Korean War Situation Causes New Peace Crisis

BY UNITED PRESS

World peace is in shaky balance with Communist China controlling the scales.

High administration officials in Washington say the Chinese alone are in a position to say what happens next. Britain says it is giving urgent attention to Chinese intervention in Korea. France says the threat of general war is nearer than at any time since 1945.

TRUMAN CITES NEED FOR WESTERN SOLIDARITY

Independence, Mo., Nov. 6.—(U)—President Truman has called on the western democracies for greater effort to meet the "threat of Communist aggression."

The President spoke to a hometown audience in Independence shortly after a telephone conference with Secretary of State Dean Acheson about the Korean war situation.

In dedicating a liberty bell sent from France, Mr. Truman said, "The free nations must stand together and help one another if freedom is to survive." The President repeated that the American objective is to achieve a "peace based on agreement among nations." But he said the only way to meet the continuing Communist threat is "by building up the combined strength of the free world."

SENATE, HOUSE SEATS GO ON BLOCK TODAY

By United Press
Tomorrow, the American people will choose the Congress which will shape the future of the country, and perhaps of the whole world, for many years to come.

It is estimated that between 40 and 45 million voters will turn up at the polling places, an all-time record for a non-presidential year.

There are 36 senate seats and 432 house seats at stake. The Republicans need seven senate seats and 46 house seats to win control of Congress.

Thirty-two states are electing governors.

WASHINGTON U DEAN TRIES TO RESIGN

Seattle, Nov. 6.—(U)—The dean of students at the University of Washington plans to re-submit his resignation.

Dean Edward H. Lauer's resignation was turned down by the board of regents Saturday. He tendered the resignation because a faculty discipline committee did not suspend from school, as he had recommended, 19 fraternity students, for vandalism in a sorority house.

He said he will re-submit his resignation, listing reasons why he feels it should be accepted. The board said Saturday it did not believe he had shown sufficient reasons.

The board's next meeting is in Spokane on Nov. 25.

FORUM ON EVOLUTION

A forum on evolution is scheduled at 4 p.m. today in the Gold room at the Student Union. The forum, sponsored by the Newman club, will be held for constructive discussion of evolution as related to Christianity and is open to all students of the Christian faith.

OFF-CAMPUS ORGANIZATION PLANNED FOR WOMEN

A special organization for off-campus women is being planned this year by AWS, according to Pat Walker, Scobey, committee chairman.

Women interested in the project are asked to contact Miss Walker or Alice Kesler, Butte, at the Kaimin office.

CLASSES DISMISSED

Classes will not meet between 2 and 5 p.m. today, due to this afternoon's student showing of the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

Mrs. Hetler Dies After Long Illness

Dr. Rossleene A. Hetler, 55, former MSU assistant professor in chemistry, died Thursday at a local hospital after an illness of several months.

Mrs. Hetler had instructed at MSU from January, 1946, until June, 1950, when she retired due to ill health.

She was granted a bachelor of arts degree from Oberlin college, Ohio, in 1916, a master of arts degree from the University of Illinois in 1918, and in 1926, received her doctorate from Yale university.

Wife of Donald M. Hetler, chairman of the department of bacteriology and hygiene, she is also survived by a daughter, Katherine, who is a student at the University.

Funeral services will be private and will be followed by cremation. Arrangements are in charge of Lucy mortuary.

Pharmacy Ball Set for Dec. 1 In Gold Room

The Pharmacy club has set Dec. 1 as the date of their annual Pharmacy ball. The semi-formal affair will be held this year in the Student Union gold room.

The decorations committee has announced a pharmacy theme. Door prizes will be presented and music will be by Hal Herbig. Tickets will go on sale the week before the ball.

The first MSU Pharmacy ball was in 1915, the year after the School of Pharmacy was moved from Bozeman, in the hall over the building that is now Ormsher's. A student orchestra provided the music and guests were presented with perfumes and other prizes obtained through the generosity of drug firms.

Group Hears Bolin, Holmes

"Certain physical symptoms have an emotional basis that may be the result of tensions and anxieties in everyday living," Dr. Richard H. Bolin of the university health service told students at a mental hygiene society meeting Thursday.

As a criterion for determining by contrast what is abnormal in a person's behavior, Dr. Bolin defined a normal person: that he be free of symptoms; unhampered by mental conflict; have a satisfactory work adjustment, and able to love someone other than himself.

Earlier in the evening, Dr. G. V. Holmes showed students a display of art work done by the mentally ill, and explained some of the symbolism in their drawings.

Students attending the discussion were Janice Ludwig, Kalispell; Nona Paul, Bigfork; Betty Ann Overcash, Cut Bank; Francis Polutnik, Great Falls; Orville LaRowe, Circle; June Smith, Wallace, Ida.; Billie Lou Berget, Butte; Joan Gibson, Butte; Bob Nicholson, Hamilton; Mary Kielman, Dyer, Ind., and Mr. and Mrs. Hands, Missoula.

Dean of Students Herbert Wundlerich will speak to this group of student leaders at their meeting Thursday night on alcoholism, and a member of Alcoholics Anonymous will be present to discuss the problem.

First Community Concert At SU Theater Today

After seeing ballet on the screen during the past year or so in "The Red Shoes" and "Spectre of the Rose," students will get an opportunity to see the real thing at 2:15 this afternoon in the Student Union theater.

At that time the Community Concert association will present the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, first offering of the 1950-51

Vets Office Announces Rule Changes

Veterans planning to change to new fields of study under the G. I. bill, or to apply for a course commonly considered avocational or recreational, may be affected by new regulations issued yesterday by Mr. C. N. Lindsay, contact representative for the Veterans Administration in Missoula.

According to the VA, a veteran who wants to change his course, or take an additional course must submit an application to the VA regional office handling his records. If the VA determines he has not previously changed general fields, it will approve his application, even though it is in a different general field.

If the veteran desires to make a second change he must undergo counseling, whereby the administration will determine whether he has need of, or aptitude for, the course. If he is not notified of the VA's decision within 45 days from the date his application is received in the VA regional office, his request for the second change of general fields will be approved automatically.

The new regulations also include a statement concerning the veteran who wants to change a third time. His request may be approved only if he establishes need for a short, intensive course which will prepare him for employment in a critical occupation where there is a known shortage of trained workers.

The burden of proof rests with the veteran to establish those facts, Mr. Lindsay said, and a decision will be made on the basis of the evidence presented.

These new regulations are based on Public Law 610, which permits veterans to change general fields of training for the first time merely by applying to the Veterans Administration.

Ticket Sales End at 2:15

Ticket sales for the Community Concert association's fall presentation, Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo, will close at certain time today.

Monroe DeJarnette, Missoula, outside entertainment chairman, said Bearpaw, Spur, Phi Mu and Sinfonian members would continue selling the tickets in the Student Union building until 12 noon and that the sales would then be transferred to the box offices in the auditorium.

He further emphasized that students must have their activity cards to obtain the tickets and then must present the card with the ticket at the concert program. This is to ensure that only registered students are receiving specially priced tickets, he said.

Classes meeting between 2 and 5 p.m. will be dismissed so the school will have a good attendance at the concert, DeJarnette announced.

Curtain time for the ballet is 2:15 p.m.

CENTRAL BOARD TO HEAR SOCIAL COMMITTEE REPORT

Central board will consider a social committee report by Yvonne Kind at 5 p.m. in the Copper room of the Student Union, Bob Anderson, ASMSU president, said yesterday.

Bill McMaster and Dick Wohlgenant will report on results of their contacting candidates and sponsors in the last student election. They were authorized by Central board to request them to remove signs on trees and sidewalks.

season. The evening performance at 8:15 tonight will consist of the same program as the matinee.

The Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo first will present "Concerto Barocco," a ballet originally created and first produced for the American Ballet company under the direction of Lincoln Kirstein. Choreography is by George Balanchine. Music is Bach's "Double Concerto in D Minor."

"The Blue Bird," by Tschai-kowsky, will feature the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo's Nina Novak and Leon Danielian. Third will be "Paquita," with choreography by Alexandra Danilova, head of the company, after Mazilier and Petipa. Deldevez and Minkus composed the score.

The company will stage only the third act of this classical ballet which was first produced at the Paris Opera in 1846. In this act, the commander of the Napoleonic armies in Spain gives a ball in honor of Paquita and her fiancé, Lucien d'Herilly.

A lively cafe scene filled with flirtations and some scandal will conclude the program. Titled "Gaité Parisienne," its choreography is by Leonide Massine; its music by Offenbach. Manuel Rosenthal arranged the music especially for the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo.

First company to present the ballet nationally, the Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo is directed by Sergei J. Denham. Conductor of its orchestra is Paul Strauss; maitre de ballet, Frederic Franklin; and regisseur, Michel Katcharoff.

Vet Housing Units Move Off Campus

With the departure of the group of veterans' trailers located on the southeast corner of the campus since 1947, the University Family housing area, Jumbo hall, and the prefabs will be the sole survivors of the postwar housing development on the MSU campus.

The Miller Machine company of Missoula obtained all the Montana State University units, and began moving them out yesterday.

Families formerly living in the trailer area have now moved to the University Family housing area, Bob Breen, Veterans' Housing center director, announced.

As the trailers at Bozeman and Missoula were university property, the bids for them were mailed to the chancellor's office in Helena.

One of the trailers was sold to a Montana historical organization in Twin Bridges, Breen said yesterday. Twenty-five of the units which were sold are located here at the University.

Journalism Senior Gets Recognition For Radio Script

John Suchy, Missoula, had a prize-winning radio script of his included in the booklet, "Audioscripts, 1950," recently published by Audio Devices, Inc., New York City.

Suchy's script, "The Runaway Christmas Bus," is a children's Christmas fantasy adapted from a story originally published in Child Life magazine. It earned him the $100 first prize in a nation-wide radio script writing contest last spring. It topped a field of 107 entries.

"Audioscripts, 1950," a collection of prize-winning radio scripts, was published for use by high schools and colleges in radio dramatics.

MEETING CANCELED

Alpha Lambda Delta will not meet this afternoon as scheduled, due to the ballet, Mrs. Marguerite Ephron, adviser, announced yesterday. The women's scholarship honorary will meet next Tuesday at 5 p.m.

EDITORIAL

Crawl Out Of Your Shell

One of the exchange students on campus has requested that we express the appreciation of the foreign students for the tea sponsored Thursday afternoon by the campus Red Cross chapter. We welcome the opportunity to do this and to throw in a few words of our own.

The greatest values of the exchange program for both the visiting and native students lie in the broadened points of view and the increased knowledge of other people, other nations, and other ways of thought that both groups derive from mutual contact. The Red Cross tea was an excellent method of introducing the exchange students to the campus but every means of contact need not be so formal.

Get out and meet these people on your own. You can learn a lot as well as help these students feel at ease on a campus far from their homes.—D.G.

PUT YOUR CITIZENSHIP TO GOOD USE

Again we have a few words to say on the matter of elections, this time a more serious subject than a campus campaign.

Today the American people have the opportunity to go to the polls and take part in the selection of a large number of their government officials. Many MSU students are of sufficient age and, we hope, of sufficiently sound mind to take part in this trip to the polls.

We urge those students who are of age and who are registered to get out and vote. The 50 per-cent

Letters to the Editor

OBJECTS TO NIGHT GAMES

Dear Editor:

Yea, Missoula! Last week in order to give Missoula businessmen a chance to attend the MSU-Puget Sound fray, game time was switched from the afternoon to the evening. Usually the grandstand is about three-quarters full. But while my feet froze I looked across from the students' side of the windy field and saw a half-filled grandstand. And it was such a nice afternoon for football!

They ought to change the name of this institution to the "University of Missoula" the way we dance at the end of Missoula's puppet strings. But as long as we are a state university let's play games for Montana and in the afternoon as other universities.

Yea, Montana! To hell with Missoula.

Sincerely,
Bob Bedard, Ronan

(Come, come, Mr. Bedard. Perhaps we were just unobserving but we did not see any frozen, ice-caked bodies being trundled out of the stands. The west bleachers seemed decently filled to us although we do agree that the switch to a night game obviously did not increase the Missoula turnout. Remember that in seeking off-campus attendance, you must look toward Missoula, not the Glendive and Sidney contingents. Chalk Saturday night up as an unsuccessful attempt to draw a Missoula crowd instead of conjuring up a dark Missoula plot against the rest of the state.—Ed.)

RECITALS POSTPONED

Music recitals scheduled for this afternoon have been postponed, according to John Crowder, dean of the music school.

turnout characteristic of the nation as a whole should not be mirrored in a university community whose citizens are supposedly well-informed as to their civic responsibilities.—D.G.

GOING, GOING, GONE

Today brings the final opportunity to buy Community Concert tickets. We understand that sales have been going fairly well although they could, and should, be better. For only $2 treat yourself to a year of worthwhile performances by well-known artists.

Activity cards must be presented in order to buy the tickets at the student price.—D.G.

THE WINNERS

For their courageous and uncompromising stand on the controversial issue of the female appearance and the merits of particular tobaccos, Frank Kerr, Marty Clark, and Dick Conklin are hereby awarded last week's free carton of Chesterfields. They love that smoke.—D.G.

THE FROSH SPEAK . . .

BY DAVE LEUTHOLD
AND TOM LINDEMAN

A primary duty of class officers, unofficially at least, is to boost class and school spirit, and support school traditions and campus affairs in all possible ways.

To aid in fulfilling this duty, a committee of freshmen officers could help the Traditions committee by acquainting freshmen with the school traditions and urging frosh to attend traditional functions. Such a committee could also support freshman cheer teams and a freshman pep band for frosh rallies and games.

Some persons have suggested that Central board appoint the officers of the class to form a special projects committee, to replace the various special committee appointments which the board now has to make.

One problem which would come before such a group is the traffic and parking problem of MSU. This issue, brought to light in a report of last year, has seemingly fallen through because of lack of effort this year. Nevertheless, it's still an important problem.

One of the projects for the class officers which has already been set up is the Student Ideas Committee for University Betterment. This committee, which consists of the president and vice-president of each class, is to consider all ideas for the improvement of the school and report the best ones to Central board. But, although this is one established duty of the class officers, nothing has been done so far and as yet the committee has not even met. In fact, most of the officers do not know there is such a committee.

However, the class officers can not solely be blamed for this sad state of affairs. The whole issue was summed up by Bob Anderson, ASMSU president, when he stated, "I think the fault lies in the system, not the officers." (By "system," Bob meant that there are no important duties to make these officers more than honorary.)

Next week, the Central board agenda calls for discussions of the possibilities of more important duties for the class officers. Several ideas which have been suggested by various persons around the campus have been included in this column.

If our officers had the right duties and were functioning properly, they could be a vital aid in keeping us frosh united and active in campus affairs. Let's hope that a plan including these ideas can be worked out.

Grizzlies Drop Loggers

Saturday Night Tussle Features Strong Passing, Good Signal Calling

Montana's quick-starting Grizzlies, sparked by Tom Kingsford's accurate passes and smart signal calling, powered for three touchdowns in the first half, and went on to defeat College of Puget Sound, 35 to 7, in a football game on Dornblazer field Saturday night.

An enthusiastic crowd saw Bo Laird, Miles City, score the first touchdown for Montana on an 11-yard run around left end.

In the second quarter, Gene Carlson, Great Falls, plunged four yards for the second touchdown, and a little later took a 20-yard pass from Kingsford and went over standing up for the third touchdown. Don Gerlinger, Chicago, made all of the conversions good.

In the third quarter, Kingsford, faking a pass, kept the ball, and ran eight yards for the third score. Gerlinger's kick was good.

Fourth Quarter Score

Montana scored again in the fourth quarter when Gordon Jones, Butte, Grizzly guard, deflected an attempted pass by Puget Sound, caught the ball on the six, and hit the end zone for the score.

Gerlinger's conversion attempt was successful, and the score stood at 35 to 0.

Puget Sound scored in the fourth quarter when Bob Demko intercepted a pass thrown by Grizzly quarterback Paul Grein, Ohio, and ran 30 yards into the end zone. Dick Colombini kicked the conversion.

Montana dominated the play until the middle of the third quarter, but from then on Puget Sound made a game of it and matched the Grizzlies play for play.

Loggers Pass

The Loggers' passing game took hold and Wally Erwin threw passes of 12 yards, 18 yards and 6 yards, respectively, then topped them off with a 37-yard heave to Espeland, who was downed just three yards short of a touchdown.

Montana held for downs, and took over on their own 16, but three plays later Grein mis-threw to Demko of the Loggers, who scored for the visitors.

Paul "Sonny" Wold, Laurel, diminutive Grizzly left halfback, sustained a knee injury in the second quarter at the end of a scintillating 25-yard run, and had to leave the game. Barring unforeseen developments, he will be ready for the Nevada game next Saturday.

Ray Bauer, Great Falls, Grizzly end, who still is nursing an injured

Cubs Prepare For Kittens

The Grizzly Cubs have been going through rugged drills and scrimmages the past week in preparation for their coming battle Saturday afternoon with the Bobkittens from Montana State college.

In practice sessions yesterday, Ray Erpenbach suffered a sprained ankle which will more than likely keep him from playing in Saturday's game. Erpenbach has been a mainstay at tackle.

Dick Heath, who passed for the winning touchdown at Bozeman two weeks ago, is showing up well in practice and will be the main threat to the Kittens.

Four Undefeated In Girls' Volleyball Elimination Play

Four women's volleyball teams remain undefeated after two days of single elimination tournament play. The Tri Delt, Independent, Kappa Kappa Gamma, and New hall teams will play next week for the four top places.

Alpha Phi will face North No. 1 and Alpha Chi Omega will play Delta Gamma next Tuesday.

The results of the tournament games played Friday and Saturday are as follows:

Friday, North No. 1 trounced North No. 2, 53 to 9; Kappa Alpha Theta beat Delta Gamma, 42 to 7; and Sigma Kappa won over Alpha Phi, 29 to 18.

Saturday, New hall racked up 53 points to beat Alpha Chi Omega's 11 points; the Independents beat Sigma Kappa in a close game, 28 to 26; Kappa Kappa Gamma won over Kappa Alpha Theta, 23 to 18; and Tri Delt beat North No. 1, 22 to 16.

ATO, South Lead Bowling

South hall and Alpha Tau Omega are tied for first place in the MSU intramural bowling league race with six wins and no defeats.

Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, and Phi Delta Theta follow the two leaders. All three of these teams have won five and lost one in intramural competition. The Geology club is undefeated in three starts.

Ten other teams follow the top six in league standings.

Corbin hall's keggers won over Sigma Phi Epsilon, the Geology club won by forfeit from Jumbo hall, and Sigma Nu out-bowled the Lambda Chi Alpha team in last week's matches. In other matches of last week, South hall downed Phi Sigma Kappa, Phi Delta Theta defeated the law school, and Sigma Alpha Epsilon beat Sigma Chi.

ATO beat the Forestry club and Kappa Epsilon squeezed by the Theta Chi keggers.

Team standings:

The Last Word

An amazing thing happened Saturday night during the Montana-Puget Sound game. The outcome of the game was never in doubt, the brand of football displayed was not exceptional, and yet there were few fans that did not stay until the final whistle had blown.

It could have been that their interest was held by the spirit shown by a small group of boys from the west coast. They were beaten after the first quarter and their drives didn't get started until late in the game, but this didn't seem to bother them. They tackled and blocked as hard in the last minute of play as they did in the first and, from all outward appearances, their spirit was never dampened by the obvious superiority of their opponents.

Anyone that watched the Puget Sound bench was probably as surprised as I was. In the third quarter, one of the Logger backs went for an unspectacular 12-yard jaunt that contributed little to their chances. But, if one had only watched the bench, he would have thought that the opposition had tied up the game. The Loggers, to a man, were on their feet cheering and waving. Even the players on the field were patting him on the shoulders and grinning from ear to ear.

After the game, a defensive lineman for the Grizzlies was remarking on this phenomenon. According to him, Demko, captain and guard for Puget Sound, was on the spot after every tackle, helping the Puget Sound and Montana players to their feet. "They just never gave up," he said.

But then, maybe it isn't so difficult to figure out. In this day and age of specialized and mechanical football, there may still exist a team that plays the game for the pure enjoyment of it. I think we saw that Saturday night.

Frosh to Take First Shots at Hoop Today

The freshmen will get their first chance on the basketball courts today at 3 p. m. as the initial practice session gets under way. Any prospective hoopster who cannot attend this first meeting should report at 3 o'clock on Thursday, according to Bob Cope, Missoula, acting coach.

thigh and a misbehaving elbow, played a fine offensive game, but had to settle for one pas reception—the only one thrown to him during his time in the game.

Halfbacks Byrne and Wold were the big ground gainers for Montana. Each piled up well over 100 yards, and Bill Baker, Pablo, averaged more than seven yards on three running attempts.

Montana's line play was sparked by Gordon Jones, Butte, and Capt. Ken Campbell, Great Falls.

Statistics were as follows:

	MSU	CPS
First downs	22	13
Net yards rushing	246	63
Passing yardage	153	146
Passes attempted	19	23
Passes completed	10	9
Passes intercepted	3	5
Punts	4	5
Punting average	35	39.8
Fumbles lost	2	1
First downs rushing	12	6
First downs passing	8	6

Sixteen Pass Volleyball Exam

Sixteen women passed the written officiating examination in volleyball Friday. They will officiate in the volleyball tournament and take the practical examination later.

Those who passed the written test are Donna Bar, Colstrip; Margery Marion, Browning; Marion Nelson, Spokane; Deanne Parmeter, Plains; Willa Rosean, Columbus; Ruth Reiquam, Choteau; Jean'ne Shreeve, Milltown; Doris Stamp, Klein; Reba Turnquist, Ronan; Marjorie Anderson, Joan Beckwith, Billings; and Gladys Nilssen and Irene Stritch, Missoula.

SAE Touchballers Take Intramural Championship

Sigma Alpha Epsilon copped the intramural touch football championship yesterday afternoon by rolling over a powerful Sigma Nu team, 18 to 12, in the Clover bowl.

Vince Kovacich, Anaconda, the boy with the deadly passing arm, spelled defeat for the Sigma Nu nine as he passed for the three SAE touchdowns.

Both teams battled to a scoreless first quarter. With only two minutes gone in the second period, Kovacich intercepted a pass thrown by Bob Artz, Cut Bank. A long aerial from Kovacich to Bob Souhrada, Terry, put the ball on the Sigma Nu 18-yard line. Byron Bayers, Twin Bridges, dashed to the three before he was run out of bounds.

Three plays later Kovacich heaved a short pass over center to Dick Hanson, Worden, who scored the first touchdown. The conversion kick by Bayers was low, making the score SAE 6, Sigma Nu 0.

Sigma Nu bounced back a few minutes later when Artz heaved a 30-yard pass to Kenny Williams, Miles City, who raced over the goal line to tie the score. Jim Lucas, Miles City, attempted to kick the extra point, but the ball was blocked by Gar Thorsrud, Billings, leaving the score Sigma Nu 6, SAE 6.

In the third quarter, the hard-charging SAE team fought its way to the Sigma Nu 10-yard line. Kovacich passed to Thorsrud for six yards, again to Souhrada for three, and then to Thorsrud for the touchdown. The conversion attempt was blocked by the center of the Sigma Nu line.

Another sustained drive by the SAE nine brought the ball to the Sigma Nu 2-yard line. A penalty cost them five yards, but it didn't matter. The strong SAE line gave Kovacich plenty of time to pass to Johnny Eaheart, Missoula, who raced to paydirt to score the winning touchdown. The passing attempt to score the extra point failed but the game had been decided.

Sigma Nu fought back with a flurry of passes by Artz and Lucas. With one minute remaining in the game George Jurisich, Great Falls, launched a 30-yard desperation aerial which was caught in the end zone by Jack Davis, Cut Bank. Lucas' kick was slightly wide.

The remaining time on the clock was used by a series of running plays by Bayers and Eaheart. The passing of Artz was a constant threat to the victorious SAE team.

The large crowd was entertained throughout the game and at halftime by a band composed of eight Sigma Nu members.

Coeds Sharpen Claws to Prepare For Open Season on Males

Open season on males is practically an established fact this week as campus coeds prepare to sharpen their claws to drag their "Lil Abners" to the Sadie Hawkins dance in the Gold room Friday night.

Sponsored annually by the Spurs, this traditional shindig was first held in 1941. For a few years, men's campus living groups nominated candidates for a Lil Abner to rule over the festival.

One year the Kaimin carried an advertisement from one of those unlucky swains who hadn't been asked to the dance. The contest was discontinued during the war.

Bestest Duds

"The bestest Dog Patch duds" at the dance Friday night will be judged, and a boy and girl will be chosen as Lil Abner and Daisy Mae.

The floor show will include a Lil Abner tap dance by Caryl Wickes and Joeline Smith, Missoula; a vocal, "Can't Get a Man With a Gun" by Joyce Siperly, Great Falls; and a song and dance routine by Don and Jim Lucas, Miles City.

Strange Mixture

Pickles, suckers, spudnuts, coke, and orange pop will be served, according to Mary Joan Tascher, Missoula, publicity chairman.

Tickets will go on sale Wednesday at the Student Union coke store at $1.20 each, Miss Tascher said. Boyd Swingley and his orchestra will furnish the music, with dancing from 9 to 12 p.m.

FELLOWSHIP TO MEET

The University Christian Fellowship will meet in the Bitterroot room of the Student Union at 5 p.m. today, Fray Buell, Conrad, president of the group, announced Monday.

Helen Kratcha, freshman from Kayuga, N. D., will lead a Bible study on the first thirty verses of the fourth chapter of the Gospel of John.
