FEMALE LAW GRAD FEATURED IN MAGAZINE ARTICLE

MISSOULA--

A 1966 graduate of the University of Montana Law School is one of 12 female lawyers featured in an article of the current issue of "Banking Magazine."

Roberta Walsh, 26, is now serving on the staff of the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency in Washington D.C. She joined the staff in July 1966.

Her duties include research and the submission of legal opinions in the area of interpretation and application of the statutes relating to bank mergers and branching. In addition, she formulates rulings in response to inquiries from banks regarding bank operations and corporate practices.

Miss Walsh, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Walsh of 2114 Third Avenue North of Great Falls, was born in Havre. She received her A.B. from Smith College with a major in English.

She was admitted to practice before the Montana state bar and the U.S. District Court for the District of Montana in June 1966. Miss Walsh belongs to the Montana Bar Association.
