Education Publicized By Students--Olsen

Students are the medium by which information is passed on to others, said Arnold H. Olsen, attorney general of Montana, at convocation yesterday. "You become a champion, fostering and perpetuating education," he said.

Olsen, a 1940 graduate of the university law school, basing his talk on the significance of Charter day, said that education of the masses is the fundamental philosophy supporting democracy in this country.

"An informed people," said Olsen, "will be enabled to see that government is theirs—one instituted among men, deriving its just powers from the consent of the governed."

He was introduced by Pres. James A. McCain, who also presented Dean C. W. Leapheart of the law school and two members of the local executive board of MSU, Ted Jacobs and Alex Step-anzoff.

After briefly sketching the origins of the University, the attorney general said that education of the masses is a great dream conceived by Thomas Jefferson and sponsored by Abraham Lincoln.

"The dreamers, Jefferson, Lincoln, and others," continued Olsen, "beheld a great people—the product of nature plus education—begetting and fostering a greater people... a great benevolent government."

The attorney general said that university students champion the fundamental political philosophy of the United States by being an informed people and a medium of informing other people.

The university symphonic band under the direction of J. Justin Gray, played three selections from its annual formal winter concert which will be presented this Sunday evening.

While introducing Attorney General Olsen, President McCain commended the state legislature for its fine work. He said that Referendum 52 will give the University, for the first time in its modern history, a physical plant which will be adequate in terms of nationwide standards.

News In Brief

Anchorage, Alaska—These movie stunt men have nothing on a pilot in Alaska, who battled a crazed passenger while in the air near here. In fact, the only way the pilot could keep from being strangled was to whip the plane through a snap roll.

Mexico City—Joe Louis's wife, Marva, here to obtain a divorce from the heavyweight champ, says she would willingly remarry Joe, if he would only settle down and become "domestic."

Bill Smurr, Dick Shirley Are New Kaimin Wheels

Publications board yesterday afternoon recommended Bill Smurr, Sacramento, Calif., and Dick Shirley, Arnegard, N. D., for the positions of Kaimin editor and business manager respectively. Central board will pass final judgment on the recommendations Tuesday.

Publications board will accept applications for Kaimin associate editors next week. Applications will be due in the Student Union business office at 4 o'clock Wednesday. The board will recommend four new associates Thursday to be voted upon by Central board the following Tuesday.

The new editor, business manager, and associates will take over the Kaimin at the beginning of spring quarter.

Smurr, the son of H. L. Smurr, ex-'08, is 26 years of age and a junior in the journalism school. He has served on the Kaimin as a reporter, columnist, and associate editor, and worked as a cub reporter for the Sacramento Union. He is a veteran of 39 months service in the army. Smurr's mother was the former Mary Napton, daughter of Judge Welling Napton of Deer Lodge and Missoula.

Shirley, also a junior in the journalism school, is a transfer student from the University of North Dakota and is presently employed as a linotype operator, ad composition and makeup man for the university press. He is 27 years of age and is a veteran of 40 months army service, 13 of which were overseas.

Shirley has done shop work on publications in Montana and North Dakota, as well as in the army, since 1935. He is a member of Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity; Lambda Chi Alpha social fraternity; and the International Typographical union.

Grizzlies Out for Bulldogs In Season's Home Finale

Back on their home floor, a revengeful band of Montana Grizzlies conclude their home schedule by playing host to Gonzaga's Bulldogs at 8 p.m. tonight and tomorrow night. The Grizzlies were defeated by the Zags twice last month, 38-55 and 57-65, at Spokane.

Music Group Entertains In Spokane

Under the leadership of John Lester, professor of music, a group of students will present a program for the entertainment of the Spokane club tomorrow night.

Last year a similar trip was made by members of the music school. The program presented at that time resulted in an invitation to return again. The operetta "Carmen Jones" was used as the theme for last year's program. This year the performers will build their show around "The Student Prince."

Making the trip with Lester are Rudolph Wendt, pianist; Gayle Davidson, Polson, soprano; Betty Bee Young, Lewistown, flutist; Patricia Selway, Grant, soprano; Jeanne Lewis, Missoula, accompanist; the Sinfonia quartet, composed of George Lewis, Missoula, tenor; Coyne Burnett, Missoula, tenor; Neil Dahlstrom, Missoula, baritone; James Callihan, Spokane, bass; and Mrs. James Callihan, accompanist.

Arnold Illustrates Band Concert

J. Justin Gray, conducting the university's Symphonic band, will use paintings to illustrate scenes depicted in music at the annual winter concert Sunday evening in the Student Union auditorium. "Pictures at an Exhibition" by Moussorgsky will be featured.

The paintings, done by Prof. Aden Arnold of the fine arts department, will be spotlighted on the stage at the time the musical selection is played.

The program, beginning at 8:15, in addition to Moussorgsky's number, will include Ravel's "Bolero"; Gould's "Jericho"; Gliere's "Russian Sailor's Dance"; an arrangement by Teague of "I Hear a Rhapsody"; and "Jingles all the Way" by Cable. The opening selection will be the overture from "Rienzi" by Wagner.

"Jingles all the Way" is a bit of musical spoofing of familiar radio commercials that will add a light touch to the concert.

Three Montana seniors—Captain Lou Rocheleau, Tom Selstad, and John Holding—complete their home floor college basketball careers Saturday night.

Coach Claude McGrath brings a veteran array of ball players minus but one member from last year's squad. This season the Zags have won 13 games while dropping only 7. Losses were to the national champion AAU Phillips Oilers, two close ones to Washington university, Seattle U twice, Portland U, and a strong University of Idaho club. They command decisions over Whitman, Idaho U, Farragut, Whitworth, and Portland university as well as Montana.

Zag Starters

Gonzaga's probable starting team for tonight's clash will include Jack Brasch and Rich Evans at forward, big Frank Walter at center, and Captain Jack Curran and Pat Sweeney at the guard posts. This combination averages less than 6 feet, 1 inch in height. Biggest player of this quintet is Walter, a 6 foot, 3 inch junior center who weighs 185 pounds.

Former Butte Central all-stater Jim McCaughey heads a strong group of Gonzaga reserves.

Capt. Curran, Evans, and Walter topped the Bulldog scoring column during the 1947-48 season.

The two losses suffered by the Grizzlies at the hands of the invading Bulldogs last month were marked by 107 personal fouls. Montana lost five men on personals the second night which included one player from each squad being banished for fighting. Both nights the Grizzlies tried more shots but failed to cash in on as many as the Bulldogs, hitting 33 of 112 for a 29.5 per cent to the Zag's 38 of 94 attempted for an exceptionally high 40.4 per cent.

Gonzaga presents a well balanced scoring attack as shown in the previous series when Sweeney hit 29 points, Walter 28, Curran 27, and Evans tallied 24 for the two night's work. Cope with 35 points and Capt. Rocheleau with 18 spearheaded the Montana offense.

Coach Jiggs Dahlberg put the Grizzlies through a long hard practice session Wednesday afternoon, working on their fast break to speed up Gonzaga's deliberate type of play. Montana second-stringers used the Zag type offensive against the first string; that is, a slow break using screen plays and set shots. Montana's ball handling was on the ragged side. Defensively the Silvertips practiced switching man to man.

Yesterday the Grizzlies went through a short practice session.

Last Year Different

Last year Montana defeated the Zags in three of four games. Included in one of the games at the Grizzlie's gym was Bob Cope's record breaking performance of 40 points.

Dahlberg-coached Grizzly basketball teams have won 27 while losing but 9 until this series. The Montana-Gonzaga rivalry started during the 1915-16 season, playing almost every year since then. The Grizzlies maintain a record of 57 won, 27 lost over the Gonzaga club.

This year's Grizzly team has netted an average of 64 points per game.

Officials for the games will be Lawrence Potter and Douglas Gailbraith, both of Hamilton. No preliminaries are scheduled.

Panhel Award To Be Divided

For the first time the Panhellenic scholarship will be divided into two awards of $60 each, it was announced at Panhel meeting Wednesday.

The awards will be given this spring at convocation to two sorority women who have excelled in scholarship and in school activities, Connie Shuder, president of the Panhel council, said. The girls will be either sophomores or juniors at the time of presentation.

Last year's winner was Marge Hunter, Libby, who received $120.

Other business at the meeting consisted of planning for an evening songfest Thursday, Feb. 24, in the Student Union lounge from 9-10. Barbara Lou Kitt, Missoula, is chairman of the affair.

A panel discussion on scholarship was given at the meeting by Peg McDonald, Phillipsburg, Tri Delt; Esther Halverson, Lonepine, Alpha Chi Omega; and Lex Mudd, Missoula, Delta Gamma.

Dear Editor,

Publication of the editorial written by Floyd G. Larson that appeared in Tuesday's Kaimin is highly commendable. The reaction ranged from apathy by the casual to sheer horror by the cautious.

Every day the call is for more free, fair, fighting journalism. Textbooks are full of it. The public wants interesting, blow-by-blow reporting. Evidently they mean for pinochle games.

Publish an editorial like Larson's of Tuesday and watch people sunfish, crawfish and back into the mud puddles to keep their

SN, South, SAE Victors

Wednesday night intramural basketball play saw Sigma Nu tag the first loss on the Kappa Sigs in the first game, 68 to 45. The loss dropped the Kappa Sigs to fifth place in the A league.

Sigma Nu suffered a similar defeat from South hall Monday night, putting them in a two-way tie with Row houses for third place.

South hall won the second berth in B league stands with a 34 to 26 win from ATO. South hall had to stave off a second half scoring spree by ATO, who outscored them by four points, to win the game.

A fast-breaking SAE team outlasted the Sig Eps 45 to 41 in the last game.

The game turned into a scoring contest between Gunlikson of SAE and Dobbins of Sig Eps. Gunlikson scored 22 points to tie the single game record held by Marinovich of the Ski club. Dobbins scored 20 points. Both teams used a fast-breaking offense.

Keglers Finish League Saturday

The intramural bowling league will finish its regular season this Saturday. The championship already gone to the Phi Delt, the final session will be to determine the runner-up positions.

Second place seems cinched for the Sig Eps, so the real battle will be for third place between the SAE's and ISA. Pledge bowling is still in the first round of a two-round league. The interest here will be to see if either the Phi Delt or the ATO's can break the tie that has tied up the No. 1 spot for two weeks.

The intramural league will get underway with TX and the Phi Sigs on alleys one and two, SX and the Foresters on three and four, South hall and the SPE's on five and six, SN and PDT on seven and eight, ATO and KS on nine and ten. The hot game of the SAE's and ISA will be run off upstairs as will the battle between the halls, Jumbo and Corbin.

At three p.m. the PDT pledges will meet the SN's on three and four, ATO and SX on five and six, SPE and PSK on seven and eight, and the SAE's and TX on alleys nine and ten.

Managers to Meet Tomorrow at Alleys

Fraternity bowling managers will meet at the Liberty Bowling center Saturday afternoon after the regularly scheduled games to discuss possibilities of an interfraternity bowling tournament.

Bob Stermitz, Helena, president of Interfraternity council, said the managers of the teams would find out if every fraternity team is willing to enter and if so, draw up plans for the tournament. If the managers decide to go ahead with the tournament, it will take place after the regular intramural games, now being played, are over.
