, Billings, played three cello selections accompanied on the piano by Xenia Anton, Billings. The musical program included "Taran-telle" by Popper, "Andante" by Van Goens, and "Adagio" by Boccherini.

At the business meeting, Lynn P. Lull, Helena, and Beverly Nelson, Valier, were chosen as ISA candidates for Mardi Gras king and queen, and a decoration committee for the Feb. 12 "Cupid Hop" was appointed.

Grizzlies Sink 1000th Point; Cope Hitting at 16.7 Average

Friday and Saturday nights the Grizzlies tore through two victories and added 167 points to their season's total accumulation. As predicted, the 1,000-point mark was reached and left far behind the first night, buried under 30 other points.

"Calamity Cope" would be a fitting name for the Silvertip forward who sank the 1,000th point.

At half-time Friday night, the score was 48 to 37, MSU leading. Play had hardly resumed when Cope surged forward with the five-point difference. His point average per game is 16.7.

Graham is pulling back into recognized form again, his only regret being a delay caused by an injury. Bauer and Selstad are seeingaw for point superiority, it seems. Prior to the Gonzaga match, Selstad had a nine-point lead, but Bauer's 13 for that game evened the count at 65. Selstad went ahead again Saturday night. Out of the dark, Eaheart rang up 19 points the same night for high-point man, stealing the usual highlight honors from Cope and Rocheleau.

The two frays with the Bobcats brought the MSU tally to 1,114 points, virtually 62 points per game for the season average. Individual point increases are as follows:

Cope, from 260 to 302.
Rocheleau, from 206 to 232.
Eaheart, from 156 to 186.
Carstensen, from 90 to 110.
Selstad, from 65 to 77.
Bauer, from 65 to 75.
Graham, from 39 to 62.
Helding, from 15 to 17.
Kingsford, from 11 to 13.

Recreation Jobs Open for Women

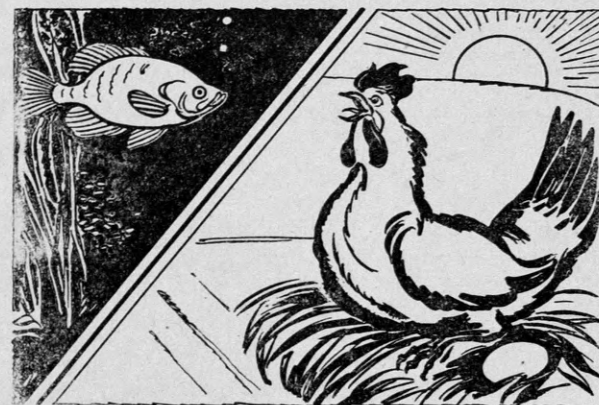

Positions for women as waterfront directors, life guards, camp recreational leaders, and playground assistants are open for the summer season. Any woman in the University may apply but preference will be given to physical education majors, according to Agnes L. Stoodley, associate professor of the health and physical education department.

Bulletins telling about the positions may be seen in the women's gymnasium.

Student Tickets For 'Winterset' Available Today

Student tickets for "Winterset," winter quarter Masquer production, will be available starting today at the Masquer ticket office on the second floor of Simpkins hall. The office is open from 1 to 4 o'clock daily.

Reserved seat tickets for the play, which will be presented Feb. 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12 in the Simpkins hall theater, may be obtained upon presentation of activity cards. All seats are reserved.

The University of Washington had an enrollment of 20,000 in 1947.

Music Recital Scheduled

The MSU School of Music will present Charlotte Williams, cellist, and James Anthony, pianist, in a faculty recital in the Student Union auditorium Sunday at 8:15 p.m.

Miss Williams attended Morningside college, Sioux City, Iowa, and Yankton college, Yankton, S. D. She received her B. M. degree at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, and her Master of Music degree at Northwestern university.

Before coming to Montana she taught cello and theory at Woman's college, University of North Carolina, Greensboro; West Liberty State college, West Liberty, W. Va., and Queens college, Charlotte, N. C.

Mr. Anthony attended New England Conservatory of Music and received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees at Columbia university. He was instructor of piano at the National Academy of Vocal Arts in New York City in 1947 and 1948, and accompanied in two Carnegie hall recitals last spring.

Man Hours Are Donated By Foresters

The problem of producing the Forester's ball is a four-year job for forestry students, Euel Davis, Missoula, this year's Chief Push, explained yesterday.

Davis says it takes about 3,000 man hours of work before the ball starts. Figuring this at a $1.42 an hour for a woods helper and double time for over 40 hours a week, the ball is quite an expensive proposition. But no one connected with the ball makes a profit.

The freshman forester starts as a helper. As a sophomore, he becomes a straw boss. His junior year elevates him to foreman. He has to wait until his senior year for those white-collar executive positions.

More than 350 forestry students serve on 21 committees. Committeemen are the senior adviser or director, the junior chairman, the sophomore assistant chairman, and the crew made up of freshmen and sophomores.

Sororities End Rush, Pick 16

Sororities ended winter rushing last Friday after formally pledging 16 new members.

Houses that pledged women were: Alpha Chi Omega—Shirley Gavin, Missoula; Delta Delta Delta—Rosemary Olney, Missoula, and Shirley Petesch, Geyser; Kappa Alpha Theta—Nancy Hair, Seattle, Helen Kuhne, Lewistown, Denise Zunchich, Great Falls, and Joyce Frigaard, Anaconda; Kappa Kappa Gamma—Janet Howe, Fargo, N. D., Pat Selway, Grant, Gay Vannoy, Billings, Ann Alderson, Birney, Mary Verploegen, Havre, and Betty Britton, Bozeman; and Sigma Kappa—Pat Beaubien, Missoula, Betsy Sherburne, Browning, and Audrey Gage, Shelby.

The rush season was very successful, Connie Shuder, Represa, Calif., Panhellenic president, said. There will be no further rushing until the three weeks rush in spring quarter.

Other Panhel business for the week is the convocation Friday. The convo will have both music and comedy presented by the members of the sororities, Elisabeth Miller, chairman of the convo, said.

Happy Groundhog day!

Smoke a LUCKY To feel your LEVEL best!

Luckies' fine tobacco picks you up when you're low . . . calms you down when you're tense!

Luckies' fine tobacco puts you on the right level—the Lucky level—to feel your level best, do your level best.

That's why it's important to remember that LUCKY STRIKE MEANS FINE TOBACCO—mild, ripe, light tobacco that makes a thoroughly enjoyable smoke. No wonder more independent tobacco experts—auctioneers, buyers and warehousemen—smoke Lucky Strike regularly than smoke the next two leading brands combined.

Light up a Lucky! Luckies' fine tobacco picks you up when you're low, calms you down when you're tense. So get on the Lucky level where it's fun to be alive. Get a carton and get started today!
