My sponsorship of Groucho Marx as a presidential candidate has been met with snorts of ridicule in practically all quarters, but I am not dismayed. Why, only the other day I heard a full professor snickering at Calvin Coolidge, and any paid-up member of the Young Republicans' club is good for several guffaws at the barest mention of Roosevelt No. 2.

Many others are trodding over Groucho's political affiliations. They want to know whether he's a Republican or Democrat. Well, Taft and Truman can rest easily because Groucho belongs to the Free Silver party (he gives away dollars every Wednesday night). The planks in his platform are affensturz—the last word in pressing: restores essential fiber oils.

Marx in America

Joe: "Andrei, you hear this? Marxism has swept America." Vishinsky: "Are they related to Karl?"

Groucho: "He was a second cousin. We had to cut him out of the act because he only knew one song.—Money Makes the World Go Round?"

Joe: "Have you ever had dealings with Trotsky?"

Shall We Dance

Groucho: "Only the Fox Trot. Now excuse me, kids, my cheese sandwich is getting cold."

Joe: (to Harpo) "Vat you think about disarmament?"

Harpo: "Honk! Honk!"

Vishinsky: "Are you willing to end your 85th, capitalist imperialism and war-mongering?"

Harpo: "Honk?"

Joe: "Do you want peace?"

Harpo Like Peace

Harpo: (rolling his eyes) "Honk! Honk!"

Joe: This man is making sense. Joe, vat you say I wire Mao? And the boys and call the whole thing off?"

Marxish Capitol Idea. With a Marx running this country, how can we lose?"

So Be It

So, out of this historic 52nd street street comes world peace. This leaves Groucho free to carry on his domesitic program while Harpo substitutes the Marx plan for the Marshall plan. The Marx plan simply gives foreign nations needed raw materials in return for their best looking girls (which Harpo chases around the White House lawn).

Next week: President Marx meets Senator McCarthy.

SPE President
To Receive Award

Duané Smith, Malta, president of Sigma Phi Epsilon, will receive the Clifford B. Scott memorial award for having received the highest grade index among the members of the fraternity last year. The award is made annually to each of the SPE chapters throughout the United States. A student receiving the award must be a full-time student in attendance all three sessions of the previous academic year.

Smith is a senior in the School of Business Administration. He is treasurer of Alpha Kappa Phi, Phi Kappa Tau and Sigma Chi and is business manager of the university newspaper, The Montana Kaimin.

Swim Team Holds Practice

Aspirants to positions on the Handy swimming team will fall in for their first official practice Monday afternoon at 4, according to Ted Erdhaus, swimming coach. The Monday sessions will participate in two triangular Skyline meets this season, Erdhaus said. The first will be an invitational meet, the second will decide the Skyline conference championship.

Tentative plans include meets outside the conference with Idaho University and Eastern Washington University.

Most of the team bothers are still wide open. Only two letters will return this season, Erdhaus said. They are George Harpole, Arcadia, Calif., and Bob Cooney, San Diego.

Coach Dahlberg Leaves or Skyline Conference

Basketball coaching duties, Coach Dahlberg will leave today to attend a meeting of all Skyline conference coaches in Salt Lake City.

Silvertips Battle Rugged WSC Cougars Tomorrow

Montana’s injury-riddled Grizzlies tackle the toughest foe on their 1951 football schedule tomorrow. The Cougar game will close the season for the Grizzlies. Montana faces the high-scoring WSC eleven with six strong performers out of play at valuable positions.

Grizzlies leave today at 3:15 p.m. for Spokane, where they will stay tonight. Tomorrow morning they will travel by bus to Pullman for the 1:30 p.m. game with the Cougars.

Horse of the Grizzly backfield to-morrow as he has been all season. Byrne will pass out of the double-wing formation. Byrne to star.

Bob Byrne will be the workhorse of the Grizzly backfield tomorrow as he has been all season. Byrne will pass out of the double-wing slot and will do the passing when the Grizzlies use the T formation. Bob Yurko will start at left half, but Shipkey said freshman Bill Gue will replace him often. Yurko is still hampered by a leg injury. In the fullback position Bob Laird got the nod from Shipkey to start with Gene Carlson ready to fill in. Fred Mifflin will be the other on the injured list, might see some action in a defensive role.

Vucurovich on Defense

George Vucurovich has been inserted in the defensive backfield and will also see action alternating with Shadman at quarterback. He will be used as a blocking back when the Grizzlies run the double-wing.

Grizzlies who will be playing their last games for MSU are Bob Byrne, Bob Lamyke, Carol Mayte, Dick Hubbard, and Wes Morrison.

Ski Club Plans to Join Association

The Ski club expects to become affiliated with the Northern Rocky Mountain Ski association this year, Mollie Iler, Missoula, said today.

By such a move university skiers will qualify for sanction by the National Ski association and can enter in national competition.

Cliff Wordal, Missoula, was elected president of the club. Bob Abbott, Kilaipet, is vice president; and Miss Iler is secretary-treasurer.

The club discussed plans for the annual weekend trip to Whitefish in January and for intramural winter quarters. Further plans will be made at the next meeting after Thanksgiving.

Women to Lunch Before Bowling

Women physical education majors and minors will have lunch at the 4 B’s cafe before going bowling with the Women’s Latin club. James Dew, assistant professor of physical education, said yesterday.

The group will meet at the Student Union at 9:30 a.m. tomorrow.
