DOROTHY JOHNSON TO ADDRESS NDEA PARTICIPANTS

Local author Dorothy M. Johnson is enamored of librarians, according to the title of a talk that she will deliver this week to NDEA Institute participants at the University of Montana.

Miss Johnson, a former UM journalism professor and author of many stories of life in the old west, has entitled her Wednesday (July 12) address "I Love Librarians." Her talk is sponsored by the NDEA Institute for Elementary Librarians.

The Institute Director, Lawrence W. HODges, said participants in a library workshop and two other NDEA conferences also have been invited to attend.

She will speak at 7:30 p.m. in Room 11 of the UM Liberal Arts Building.
