SUMMER REGISTRATION RISES AT UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA

MISSOULA --

University of Montana summer session enrollment this year rose 12 percent over the first 1966 registration figure to reach a new high of 1,920 students.

Leo Smith, UM registrar, said a large percentage of the students were professional teachers from across the nation, who return to the University to pursue advanced degrees and improve their teaching skills.

The 1,920 registration this year includes 978 men and 942 women. Last summer the men numbered nearly the same, 965, but the women were behind, 747. The 1966 total was 1,712.
