Four More Miss Montana Candidates . . .

Virginia Harkins, a business major from Butte, will play the piano in the pageant. Miss Harkins, who is a freshman, is a member of Delta Gamma sorority.

Bobbe Hansen, a Kappa Kappa Gamma from Missoula, is a physical education major. Her talent for the pageant will be sewing demonstrations.

Patricia Germeraad, from Billings, is a sophomore at Eastern Montana College of Education. Miss Germeraad is majoring in art, and will present samples of dress designing at the pageant.

Berta Huebl, a freshman from Glendive, will play a violin solo, and also accompany herself at the piano in a voice solo in the pageant. Miss Huebl is a music major.

Pat McGinty to Crown Miss Montana Successor

Pat McGinty, Miss Montana of 1951, has sent word that she will be here for the crowning of her successor at the Coronation ball Saturday. She will also be present at the Miss Montana pageant Friday night.

Miss McGinty, who is now taking advanced voice training at Colorado Women's college in Denver, was rated by Quick magazine as one of the top nine contestants in the Miss America pageant last summer.

Tickets for the pageant are now on sale in the lobby of the Student Union Coke store, at the Florence Hotel, and at the Missoula Mercantile company. Prices are $1.80, $1.20, and 90 cents.

Ten judges from all parts of the state have been chosen to select the new Miss Montana and the finalists from among the 13 MSU and three Eastern Montana college candidates.

Each of the fields of talent represented in the pageant will be judged by at least one person who is thoroughly familiar with the particular talent.

The judges will first meet the candidates at a luncheon Friday, and the selection process will continue on through the pageant. The six $75 scholarship winners will be decided upon Saturday afternoon, and will be announced along with the new Miss Montana at the Coronation ball.

Junior Women Will Choose Top Colleagues

All junior women may indicate the ten women they consider the most outstanding on the Mortar board eligible list until noon today, according to President Peggy Clapp, Missoula. Thirty-three juniors are on the list which has been distributed to the living groups, and from 5 to 20 of these will be tapped for Mortar board during interscholastic week.

Although living groups are to turn in the checked lists by noon today, off-campus women may check lists in the Student Union business office, until Thursday noon.

To be eligible, women must have carried 115 to 150 credits and maintained a 1.78 average during the past five quarters (.3 above University average). Members are chosen from this list on the basis of leadership, scholarship, and service to the University by the members of Mortar board.

All women on the list must turn in a list of their activities and honors at Miss Clow's office by noon today.

Forum Committee to Air Panel on 'McCarthyism'

"Is 'McCarthyism' the Way to Protect Democracy?" will be the question put to a Montana Forum committee panel at 8 tonight in the journalism school auditorium.

J. C. Garlington, Missoula attorney, will be moderator for the discussion, which is open to the public. Panel members will be Cathy Doherty, Missoula, member of the MSU debate squad; and Don Graff, Laurel, former Kaimin editor and now a graduate assistant in history and political science.

Other panel members are W. J. Howard, a member of the Montana Citizens' committee, which sponsors the Clay Osborn program; and Leo Graybill Jr., former MSU instructor now enrolled in the law school.

Miss Doherty and Howard are expected to take rather pro-McCarthyist positions, while Graff and Graybill will probably take anti-McCarthy stands.

Discussion of the "McCarthyism" question has usually centered around the philosophy that "eternal vigilance is the price of liberty" on one hand, against the idea that the Wisconsin senator's tactics violate the principles that innocence is assumed until guilt is proven.

The subject became the topic for a spirited Kaimin editorial and letters-to-the-editor discussion last quarter. "We've tried to get as balanced a panel as possible for this discussion," Forum Committee Chairman Tom Ambrose, Eureka, said yesterday, "and we feel that the subject is one which will lend itself quite easily to audience discussion."

"McCarthyism" has become an emotional subject, often argued on both sides from personal bias rather than from any actual review of the issues; we think that this forum will help both McCarthys and anti-McCarthyists discover that, as in all cases, there is more than one side to the question," Ambrose said.

Entertainment and Games Scheduled for Aber Day

Plenty of entertainment and games are scheduled for students the afternoon of Aber day. All games will be held in front of the library.

Mel Ingram, chairman of games for Aber day, has announced the schedule of the day's events. A wheelbarrow race will start things off at 1 o'clock in front of the library. The course for this event has not been laid and if Aber day should be announced before it is laid, it will be given on that day. A prize of $10 will go to the winner of the wheelbarrow race. This is something new in the line of Aber day games and is being sponsored by Interfraternity council.

At 1:15 the greased pole offers an attractive prize of $5 to the winner. A $5 prize will also be given to the winner of the greased pig event, which will start at 1:30. The sack race for men and women is scheduled for 1:45 and at 2 the three-legged race for men and couples will start. In a tug of war South hall and Jumbo hall will fight it out at about 2:15. At 2:30 a mammoth pie eating contest will begin. Anyone is eligible. At 2:45 is the beginning of the flour scramble. In this event a big canvas is spread out with 200 pounds of flour poured on it. Spangler Wins Grad School Fellowship

Stan Spangler, Billings, graduate student in political science, has won a full-expense honorary fellowship at the Advanced School of International Studies of Johns Hopkins university in Washington, D. C.

The Advanced School of International Studies is a specialized graduate school for training a limited number of young men for international careers in government and business. Formerly the Foreign Service institute, the school devotes particular attention to providing a nucleus of men for careers in the U. S. Department of State. The school became part of Johns Hopkins university in 1946.

Spangler is one of approximately 25 men selected for admission for the academic year 1952-53. He was interviewed in Washington in March, at which time he was selected as one of eight men to receive the honorary fellowships. He will be working for his Master's degree at the school.

Spangler, president of Phi Alpha Theta, and past president of the International Relations club, was one of this year's district Rhodes scholarship candidates. He is also a member of Kappa Tau, Scabbard and Blade, and the Montana Forum committee.

State Board Approves New Degree

The State Board of Education has approved the application of the forestry school to give a master of science degree in wildlife management, Dean Ross Williams announced last week.

The forestry school has always given some attention to wildlife management since it was founded in 1913. Since 1934, it has given special courses in the subject. The school has offered special training in the field of wildlife management since 1937 as part of its MS degree in forestry.

The first individual to receive the master of science degree will be Charles R. Hungerford, Moscow, Ida., who is working on research problems involving food requirements of elk. He is completing two years of graduate work at the University; and he has received a scholarship from the cooperative wildlife research unit.

THE NIGHT WIRE

BY UNITED PRESS

Zurich, Switzerland.—The architect of Britain's postwar austerity program is dead at Zurich, Switzerland. Sir Stafford Cripps was found dead by the chancellor of the exchequer in the Labor government after World War II.

Washington, D. C.—The Senate has voted to block the government from using any money in the pending appropriations bill to run the steel mills. The action looked like a slap at Mr. Truman for seizing the mills. A few hours earlier, he had issued a last-minute warning against such a move.

Washington, D. C.—The Senate has voted 44 to 31 to prevent the government from using money in pending appropriations bill to run the steel industry. Backers of the Republican sponsored amendment call it a "vote of censure" against President Truman.

Jackson, Mich.—Troopers with machine guns have finally brought some 2600 rioting convicts at the Michigan State Prison near Jackson under control. But 104 others still are barricaded in a disciplinary barracks and are holding 11 guards as hostages.

Helena.—Mary M. Condon, state superintendent of public instruction, has filed for nomination, to succeed herself. All top members of the state administration have now filed for re-election, with the exception of Lieut. Gov. Paul Cannon.

Leaves Granted To 38 Professors

The State Board of Education has granted out of residence leaves to 38 MSU faculty members for summer quarter. At their meeting last week the board approved these 38 requests and also four requests for leave without pay for the 1952-53 school year.

'Golden Court' Theme of Ball

Miss Montana of 1952 will be crowned at the Coronation ball Saturday night in the Student Union after the judges have narrowed the 16 candidates down to 6 finalists after Friday night's Miss Montana pageant.

The coronation ball will last from 9 to 12 p.m. and will feature a "Golden Court" theme. Court music will be provided by the Moon Moods.

Miss Montana will be chosen from six finalists selected earlier in the day. She will be crowned at 10:30 p.m. by the 1951 Miss Montana, Pat McGinty.

The dance, which will be semi-formal, is a traditional girl-ask-boy affair. Tickets are now being sold in all women's living groups at $1.25 a couple.

It Wasn't, Was It?

Two potential Aber days have passed . . . the Main hall bell has failed to toll, but tomorrow is another day. While speculation was as bright as the sun yesterday, and will probably be the same today, the people who know the secret sit and chuckle in silence as they watch students discard their studies, bubble in anticipation, and some even head for town whooping it up. Aber day seems to have become more an excuse for horseplay than a day of constructive campus cleanup.

By 11 o'clock of each Aber day the campus is green and clean which is supposedly the object of Aber day. Or is it the objective of the annual day just to give the campus a once-over so it will be easier to clean when the maintenance department gets around to it after a campus chuck-hole crusade? At any rate, the campus by three o'clock of Aber day will be a paper picker's paradise.

Luncheon scraps, candy wrappers, and beer cans will cover the campus after the mass collegiate invasion. When the campus is clean, why not keep it that way? Evidently student pride for this campus is of general unconcern. It isn't just on Aber day that the campus is abused.

Every day this same unconcern is evident despite efforts of the maintenance department, administration, and Student Union management. Yes, every day cigarette butts are ground out on floors, desks, and even walls. The campus turf gets a good trampling daily and new trails are blazed by the quarter. And there are many more examples of the lack of student pride in their campus.

Thirty-six years ago the students of MSU set up Aber day and this was what they decreed on March 26 of 1915:

"The students of Montana State University have decided to begin this year the custom of having a clean-up day. On this day the campus will be cleaned, tennis courts will be built, and a baseball diamond will be laid out, and the campus generally beautified. In honor of Prof. William A. Aber, who each spring has taken personal supervision of the beauty of the campus and who has made it his pride that the campus shall present a pleasing appearance. The students voted unanimously that the day should be called Aber day, and that each year one day will be set apart for this purpose."

But "Daddy" Aber probably put more faith in student pride than he should have. Maybe negligence comes before pride, but why clutter the campus on Aber day, when only a few hours before, it has been cleaned?—L.K.

P.S. Burning fires,
Alcoholic quagmires,
Kaimin deadlines,
Scrapped for headlines,
Ah, yes, Aber day
The secret way.

ALL-SCHOOL SHOW CALLS FOR TYPISTS

Typists are needed for the production staff of the opera "La Boheme," according to Walter O'Donnell, business manager of the all-school production.

O'Donnell says the typists are needed for addressing and other clerical work. He asked that any volunteers contact him as soon as possible.

Graham Objects To Theater's Advertising Policy

Dear Editor:

To go along with the recent arguments of the price of local theaters to students a new gripe has arisen. It is the Wilma's advertising on their screen that the church and theater are an important part of the community and that a person should attend both. The combination of the two is not only hard for the people to take but sacrilegious besides.

If the students didn't make enough noise for Mr. Sharp to pick up his ears the last time maybe a bomb should be used this time.

Advertising on the screen is effective because it has a captive audience, but advertising as he has done in the past he won't have an audience to capture.

So comes the revolution.
Disgusted in humanity,
Pat Graham.

Gripe Board Asks Cooperation

Dear Editor:

The participating members of Gripe board have a gripe.

Some people would like to eliminate the class officers because they say they are not a functioning unit of our student government. However, how can they be a functioning unit, if you the student body insist on nominating and electing candidates who do not accept responsibility associated with their office?

We have noticed many times

Little Man on Campus

by Bibler

"Oh, by-the-way, I got your papers graded last week—if I could just think to bring them . . ."

when candidates are being nominated for class offices and express their desire to withdraw because of too many other activities, the common retaliation of the group is "class officers don't do anything, anyhow!"

To illustrate this attitude, here are a few examples:

1. Ten members of the sixteen elected came to meetings.
2. Of the six non-participating members, three were put up for election by the same sorority. Of these same six, five showed up for

INTERVIEWS THIS WEEK

J. P. McFarland of General Mills will be at the Placement bureau Wednesday and Thursday to interview June graduates who wish to work for General Mills, according to Mrs. Kay Reardon. Appointments for interviews can be made in Room 106 of the Placement bureau.

Sentinel pictures and haven't been seen since.

As you should know, gripe board is composed of the officers of each class. Our function is to receive and take action upon any "gripe" arising from you, the student body.

How can we act on gripes when your representatives don't bring them to the meeting?

Make use of your class office but elect to those offices people who are responsible and will accept their duties.

Think when you vote!

Grizzly Baseball Team Splits Series in South

The baseball Grizzlies managed to split their six-game southern series last week. The Grizzlies wound up their series by splitting with Utah State, winning the opener, 12-7, but losing the seven-inning night game, 4-3. Earlier they had defeated Utah, 4-3, divided a series with Brigham Young, losing the six-inning contest, 6-3, winning the afterpiece, 7-4, and then

Track Team Defeats BYU in First Meet

The Grizzly track squad came in behind last Friday after trail-6-52, with three events to go, defeat the BYU Cougars, 69-62. The Bruins took all nine points in the broad jump and eight points in the discus to take a 57 lead before the last event, mile relay, which they topped to the BYU crew by a 4 and a half.

John Badgley led all scorers with points scoring firsts in the high low hurdles and a third in the 400 yard dash.

Coach Harry Adams was very happy about the win and was pleased about everyone's performances. "We had to be at our best," said Adams, "or they'd have beat our socks off. Everyone lived in their best performance this season, that's why we won."

Mile run—Rife, Montana, 4:34; Gart, BYU; Fleming, Montana, 4:38.

400 yard dash—Conner, Montana, 50.5; Brown, BYU; Reynolds, Montana, 51.1.

100 yard dash—Fuenning, BYU, 15.2; Brant, Montana, 10; Bills, J.

High jump—Bonham, BYU, 6 feet 4 1/4 inches; Cowley, BYU; Pedge, Luckman, W. Reynolds, Montana; tied for third at 5 feet 10 inches.

Shot put—Luckman, Montana, 44 feet 10 1/2 inches; Hunter, Montana, 44 feet 6 inches; Bob Beach, Montana, 43 feet 10 1/2 inches.

High hurdles—Badgley, Montana, 15.2; Burr, BYU; Alter, BYU.

Pole vault—Tie, Smith, Waite, Moore, all BYU; height 12 feet 4 inches.

Half mile run—Fleming, Montana, 2:01; Blake, BYU; Black, J.

200 yard dash—Fuenning, BYU, 25.5; Thomas, BYU; Brant, Montana, 25.5.

Relay—Smith, BYU, 176 feet 5 inches; Rothwell, Montana, 176 feet 5 inches; Jarman, BYU.

Two-mile run—Rife, Montana, 15.2; Adams, BYU; Cooper, BYU.

Low hurdles—Badgley, Montana, 25.5; Anderson, Montana, 25.5; Adhead, BYU.

Long jump—Hudson, Montana, 22 feet 6 inches; M. Luckman, Montana, 21 feet 9 inches.

Discus—Ripke, Montana, 140 feet 9 inches; Maus, Montana, 136 feet 10 inches; Jarman, BYU.

Relay races—(Howes, Parker, Able, Brown) BYU won in 7.4.

dropped a contest to Utah's Redskins, 8-7.

From the coaches, George "Jiggs" Dahlberg and Pat Plew, the echo was "They all played great ball." As far as the record books went, it was a husky right-hander, Bob Taber, who copped two victories without a defeat, and Gene Carlson, who pitched the opening win over Utah, that enabled Montana to split in their six-game excursion.

In batting, Don Olsen, who was moved to first base in the opening BYU contest in an attempt to get more batting power into the Grizzly lineup, sparked as he powered the ball at a .457 clip with 11 hits in 24 trips to the plate. Gene Carlson with 7 hits and Jim Murray with 8 also hit high for the Grizzlies.

Dick Hansen was credited with two of the Grizzly losses. He lost to BYU, 6-3, and another to Utah State in the final game of the tour, 4-3. Errors accounted for a number of unearned runs in these contests.

In relief, Clare "Red" Johnston looked good for Montana. In the second Utah contest, he pitched scoreless ball for three and a third innings, allowing only two hits, both of them singles, but Montana failed to rally to overcome an 8-7 Utah lead.

It wasn't a record, but Montana batters went down swinging 34 times in the six-game series. On the other hand, Montana pitchers struck out 25 batsmen, Taber getting 10 of them, Carlson eight.

Tennis, Golf Teams Win Over Utags

Montana's golf and tennis teams garnered their wins of the trip south when they romped over Utah State Friday. The niblick swingers won, 13-5, and the racquet men, 6-3.

Dick Hubbard was the medalist for both teams as he shot a three over par 75. Don Welch and Bob Williams each carded 77's and Lee Williams came in with a 79. Gene Schneider of Utah State was low man for the Aggies with a 76.

In the tennis matches, Utah State's ace singles player beat Dick Fletcher in two straight sets, 6-3, 6-3, but the rest of the team went on to blanket the opposition.

The golf and tennis teams now have won one and lost three. Brigham Young golfers beat the Grizzlies, 10-8, and the tennis team was overrun, 8-1. Utah sent a good bunch of golfers against the Grizzlies to triumph, 11-7, while the tennis team was shut out, 9-0.

The two teams will have a chance to get even this weekend when the Utah tennis and golf teams come up to Missoula.

The tennis team might win a couple of matches on their home courts, but Utah, Skyline championship contender, will be heavily favored in view of their past performance against the Grizzlies.

The golfers will present a different picture, however. Their 11-7 defeat at the Ute's hands will look pretty small when the local boys play on their home course.

Sigma Kappas Beat North Hall, Still Undefeated

Sigma Kappa finished the softball round robin tournament undefeated by topping North hall No. 1, 13 to 7, last night. New hall edged Tri-Delt 9-8 in the other game.

North hall started strong, and led until the third inning when Sigma Kappa pushed across 6 runs. Sigma Kappa was never behind after that. Jane Gaethke started the rally with a lead-off home run. North threatened in the last inning but a double play on a dropped third strike ended the game.

Tri Delt and New hall were tied going into the bottom of the fifth, but New catcher Kathy Pigott tripled, sending Beryl Handford home with the winning run. Mary Riley homered for New in the fourth. The Tri Delt led early, but

MSU's ROTC Marksmen Down Gonzaga University

With a score of 1,851, MSU's ROTC marksmen downed the Gonzaga university ROTC rifle team Saturday afternoon in an intercollegiate match at Spokane. Coaching the Gonzaga team was I. W. "Tiny" Cahoon, a former member of the MSU staff and a Montana athlete of the early 1920's.

Firing in prone, sitting, kneeling, and standing positions, the five high men of the meet were Buddy Campbell, Superior, 374; Ronnie Howe, Bucyrus, N. D., 371, tied with J. L. Hautzinger, Omaha, Neb., 371; Cecil Gilmore, Lewistown, 370; and Boyd Henneman, Valier, 365. Perfect score is 400.

Taking to the air in a military transport plane, the 17 students and military personnel flew from Missoula in an hour and ten minutes. Handling the controls were Maj. Donald W. Painter and Maj. Edward J. Zeuty of the University AFROTC. They picked up the group at the county airport Saturday morning, flying the plane in from the Great Falls air base, and returned home that evening.

Everybody was treated royally, said M/Sgt. John M. Burns, rifle team coach, in describing the morning session at Fairchild air force base previous to the shooting match.

"Captain Cullen, a public relations officer, and S/Sgt. Keith Bridenstine, a University student last year, greeted us as we left the plane."

Burns said that the group was conveyed about the base in a new bus with a jeep escort. They witnessed a B-36 landing and managed to get a close scrutiny of one of the ten-engined bombers. They also saw "cut-aways" of the jet and reciprocating engines which power the B-36.

Others participating in the match were Edward Burroughs Jr., Dayton, Ohio; Delos Dutton, Matt Mattson, and Keith Schlapp, all of Missoula; and Ralph Ovitt, Dillon. Their scores ranged from 362 to 353.

Also attending the meet were Capt. George T. Ziegler; S/Sgt. Charles R. Anderson; William Jameson, Billings; Leonard McCully, Kokomo, Ind.; and Dean Joscelyn, Missoula.

Arpan Finishes Lecture Series On Photography

"Historically, photography has been badly tarred and feathered and modern cameramen have inherited the odious reputation established by the fakery of old-time photographers," Professor Floyd Arpan told an audience of townspeople and students in his final lecture Friday afternoon.

In his talk entitled "Boundaries of Photographic Propriety," Professor Arpan said that while the ethical practices of photographers have markedly improved over the years the profession was still fering growing pains and consequently bad pictures sometimes pear.

"There is a distinct lack of specific laws regulating photography propriety," he said. Consequently vague, generalized interpretations of such laws as the of trespass and privacy are formulated by individual judges.

Means Wins Badminton Singles Crown

Dorcas Means, Missoula, defeated last year's runner-up Marion Nelson, 1-11, 11-2, and 11-2, for the badminton singles championship Saturday. Seventeen contestants entered singles competition and fourteen played in the doubles tournament, Manager Carol Crouch said yesterday.

Of the seven teams entered in doubles competition, Jeanne Shreeve and Carol Crouch, and Willie Williams and Patty Burnett are the only undefeated teams. They will meet for the championship within the next few weeks. The consolation rounds in both singles and doubles remain to be played off.

If the winning doubles team consists of players from different living groups, the points will be divided. Winners will receive medals at the WAA spring banquet in May.

Wesley Students Attend Methodist Meet In Bozeman

Twelve students of the Wesley Foundation attended the annual conference of the Montana Methodist Student movement in Bozeman Friday and Saturday of last week end.

Theme of the conference was "Christ Confronts the Campus."

As part of the business affairs, new officers were elected. Bob Craver, of MSC, replaced Phyllis Galt, MSU, Missoula, as state president. MSU's Leeann Stewart, Missoula, and Tom Lindeman, Billings, are new state vice president and state publicity director, respectively. Dick Milne, MSU, Roundup, was the former publicity director.

When I light up a Lucky,
I know just what's in store—
A cigarette of mildest blend
And taste that calls for more!

L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike
Means Fine Tobacco

The Rebels and the Yanks were foes.
But now they all agree
That nothing else can match the taste
Of L.S./M.F.T.
