Assigned homework exercises and problems will be collected each class period. No homework will be accepted late. Assignments will be reviewed for format, neatness, completeness, and evidence of effort. Some, but not all, of the homework exercises and problems will be discussed in class. You are encouraged to make corrections on your homework as the problems are discussed in class. All assignments are to be prepared before the class period for which they are assigned. This preparation includes reading the assigned chapter, working the assigned problems, and identifying questions that you need answered. Each day’s homework will have equal value.

Mission Statement:
