MISSOULA --

Dr. Earl C. Lory, University of Montana athletic faculty representative, will carry official responsibilities Aug. 8 and 9 when the National Collegiate Athletic Association College Committee holds its annual meeting in San Francisco.

Lory, a member of the Committee since 1965, has also served on the NCAA Council.

The College Committee is responsible for the promotion of the NCAA's College Division program encompassing more than two-thirds of the Association's total membership. The group will make plans for the two newest College Division championships--baseball at Southwest Missouri State and gymnastics at Springfield College.

General affairs and continuation of the College Division regional program will also be discussed.
