CHILDREN’S ART COURSE
STARTS SATURDAY AT UM

Saturday-morning art classes for children in grades four through eight will begin Oct. 7 and run through Dec. 9 at the University of Montana, according to Richard B. Reinholtz, chairman of the UM Art Department.

Classes will meet on campus from 9 to 11:30 a.m., he said. The $5 fee for the 10-week course is payable by Oct. 14.

Twenty-five pupils will be accepted in each of three specializations: drawing and painting, three-dimensional design, or printmaking.

Details about the art enrichment program are available from the UM Art Department, 243-4181.
