TOP BRITISH COLUMBIA PREP PROSPECT TO ATTEND UM THIS FALL

A 6-5, 240-pound tackle, who was named this year's outstanding British Columbia, Canada high school football prospect, will enroll this fall at the University of Montana, Jack Swarthout, head football coach and athletic director, announced Monday.

The newest addition to the ranks of this year's UM freshman grid squad is Bill Postler, who will graduate this spring from Wendermere High School in Vancouver, B.C.

Postler, who will major in forestry at UM, was also called one of the outstanding linemen at the Developmental Camp of the Canadian professional football league's British Columbia Lions held this spring.
