UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA LANDS YET ANOTHER QUARTERBACK

MISSOULA--

Allan Gordon, a 5-8, 160-pound quarterback from Coalinga Junior College in Coalinga, Calif., will don a Grizzly football uniform this fall, according to Jack Swarthout, athletic director and head football coach at the University of Montana.

The announcement of Gordon's decision came only one day after Swarthout broke the news that Pete Mullins, one of the nation's top JC quarterbacks, is also coming to the University from California.

"Gordon started at Coalinga in 1966," Swarthout said. "Despite his size, films show that he handles himself exceptionally well. He's a good running quarterback and is especially effective on short passes."

Gordon will report for fall practice Aug. 30 as a junior, joining four other quarterbacks, including junior Mullins, junior Mark Mochel, senior Jim Searles, and senior Ed Steiner.
