The Montana KAIMIN
Established 1898

The name Kaimin (pronounced Ka-im-in) means "tribe" in the Cheyenne language. When the Kaimin arrived on the scene, the school's administration was considering the so-called "coin system," or having students write quarters or dimes in a "book" to signify being a student. The first issue of the Kaimin was published on Wednesday, November 20, 1951

Cougars Put Final Touch On Grizzlies’ Grid Season

Two Washington teams helped the Grizzlies start and end their 1951 football season in the same fashion. Saturday the Washington State Cougars put the final touches on the Grizzlies’ unsuccessful season by whipping them 47 to 10. The Cougars’ big scores from Seattle, the Washington Huskies, did them a little better with a 58 to 7 win to start the season for the Grizzlies.

Highlighted of the game was two new Pacific Coast conference records set by Cougar end Ed Barker. Barker snared seven passes for 78 yards, giving him a season’s total of 46 receptions for 783 yards. The old marks were 39 catches and 671 yards set last year by All-American end Bill McColl of Stanford.

The Cougars had the game their own way from the start with their unstoppable ground attack and accurate passing. The Grizzlies showed a flare of brilliance in the second quarter when they rose up off the turf to march for a touch-down and afterwards for a field goal.

Washington State already had two touchdowns before the Grizzlies scored and added another right after. The Grizzlies’ field goal, with 30 seconds left in the first half and fourth down on the Cougars’ 25, seemed like the right call. When it sailed through the uprights from Don Gerlinger’s toe the Grizzlies’ hopes were high. The score was 19 to 10.

Raffler Takes Kickoff Reverse
But the Cougars then furnished the back-breaker as Cougar Bud Raffler took a kickoff reverse and went 87 yards through the Grizzlies for another Cougars score.

While the Cougars had a star in Barker the Grizzlies had their own in Bob “Lefty” Byrne. Byrne ended his gridiron career for Montana with a good day against a good team. Byrne accounted for 105 of the Grizzlies’ 115 yards by rushing. He kept the Grizzlies out of more trouble with his long punts which averaged 28 yards.

Utah Redskins Cop Skyline 8 Grid Crown

Utah’s Redskins put an aerial damper on Colorado A. and M. Saturday and did some passing of their own to defeat the Rams, 27 to 21, for the Skyline Eight championship. This was the seventh gridiron crown for the Redskins in the last 14 years.

Utah finished its Skyline schedule with this game to post a conference record of four wins and one loss. They edged Wyoming out of the title by 14 percentage points.

The upset of the Skyline was New Mexico’s 24-to-0 walloping of favored Brigham Young. The Lobos, who have been the Skyline’s stepping stone all season, lose to the Homecoming occasion at Albuquerque and ran wild.

Utah State also pulled an upset. They sneaked by favored Denver, 14 to 7, by scoring twice in the last six minutes of play.

Standings:
- Won: 7
