COUNCIL OF 50 IS HEADED FOR UM SESSION

More than 50 special advisers to the University of Montana will visit the Missoula campus next Saturday (May 13), traveling from nearly every Montana county.

According to Thomas Collins, who serves as Council of 50 coordinator in his position as UM director of public services, the day-long conference will feature special presentations by selected University faculty and administrators, as well as discussion sessions when Council of 50 members will air their views of the University.

The sessions will commence at 9 a.m. in the Lodge Territorial rooms with introductory remarks by Pres. Robert T. Pantzer. Dr. Norman Taylor, administrative vice president, will discuss the activities of the Bureau of Business and Economic Research, which he formerly directed, and Dr. Laurence Gale, academic vice president, will speak on the University's changing pattern.

Jack Elway, assistant football coach, will discuss Intercollegiate Athletics; Dean Robert Sullivan will tell of Law School Special Programs; University of Montana Foundation affairs will be discussed by Director Oakley Coffee, Collins, and Ed Ellsworth, Jr.; state prison warden. A report on the University's progress will be delivered by Pres. Pantzer.
