Judges Will Select Five Finalists On Talent, Personality, Beauty

Framed as a picture, each of the 19 candidates for Miss Montana of 1951 and Donna Buls, Miss Montana of 1950, will be presented at the Miss Montana pageant tonight at the Student Union auditorium.

The pageant, to begin at 8:15 p.m., will serve as a showcase for talents, charm, personality, and beauty of the candidates for the fifth Miss Montana to go to the Atlantic City festival in September.

Tickets for the pageant, priced at 90 cents and $1.20, are on sale today in the Student Union, and will be on sale tonight at the box office in the lobby of the auditorium.

The judging of the candidates will fall into four categories: beauty in formals, talent, beauty in bathing suits, and personality and intelligence.

The 11 judges, coming from Helena, Bozeman, Kalispell, and Deer

Lodge, will be given individual ballots to select five contestants on the basis of intelligence and personality at an informal luncheon this afternoon.

Judging tonight will be on the beauty in formals and on talent. After each set of votes is cast, a committee will tabulate them, giving five points for first place, four for second, and so on.

Tomorrow morning, the bathing beauty contest will take place at a closed judging. This will be based on beauty of face and figure.

In the final voting by the judges, the six women with the highest total points become the finalists. Then, again, each woman is judged in a bathing suit, a formal, and for talent.

The candidates will vote among themselves for "Miss Congeniality." She will be presented with a cup at the Coronation ball tomorrow night. This award is based on friendliness and personality.

Those on the committee for the pageant are Joyce Carstensen, Helena, and Eileen Polk, Williston, N. D., co-chairmen; Judy Larkin, Missoula; Bill Jameson, Billings; Bob Smith, Choteau; Ray Hoffman, Missoula; Doris Peterson, Missoula; Caryl Wickes, Missoula; Yvonne Kind, Missoula; Betty Bell, Missoula; Estelle McFarland, Missoula; and Marilyn Kintner, Missoula, and AWS members.

Sentinel Jobs To Be Filled

Applications for the positions of Sentinel editor and business manager must be in the Student Union business office by noon Wednesday.

Publications board will meet at 4:30 Wednesday to choose the editor and business manager for next year.

Qualifications for the two offices are:

Editor: Chosen by Central board upon recommendation of the publications committee by junior members of the editorial staff of that year. Persons who have served in the capacity of assistant editor will be shown preference in the selection, but anyone may apply.

Business manager: Chosen from applications submitted to the chairman of publications committee by junior members of the staff of that year. The three assistant editors shall be eligible for this position, provided they have worked at least part of the year in that department. All other junior members of the business staff are also eligible.

Winner Reigns At Coronation

Miss Montana of 1951 will be crowned at the third annual Coronation ball Saturday night, a climax to the Miss Montana pageant.

The winner of the Miss Montana title will be crowned at 11 p.m. The other finalists will be awarded AWS scholarships by Bill Reynolds, Missoula, newly elected ASMSU president. Included on the program this year will be the awarding of a "congeniality" cup to one of the Miss Montana candidates.

The theme of the Coronation ball will be "spring gardens." The Moon Moods will furnish the music. The dance, sponsored by AWS to honor all the Miss Montana candidates, is a girl-ask-boy affair for all university women.

Tickets will be on sale today in the Student Union. They are $1.20 per couple.

MSU, MSC Drill Teams To Compete

The traditional rivals, MSU and MSC, will again match their talents, tomorrow when they meet on the oval to compete for military drill honors. Competition will begin at 10 a.m.

Leading the MSU platoon will be cadet Lt. Clarence "Bill" Brest. The Bobcat team will be captained by Herbert James, Butte.

APPLICATIONS DUE MONDAY FOR ASMSU COMMITTEES

All persons desiring positions on student and faculty committees, may receive applications at their respective living groups, Monday night, Bill Reynolds, ASMSU president, said last night.

Students who do not reside with any living groups may get their applications at the Student Union business office.

Ten Students To Help Train Newspapermen

Two advisory committees have been formed to aid in planning for the training and orientation of the nine German newspapermen who will enroll next fall in the MSU journalism school, James L. C. Ford, dean, announced yesterday.

Ten journalism students will form a student advisory committee and 18 Missoula residents and faculty leaders will serve on the community advisory group. Dean Ford will serve as co-ordinator for the program.

The student committee is composed of Dick Wohlgenant, Miles City, chairman; Tom Ambrose, Eureka; Gene Beauchamp, Kellogg, Ida.; Jewel Beck, Ronan; Leona Faccinani, Butte; Bill Jones, Miles City; Dave Leuthold, Molt; Tom Lindeman and Audrey Olson, both of Billings; and Pat Schwarz, Missoula.

The Germans are a part of a group of 28 of their country's newsmen being brought to the United States this fall by the State department's division of exchange of persons.

MSU's journalism school has been selected as one of the three in the nation to take part in training the students. All the schools are experienced in practical journalism, in journalistic techniques and the operation, responsibilities, and obligations of the press in a democracy.

The Germans will be in the 25-to-35 age bracket, and will have had at least four or five years of newspaper experience with previous higher education, Dean Ford said.

They will be housed in the university dormitories, at least for fall quarter.

Interscholastic Meet Draws 92 Entries

Ticket sales for the forty-fifth annual Interscholastic track meet on the University campus next week end are gaining momentum as the big all-state high school festival draws near.

A total of $1,405 has been chalked up by 22 members of the Missoula chamber of commerce in their campaign to contact all downtown business firms, Ted Delaney, chairman, said last night. He expects to have every businessman contacted by tomorrow.

Meanwhile, five more Montana high schools have sent in their entries, to bring the total number of schools entered in the meet to 92.

Glasgow Not Entered

All Class A high schools will send representatives to the meet now except Glasgow, Interscholastic Chairman Dr. J. W. Howard said. Deadline for the mailing of entries was Monday.

On the campus, the movement to get more students to attend the gala two-day event is getting into high gear. Annemarie Beatty, Helena, and Bryce Breitenstein, Plains, have named ticket sales representatives from every living group.

Ticket representatives from the men's living groups are Mike Solonga and Hing Gee, both of Susanville, Calif., South hall; Ray Rademacher, Missoula, Sigma Chi; Duane Smith, Malta, Sigma Phi Epsilon; Al Manuel, Sigma Alpha Epsilon;

John Bennett, Milton, Mass., Phi

Sigma Kappa; Dan Lambros, Missoula, Sigma Nu; Dirk Larson, Colville, Wash., Phi Delta Theta; Dean Cummings, Plains, Corbin; and Ken Rickert, Big Sandy, Alpha Tau Omega.

Women's Representatives

Women's living groups will be represented by Denny Nelligan, Boulder, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Joyce Siperly, Great Falls, Alpha Phi; Sally Kalbfleisch, Shelby, Sigma Kappa; Liz Hart, Glasgow, Kappa Alpha Theta; Ruth Trzcinski, Miles City, Tri Deltis;

Joan Watson, Deer Lodge, Delta Gamma; Lois Cooley, Dunham, Ky., Synadelpheic; Margaret Storfa, Bigfork, Alpha Chi Omega; Joan Emery, Butte, North hall; and Margaret Little, Rattlesnake, New hall.

Interscholastic tickets will also be on sale in front of the Student Union by the Spurs and Bear Paws beginning Monday, Miss Beatty said.

For better or for worse, the Miss Montana pageant is ready to go once again. Let us hope that it proves to be the former, for, if not, this may well prove to be the last year the franchise is taken by the University.

In the short time which has elapsed since the Miss Montana committee finally got the ball rolling, they have made great strides. The result should be a show well worth anyone's 90 cents this evening.—J.B.

WRONG DATELINE THROWS POWER

Dear Editor:

I have a solution for Central board's financial problems! While glancing through the April 10th Kaimin (delivered today by mistake) I noticed that you and your staff were able to predict the exact scores, inning by inning, of the intramural softball games held May 9th—almost a month in advance.

My solution is this:

1. Obtain a patent for your "futurscope;"
2. Lease your invention to the New York Yankees;
3. Give .005 per cent of the royalty to MSU.

This should solve MSU's financial problems—that is, if the front page of Thursday's Kaimin should have read April 10th.

Yours truly,

Francis Power.

(We concede our error in the front page dateline of yesterday's Kaimin, Mr. Power, but if you will look again at the sports page where you found the May 9th softball scores, you will note the correct dateline there. Sorry, but we're just not as talented as you thought.—Ed.)

Film Society To Present 'The Swan'

Lillian Gish, once called the first lady of the movies, will star in the Film Society movie, "The Swan," Sunday evening.

The film feature was adapted from the Ferenc Molnar play of the same name which won him the French legion of honor.

Miss Gish, who created considerable controversy among the critics as to her real acting ability, has also been a prominent stage actress.

Included in the cast are Conrad Nagel, Marie Dressler, Rod Laroque, and O. P. Heggie.

The plot centers around a mother's anxiety to marry her daughter to the prince so her family may return to the social and financial status it had once attained. The plot is complicated by the daughter's love affair with her young tutor.

The hour and 10 minute movie will be shown at 7 and 9 p.m. Tickets are 50 cents, including tax.

Gore-Booth To Speak Wednesday

The International Relations club, in cooperation with the Public Exercises committee, is sponsoring Paul Henry Gore-Booth, who will speak here Wednesday night.

Gore-Booth, British Information services director in the United States, will speak on "British Affairs and Policy," making special reference to Britain's Far East policy and the Korean situation.

Educated at Eton and Balliol college in Oxford, Gore-Booth entered the diplomatic service in 1933, holding appointments at Vienna, Tokyo, Shanghai, and Washington, D. C.

He was a member of the United Kingdom's delegation to the International Food conference in 1943, the UNRRA conference in 1943, the Dumbarton Oaks conversations, the Civil Aviation conference in 1944, and the San Francisco conference in 1945.

Having served as secretary to the United Kingdom's delegation to the first meeting of the United Nations general assembly in London in 1946, he has also been head of the Refugee and U.N. Economic and Social departments and head of the European Recovery department.

In 1949 he was made commander of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George.

Gore-Booth will speak in the Student Union auditorium. The public is invited.

Credits, Cash for Students On Summer Expedition

Students may earn money and credits this summer by taking part in the field expedition to North Dakota, Carling Malouf, assistant professor of sociology and anthropology, announced yesterday.

Montana State University, in cooperation with the National Park service and Smithsonian Institute River Basin survey is sponsoring a nine-week field expedition in Great Plains archaeology.

Excavations will be made in the Garrison reservoir site, in north-western North Dakota, not far from the eastern Montana border.

Credits Offered
Nine quarter credits in course 180 may be received by those who register for the summer session at the University. In addition, participants will be allowed a minimum wage of 70 cents an hour. A slightly higher rate will be allowed field supervisors.

This is the second year that the federal government has appropriated money for the University to use on such a trip. In other schools where this type project is offered, the students must pay their own expenses.

The field trip is not limited to anthropologists alone. Skills in photography, history, biology, and geology are also considered useful.

The trip is scheduled to leave for North Dakota June 11 and return to Missoula August 10.

Eight MSU students will be initiated in Phi Sigma, national biological honor society, tomorrow at a banquet in the Student Union commemorating the 30th anniversary of the society on the Montana campus.

Those initiated will be Dale Benson, Jessie Blackie, Emery Brunett, John Gaffney, and Ralph Hanson, Missoula; Charles Hungerford, Moscow, Ida.; Amy Muneta, Harlowton; and Navarre Scott, Tenaflly, N. J.

Lambda chapter of Phi Sigma was established on the MSU campus May 4, 1921, largely through the efforts of Dr. M. J. Elrod, former biology professor.

The national organization of Phi Sigma was founded for the purpose of promoting interest in biological research and giving recognition to students displaying outstanding achievements in the field of biological sciences.

Honored guest at the banquet will be Dr. Laurence H. Snyder, a geneticist and present dean of the graduate school at the University of Oklahoma. Following the banquet, Dr. Snyder will present a lecture open to the public at 8 p.m. in J304.

Reds Meet Whites Tonight In Spring Gridiron Battle

BY BUD SCOTTEN

A preview to the 1951 Grizzly football squad will be shown tonight as the Silvertips split their team and vie for intersquad honors.

The Reds, coached by head Coach Ted Shipkey, will meet the Whites, mentored by line Coach Fred Erdhaus, tonight at eight under Dornblaser field's lights.

Dick Heath, a sophomore, will fill the quarterback slot on the Red eleven in the opening lineup while George Vucurovich will lead the Whites as captain and quarterback. The Red captain will be "Tiger" Bob Lamley, a tackle.

Making their debuts as MSU gridders will be many men who have shown up very well in scrimmage. Among them are Heath, who has demonstrated a tricky passing technique; Bobby Yurko, a fleet halfback, hard to hold, even when caught; Fred Anircho, a transfer from Santa Ana, who hits hard from the fullback position; Eddie Anderson, a former Cub who fills the end spot well, and Chuck Sitton, another Santa Ana transfer, who will rival Ray Bauer as one of Montana's all-time great ends.

Many of the Grizzly veterans will go the full 60 minutes, Coach Shipkey said. "We will be short of personnel for some substitutions," he said, "but most of the boys are in good shape and are able to go the entire game if necessary."

Among returning top performers are Bob Lamley, a competent man for the tackle spot; the "Terrible Twins," Bob Antonick and Gordon Jones, who, according to the coaching staff, "could make any first team in the country in the guard positions," and Bob Stewart, a line bulwark at the center position.

The game will feature many of the plays and defenses used by Washington University, in preparation for the season opening tussle in Seattle, Sept. 22. The Huskies boast a "special" 5-4 defense which will be duplicated tonight. Singling, passing, and power plays will be used to crack the defense and it is expected that some of Coach Shipkey's own gridiron "strati-gems" will be introduced into the game.

Bob Byrne, flashy halfback, is playing the center field spot for the Grizzly diamond squad in Logan this week end, and so will not participate in tonight's game.

SAE Sets Records In SPE Runaway

Sigma Alpha Epsilon set a season, and probably an all-time intramural softball record yesterday by annihilating the SPE's, 38 to 6, in a five-inning softball-like-trackmeet.

The entire SAE lineup belted the ball, but the many SPE errors and walks were the reasons for the adding-machine score.

Jerry Newgard, SAE pitcher, gave few hits, but the looseness of the offensive part of the game was evident in the SAE defense, as they also committed inexcusable errors.

Foresters Win In Tough Tussle

Two traditionally high scoring teams tightened up yesterday, but the loser, the Alpha Phi Omegas, loosened enough in the sixth and seventh frames to permit the Foresters, a crew of hard-sluggers, to pass them and win by an 11-to-8 count.

The middle three innings were well played by both sides, but the Foresters pounded the ball for several round-trippers during the closing innings.

MSU Ball Team Meets Utags At Logan Today

The Silvertip diamondmen play a double header against the Utah State Aggies today in Logan. On April 21 the two teams played at Campbell field. In the first game the Grizzlies overwhelmed the Aggies 13 to 0, but dropped the second 2 to 1.

Gene Carlson pitched five hit ball in the first game. Dick Hansen pitched effectively in the second game but lost when three hits and a walk got the Aggies their two runs in the sixth inning. Jim Eardley, Aggie pitcher in the second game, limited the Silvertips to Hal Sherbeck's two hits.

"Jiggs" Dahlberg will coach the Grizzlies in Logan. Fred Erdhaus, who first coached during Eddie Chinske's absence, was unable to make the trip because of spring football. "Jiggs" is taking 16 players on the trip, but Jim Murray and Ted Greeley stayed behind because of studies. Jim Martin will fill Murray's spot in left field and Don Bross will play first base.

Dahlberg said that Carlson will probably start the first game and Hansen the second.

Tension Keen for I-M Track Trials

Intramural track aspirants will get their first chance to prove themselves tomorrow morning on Dornblaser in the trials for the intramural trackmeet.

The semi-final track meet will begin at 9:10 a.m. with the first call for the javelin, 100-yard dash, pole vault, and the broad jump.

Heats for tomorrow's time trials have been posted on the intramural bulletin board in the Men's gym.

The officials of the meet will be members of Phi Epsilon Kappa, men's physical education fraternity.

Competition will prove tough, as members of the freshman track team will be eligible.

PSK, Raff Take Swamped TX 18-7

The Phi Sigs, after losing Wednesday to the Sigma Nus, came back yesterday to beat Theta Chi, 18 to 7, in a loosely played game in the Clover bowl.

Jim Raff's slow ball twirling proved effective after the second inning as he let the swinging Theta Chi's poke his pitches to waiting fielders. The Phi Sigs started early by getting three runs in the first inning and then exploded for eight runs in the fourth to cinch the slow game.

The running score: R H E
PSK 3 4 3-8 0-18 8 3
TX 2 3 2-0 0-7 4 7

Batteries: Phi Sigs, Raff and Carlson; Theta Chi, Wakefield and Jones.

Netmen Seek Another Aggie Pelt at Logan

Grizzly tennismen left yesterday for Logan, Utah, where today they will try to beat the Utah Aggies again and gain their third Skyline victory against two losses.

The Grizzlies defeated the er- ratic Farmer squad here in April by a narrow 5 to 4 decision.

Coach Jack Moody will use these combinations against the Aggie netmen: Bob Kramer No. 1, Bob Nogler No. 2, Pete Densmore No. 3, Ted Crawford No. 4, Park Densmore No. 5, and Bill Black No. 6 in the singles matches. In the doubles, Moody has his netmen paired like this: Kramer and Nogler, Pete Densmore and Crawford, and Park Densmore and Black.

Associations Offer Four Scholarships

Four $100 teaching scholarships will be awarded to Montana high school seniors competing Monday for the honor, which is under the sponsorship of the School of Education.

Approximately 29 seniors will participate, Henry Knapp, who is in charge of the program, said. These seniors will take a series of tests from the testing bureau and a series of interviews given by a committee of instructors on campus.

Ferry Holland, Butte, and Judy Cullough, Missoula, MSU freshmen, were two of the scholarship winners last year.

The scholarships are offered by four organizations. District No. 2, Montana Federation of Women's Clubs, will offer two $100 scholarships to two outstanding seniors who expect to go into teaching. The Ravalli county unit of the Montana Education association will offer a senior from that county $100, and the Eastern Sanders county MEA association will offer $100 scholarship.

The awards will be given at a banquet Monday evening.

While at MSU the seniors will be taken on a tour of the campus and members of the Education club, Knapp said.

Women Umpires to Meet Monday

All girls who signed up to umpire and referee the tennis tournaments during the Interscholastic matches will meet in the women's gym Monday at 3 p.m. and 4 p.m. The purposes of the two meetings is to make sure that all are briefed. Those who are unable to attend are asked to contact Donna Skates, or leave word at the office of the women's gym.

Anyone who has not signed up and would like to help in the tournament should attend the meeting, Miss Skates said.

Ten MSU Women To Attend Annual College Play Day

Ten university women and an instructor will leave for Dillon today to attend the college play day at the Western Montana College of Education.

Eastern Montana School of Education at Billings, Montana State college, and Western Montana School of Education will also be represented.

Each year one of the four schools is host to the play day. The women participate in such sports as horseshoes, ping pong, tennis, badminton, and archery. Saturday evening, after all sports have been completed, a banquet is given.

CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP TO MEET TONIGHT

"What place does emotion play in the Christian Life?" will be the main topic of discussion at the University Christian fellowship meeting tonight at 8 in the Central Board room of the Student Union.

Frary Buell, Conrad, president, said a missions report by Raymond Gregg, Bloomfield, will follow the discussion. Refreshments will also be served.

Descendants of the ancient cedars of Lebanon are planted in the Arlington National cemetery.
