MISSOULA--

Andy Warhol, the Peter Pan of the current art scene, will present a lecture with films Tuesday, Oct. 3 at the University of Montana.

Mr. Warhol's lecture will be the third presentation in a week long symposium entitled "Project '67--The Now People", presented by the Associated Students Program Council.

A 37 year-old native of Philadelphia, he studied art at the Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh.

He is fast becoming a legend in the field of pop art with his paintings of soup cans and American ways of dying.

His lecture will be at 8 p.m. in the University Theater.
