PBX BLOWUP

Arthur Stone's column in Friday's Kaimin may have come as a surprise to many who have had only pleasant dealings with the university switchboard. Stone is not a delicate writer, and his strictures on PBX operators who listen in on private calls were caused by strong feelings of indignation.

We sympathize with those operators, here and departed, who have refrained from this disgusting practice, but we share Stone's feelings. Indeed, we feel more disgust than he does.

Speer Speaks Up

At a special meeting Friday afternoon, J. B. Speer told the operators that the University feels it should be able to count on the same kind of service from them that an important executive can expect from his confidential secretary or stenographer.

The Kaimin's attitude toward the PBX is only this: That such a relationship as Mr. Speer desires, and all of us should demand, has not existed in the past and may never exist unless each operator exhibits a stronger sense of personal honor than many have so far.

No one at the meeting denied that the practice existed. One feeble argument was advanced to the effect that there is no more listening-in on our board than on a professional switchboard, but this little excursion fell flat. One operator courageously admitted that many of the PBX people had listened-in. Another denied that he had done anything of the sort. The majority just sat and said nothing. Draw your own conclusions.

New Resolutions

We are satisfied that Mr. Speer is doing all he can to correct the listening-in problem. We are equally certain that his efforts will count for nothing unless some of the operators convert their hot resentment against the Kaimin into a resolution to disprove what we charge by giving the type of service that everyone expects.

For our part, we are NOT sorry we jumped on the operators, we do NOT think listening-in has occurred on so small a scale as some would have us believe, and we do NOT regard listening-in on ANY scale as a small matter.

Speer Is Fair

Nasty habits have brought on nasty punishments. For illegally opening another's mail the federal government has provided a stiff penalty at law. For deliberately listening-in to another's telephone conversation telephone companies around the globe discharge malefactors in haste and without regret.

Deadline Set For Health Service Tick Shots

Students' last chances to begin their series of three tick shots will be Wednesday, according to Dr. Willard Nicholl of the health service. Thereafter, students may receive the first of the shots at the health service but will have to complete the series through local downtown doctors. The health service will give no shots after April 15. There is no charge for the service.

An electrocardiographic machine has been obtained by the health service, Dr. Nicholl said. This instrument is used to diagnose heart ailments. Students may receive an electrocardiogram (an EKG test) upon appointment, according to Dr. Nicholl.

The health service continues to receive "two or three cases of measles a week," he said.

New Post for Murray?

Did this little bow made by Senator James Murray to Vice-President Barkley last October mean that the senator was acknowledging a fat promotion—if re-elected? If Murray resigns will Bonner take his place as U. S. Senator? See story.

Denies Rumors of Deal to Get Murray's Office

Governor John W. Bonner yesterday denied that he will replace Senator Murray if the senator resigns to accept "an important government post." The governor's blunt wire to the Kaimin effectively spiked rumors that he will resign to allow Lieutenant-Governor Cannon to appoint him to Murray's vacant post if Murray is promoted.

"I believe that the people elected me governor for four years, and that they did not expect me to use the office as a stepping stone for another without their say so at the polls," Bonner said.

His wire came after the Kaimin asked him early Sunday morning either to confirm or deny the rumors. The governor said he had not heard the story that Murray might resign.

TEXT OF BONNER WIRE

Editor Montana Kaimin
University of Montana

Regarding your wire this date, I have no information that Senator Murray will resign, but I can tell you straight from the shoulder that in the event he does I will continue as Governor and would not enter into any arrangement whereby Lieutenant-Governor Cannon would appoint me senator because I believe that the people elected me governor for four years, and that they did not expect me to use the office as a stepping stone for another without their say so at the polls. This is my philosophy of politics, and it is a philosophy that I adhere to.

John W. Bonner, Governor.

ASMSU Votes For Boost in Activity Fee

New High Costs, More Student Activity Given As Reason for Raise

The central board of ASMSU has voted for an increase of $1.50 on the student activity fee, it was announced yesterday by Jim Lucas, business manager of ASMSU. The new fee is to be $9.00.

Lucas proposed the increase over the old fee of $7.50 at a recent board meeting, and the proposal was unanimously accepted by the members. The change will not become effective, however, until after the student body votes on it.

Transportation Costs

Lucas gave as reasons for the activity fee hike the high cost of sending university representatives, athletic and otherwise, to compete against other schools. He termed Missoula an isolated area in comparison with other college towns, and said that the cost of transportation out of here had become higher in recent years.

$70 Worth of Entertainment

Lucas also said that the entertainment at present afforded by the activity card amounted in actual value to more than $70 during a single school year. He stressed too the increased expense of maintaining ASMSU due to large enrollments in recent quarters, and said that plans for expanding student activities called for more money.

Misses Montana Pass In Review

Here are the candidates for the title "Miss Montana of 1949." Each day this week the Kaimin will offer thumbnail sketches of some of the candidates.

Edna-Marie Thompson, 19, Missoula, is a sophomore majoring in English. She has a particular interest in speech and dramatic work and played the lead in the 1948 Masquer production, "Dracula." She has had a minor role and has done production work on other Masquer productions.

With this experience, Miss Thompson has combined her special talent in her dramatic readings. In addition to voice and dramatic study she has taken five years of piano and four years of dance training. She is a member of Aquamids and is an ROTC Sponsor. Her ambition is to go on the legitimate stage.

Mary Lee Gardner, 18, Fairview, is a freshman majoring in music education. She has been studying piano for nine years and trombone for four years and plays with the University band.

Miss Gardner also plays violin and was active in musical activities in high school. After graduation, her ambition is to become a public school music instructor. Someday she hopes to be able to study in Europe.

Joyce Haskard, 20, a junior from Billings, came to the University after two years work at the university in Wichita, Kansas. She received a voice scholarship to that school after graduation from high school.

Miss Haskard has eight years of piano and six years of voice training. Upon completion of her degree in music education she would like to teach public school music and continue her voice training. In high school she participated in musical work and received several special awards.

Joyce Degenhart, 21, Philipsburg, was recently chosen as one of the finalists competing in the local talent quest program. She has sung before many university audiences and has been soloist with the a cappella choir and the University Symphony orchestra.

Miss Degenhart is a senior and is majoring in applied voice in the School of Music. She has done radio work with the Radio Guild and plans to study for radio and operetta work. She has six years of voice training and four years of training in piano and dramatics.

Virginia Murray, 20, Butte, is a sophomore major in music and minoring in Spanish. She has had 10 years of piano training and plays the clarinet with the University band. During her four years in high school she was a church organist.

After graduation, Miss Murray would like to do further work in accompanying and music teaching. Prior to entering the University, she did secretarial work for a year and a half.

One of These Is Next WAA Boss

Midtlying

Present vice-president of WAA, and candidate for president is Joanna Midtlying, Deer Lodge. She is a junior and hopes to "enable more University women to participate in WAA activities and sports. WAA elections are tomorrow and Thursday.

Messelt

Virginia Messelt, Billings, a junior, also hopes to stimulate greater WAA activity. "I hope to promote women's activities and make them more important and popular on the campus than they are now," she says. She is also a WAA vice-president.

MacDonald

Now treasurer of WAA and hoping to be president soon is Peggy MacDonald, Philipsburg. A junior, she has participated in many WAA activities. Her campaign promise? "To carry on as usual and maybe improve things a bit."

Pick Eleven To Judge MSU Coeds

Mrs. McCain, Shepherd, Among Group to Name Miss Montana of 1949

Eleven judges have been selected to judge the Miss Montana pageant on April 1. These judges, selected from all over the state, will decide who will be Miss Montana of 1949.

The judges are:

Mrs. James A. McCain, wife of the president and graduate of Colorado State college. Mrs. McCain studied ballet under Ernest Belcher of Los Angeles. Domina Marina, a student of Ana Pavlova, and Georgia Lane. She also had the honor of dancing for Pavlova, one of the great ballet artists of all time.

Branson G. Stevenson, Great Falls, the head of Montana Socony Vacuum company and chairman of the art board of Great Falls. Stevenson is well-known for his etchings, according to Bob Burns of the Miss Montana judging committee. He has had exhibits in Missoula, Great Falls, Seattle, St. Paul, and Los Angeles. He is a member of the American Artists society.

Virginia Sikonia, advertising manager, Burr's store, Butte. A graduate of Montana State University, she has been a judge at the previous pageants in '47 and '48.

Thomas J. Davis, a Butte attorney and former law professor at MSU. Davis has served as president of the Montana Bar association, on the President's loyalty board, a consultant to the UN, and was international president of Rotary in 1941-42.

Flagstad Accompanist

Mrs. James Dickson, Bozeman, a graduate in music of MSC. Mrs. Dickson served as accompanist for Mme. Kirsten Flagstad on a western concert tour, playing at Oakland, Calif., Vancouver, B. C., and Salt Lake City. She also accompanied the singer at a concert in Bozeman.

Theodore Jacobs, Missoula, president of the First National bank. Jacobs is an active member of the Mendelssohn club, has worked in the Community Concert association, and is a director of the Montana Chamber of Commerce.

John R. Shepherd, an instructor in English at Montana State University. A graduate of Stanford, Shepherd has had experience in radio, both as an instructor in California and as an actor.

Mary Condon, Helena, state superintendent of public instruction.

Today

Dmitri Mitropoulos brings his Minneapolis symphony to the Student Union theater today at 3:10. The famed musician will soon take over the New York Philharmonic orchestra, thus becoming perhaps the most important conductor in the world by virtue of his leadership of this leading musical organization. The Minneapolis Symphony plays again tonight for regular Community concert season ticket holders.

A graduate of Iowa State university in English and U. S. History, she served as a program director with the American Red Cross Overseas Welfare service.

D. H. Beary, principal of Missoula County high school. Beary's main interests lie in riding and showing three- and five-gaited horses. Beary has also judged many horse shows.

Mary V. Harris, director of drama at Missoula County high school. A graduate of Grinnell college, she has judged the two previous Miss Montana pageants.

Dorothy Green, Helena, executive secretary of the University of Montana. Miss Green attended Montana State University and studied violin in Germany. At present she teaches violin in Helena.

The judges were selected by the Miss Montana committee on the basis of their experience in various fields, in order to better select an all-around Miss Montana.

Additional Rooms Available in Jumbo

A limited number of rooms are still available in Jumbo hall, according to Miss Edith Ames, residence hall director. Miss Ames requests that men students having housing troubles call her office in New hall.

The director reported that the number of persons in the rooms in the various halls has been reduced, making the accommodations somewhat better.

"We are still operating the halls over the capacity intended for them," said Miss Ames, "but the situation is improving."

One of the duller things in the world is a filler.

The Gay Old Days

BY DONNA RING

Sigma Nu

Dinner guests last Wednesday were Mrs. Pearl Raymaker, Alpha Chi Omega house-mother, her daughter Nancy, and Alpha Chi house president Veronica Kreitel.

Guests entertained at Sunday dinner included Mr. and Mrs. Ned Dobson, Betty Stoick, Missoula, and Elsie Wallin, Great Falls.

Sigma Chi

New initiates are Dean Swanson, Great Falls, Swede Daklin, St. Peters, Minn., Chris Small, Ft. Benton, Gene Thurston, Helena, Ray Rademaker, Missoula, John Barnett, Missoula, Ralph Anderson, Helena, Bryce Breitenstein, Plains, Jack Driscoll, Missoula, Bob Fraser, Billings, Bob LeClair, Great Falls, Bill Reynolds, Missoula, Jim Smart, Missoula, Ben Wuerthner, Great Falls, Doug Kuster, Hamilton, Alan Van Horn, Ft. Benton, Vern Plumley, Missoula, and Joe Buley, Helena.

Don Harkins and Ralph Day, MSC students, were week-end guests.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Glenn Edsell, Jordan, is a new pledge.

Sunday dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watson, Missoula, Robert Kemley, Rochester, N. Y., and Robert Keenan, Pitman, N. J. Dick Lucas, Ringling, C. W. Wordal, Missoula, and Sid Kuphal, Missoula, spent the week end skiing in Whitefish.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon

Actives, pledges, and dates were guests of the Minerva club at a buffet supper Sunday evening.

Pledges dropped a hard fought game to the actives in the annual pledge-active basketball game.

Sam Phillips, Jack Slayton, and Ed Bower, MSC students, were week-end guests.

Delta Gamma

Gloria Swanson, Potomac, received a SAE pin Sunday from Ed Shelton, Butte.

Maxine Anderson, Ft. Benton, spent the week end cheering for her home team at the class B basketball tournament in Deer Lodge.

Four women from the Montana State college choral group were luncheon guests of the DG's Monday. They were Jean Heidt, Doris Peterson and Peggy Boid, AOP, from Helena, and Penny Stearns, DG, from Great Falls.

Phi Delta Theta

Bob Clapper, Billings, and a student at the University of Colorado, was a visitor at the house during the past week.

Ward Fanning, Butte, moved back into the house.

Concert Tickets

You can still get a ticket for the Minneapolis concert. Special student matinee tickets will be on sale today downstairs in the Student Union from 12:30 to 2:15. Price is $1. Remember to bring your student activity cards to the concert.

THETA CHI ROBBED

The Theta Chi fraternity house, 340 University avenue, was burglarized early yesterday morning with a loss of $85, according to Louis Garwood, Butte, a house resident.

The theft apparently took place after 3 a.m. Drawers were ransacked and personal articles were strewn around the rooms. Other houses have reported similar thefts lately.

Kappa Kappa Gamma

The senior class went to Butte Sunday to attend a bridal shower for Ann Albright, Butte. She will be married to Paul Hawkins, Wallace, Idaho, on April 2.

Three women have received pins during the past two weeks. They are Barbara Harten, Spokane, who was pinned by Sigma Chi Chuck Cone, Cheilan, Wash.; Janet Howe, Fargo, N. D., who is wearing the shield and sword of Rye Fox, Great Falls; and Marjorie Hunt, Kalispell, who received an SAE pin from Fred Westman, Wichita, Kan.

Sandy Sterling, Polson, is returning to school after her trip to Peru. Betty Britton, Bozeman, has moved into the house.

Theta Chi

New house officers recently elected are John Berg, Big Timber, president; Larry Armstrong, Lander, Wyo., vice president; and Don Shults, Sunburst, secretary.

Ester "Cookie" Demmons, the house cook for the past 15 years has retired because of ill health. Mrs. Jeffries has taken over the job.

Alpha Phi

A puppy, who was named "PD" by the girls who found him, was a guest on the third floor of the A Phi house Friday night. His presence was detected as being part of an initiation, as a pledge was seen scaling the fire escape about 12:30 with the dog under his arm.

Other guests over the week end were Marge McVeda, Lewistown, and Gwen Keene, Box Elder.

Sigma Kappa

New officers for the year are: Jean Popham, Glendive, president; Rudy Popovich, Roundup, and Betty Lou Berland, Conrad, vice presidents; Mildred Roy, Anaconda, secretary; Colleen Fulton, Polson, treasurer; Laura Bergh, Froid, social chairman; Marjorie Anderson, Kalispell, rush chairman; and Doris Enebo, Stevensville, house manager.

Laura Bergh, Froid, Dorothy Urquhart, Great Falls, Grace Seibert, Frenchtown, Marjorie Fryberger, Charlo, and Barbara Dockery, Lewistown, moved into the house this quarter.

Eight-Team Leagues Planned For Intramural Softballers

Last Year's Records Show Strong Teams In Prospect for Jumbo Hall, Phi Deltas, South Hall With Many Returning Men

Two eight-team leagues are planned for intramural softball during the spring quarter.

A definite schedule will be drawn up when team managers meet with Dave Cole, director of intramural athletics, on Thursday. The season's opening has remained uncertain up until this week, owing to the fluctuations of the weather.

If the outcome of last year's league games gives any indication of present strength, then there appear to be five teams that will dominate the intramural diamonds. These teams are South hall, Phi Delta Theta, Sigma Nu, Jumbo hall, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

South hall's team consists mainly of returning players, with the addition of Ralph "Doc" O'Quinn, who is expected to add strength to the pitching staff.

The PDT's, having a large share of their last year's players returning, are expected to do well in the batting department.

The Sigma Chi's loss of "Jocko" Schwab by graduation lessens that team's chances in league play. However, the essexes still have "Moose" Carstensen to bolster their squad.

In view of the fact that the grassed area of the Clover bowl is not large enough to handle two softball fields, plans are being made to put the practice field west of the Chem-Pharm building into use.

With the student-advisory system it is possible to finish a four-year course with only two or three extra quarters of work.

were widely discussed in other Montana cities during the week. Paul Hawkins, former editor of the Kaimin, reported that some state politicians tended to believe the story because of Senator Murray's high standing with the administration.

Two possibilities seem open to Murray's future. He may be appointed secretary of the interior, or he may be put in charge of the Missouri Valley project if his newly-introduced bill passes a semi-hostile House and Senate.

Secretary of the Interior Krug was considered dead weight during the last campaign, whereas Murray managed to keep Montana in the Democratic column in spite of expensive Republican efforts to win it over. Both President Truman and Vice-president Barkley are known to have a high regard for Senator Murray.

What About Murray?

Governor Bonner's denial that he had higher political ambitions once again raised the question of what will happen to the senatorship should Murray resign.

Representative Mike Mansfield (former political science instructor at the University) is known to covet the position. Friends say he would have run for it long ago if Murray hadn't continued in the race.

The chain of events suggested by the rumors hinge on the success or failure of Senator Murray's MVA bill, now in committee. If the bill fails the administration's entire program for Montana and the West may be dumped. If it succeeds Murray would certainly be a strong contender for the chairmanship of the project.

Campus Briefs

Charles W. Leapheart, dean of the law school, who is one of the directors of the Federal Loan and Savings bank of San Francisco, left Saturday to attend a directors meeting in Phoenix, Ariz.

Election of officers will take place at the "M" club meeting tonight in the Student Union. John Holding, president, has announced.

Phi Sigma will have a business meeting tonight at 7:30 in NS-207.

Ski club members will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. in the Silver room to elect officers for next year. Cleona Smith, secretary announced.

Phi Delta Phi, the law professional fraternity, will have a luncheon in the Florence hotel Thursday noon. Harold Holt, president of the organization, announced.

We have good news for you. The Spurs are going to make their candy and cookie sale an all-day affair.

Instead of offering their fudge and brownies for a few limited hours in the morning as we previously stated, the Spurs will have their stands open for business from 9 to 4 today, on the first floor of the Student Union.

We are pleased that Mr. Speer regards our charges against the switchboard with the same concern that we do.

We are particularly gratified by his fairness in accepting our criticism as a necessary and even desirable duty of a college newspaper. Would that all campus agencies could feel the same way, for we shall continue to expose questionable practices wherever and whenever they appear.

The sooner our readers come to realize that the Kaimin is not just an innocuous organ of club reports, social teas, sporting events, and anemic editorials, the happier we shall be.

We feel that the administration will thank us for our interest. If the president knew, for example, that during the search for a new coach the Kaimin was given highly confidential information (through the switchboard) that it should not have had, then he would be as eager as we are to toughen PBX discipline. We were given this information through simple carelessness on the part of the operator, but since the president was always fair with us we decided to be equally fair with him. We never used that information.

It is not alone with the switchboard that we feel we can perform a service by publishing news of things that many would like to see buried in the University files. There is a situation brewing now in the strip-houses that may develop into a major scandal if this newspaper is not treated as

'M' Club Nominates Candidates for New Executive Officer

Three nominations for "M" club president for next year were made last week.

Those nominated were Dick Carstensen, Helena, three times lettered in basketball; and Bob Anderson and Jack O'Loughlin, both of Missoula, who both lettered three times in football. Elections will be March 30. Both nominations and election of "M" club vice-president and secretary-treasurer are scheduled for the same night.

It was decided that Bob Fraser, Billings, and Earl Cook, Helena, should be given their choice of a letter sweater or a trophy for their participation in the "M" club boxing tournament which was staged at the end of last quarter.

Relax! Spring's a'coming.

Letters to the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

I hope the Kaimin's new policy of cooperating with the mayor-elect in driving university students from the dives does not hinder the publication of this latest addition to "Uncle Paul's recipe column."

This is a recipe for glugg (spelled with an umlaut over the u), the traditional drink of Norwegian skiers. It is a tradition in Norway that after a ski race all the contestants gather around the fireplace, over which is being heated a huge bowl of glugg. The winners of the races dip their individual mugs into the flaming beverage and toast each other.

Here is the recipe for the drink of the gods—Tor, Boden, and the others:

Cover six cinnamon sticks, 24 cloves, one lemon peel, and one orange peel with water in a large pot and simmer slowly for 30 minutes. Add one gallon of port wine and one gallon of claret. Heat to the boiling point, but don't boil. Pour this into a large bowl and place a grate over the bowl.

Place several sugar lumps on the grate, pour one quart of brandy over the sugar lumps, turn out the lights, ignite the sugar and let it melt into the pot. Don't let burn too long. Remove the grate and ladle the flaming glugg into mugs into which you previously have placed several raisins and blanched almonds.

Chug-a-lug a mug of glugg and you'll swear this is the most important addition made to "Uncle Paul's" column so far this year.
