TWO WESTERN MONTANA SHRINE GAME CHOICES

TO ATTEND UM THIS FALL

MISSOULA--

Two high school football stars from the Bitterroot Valley, both of whom have been selected to play in this summer's East-West Shrine Game, in Great Falls, will attend the University of Montana this fall.

The two are Willis Curdy, 6-2, 185-pound guard from Corvallis who also excelled in basketball as a prepster, and Ken Gerner, a 6-0, 195-pound guard from Stevensville.

Wally Brown, UM grid assistant coach who made the announcement, said both Curdy and Gerner are excellent football players.

"We're happy to have both of them joining our freshman team in the fall," he said.
