Homework Homework will be collected daily, and will be accepted only on the date due. Homework will not be collected late for any reason. In order to get credit for homework points, an honest attempt to complete the assigned problems is required. Regardless of whether you choose to turn in homework for credit or not, keeping up on homework is vital to success in this class. We will go over most homework in class. Answers to homework are available during office hours.

Email project (5 points), due September 9, 2002, by 5 pm. Send me an email telling me the email address you would like to use for contact purposes (announcements, syllabus changes, etc.) In this (5 sentence minimum) email, tell me about yourself, your hometown, family, job(s), life experiences, significant others, educational plans, and something you did this summer. (If your email address changes at any time during the semester, you are responsible to email me with your new address.) This assignment will only be accepted by email.

Internet project (10 points) Research Assignment 9-34. Answer the questions a-f. Restrict length to 1 page. Due Monday, November 25, 2002, by class time. (This assignment may be turned in by email.)

Career Fair Assignment This will count as one (1) homework point. If you choose to work for this point, attend the career fair on October 2 in the UC Ballroom, then turn in or email me a 3-5-sentence synopsis of your impressions, due October 4 by class time.

Attendance While not required, attendance is expected and will be necessary for passing this course. Material may be presented that is not in the text. You are responsible for getting notes from a classmate if you miss a class.

Missed Quizzes You will be allowed to make up one missed quiz at the end of the semester. This is the only provision for missed quizzes. The last class day of the semester is reserved for this option. If you miss a quiz during the semester, let me know that you plan to make it up on that day.

⊗ ⊗ Please remind me of your section number or class meeting time when you communicate with me so I can keep all your names/sections straight!

Students with Disabilities Qualified students with disabilities will receive appropriate accommodations in this course. Please provide a letter from your DSS coordinator so we can discuss these accommodations.

Mission Statement The faculty and staff of the School of Business Administration at The University of Montana are committed to excellence in innovative learning and professional growth through research and service.

Student code of conduct <http://www.umt.edu/studentaffairs/CODE.htm> Academic honesty is expected. Please refer to this site for details.
