TAX INSTITUTE TO MEET IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The Tax Institute, sponsored annually by the University of Montana Law School, will meet December 1 and 2 at the Hotel Florence in Missoula.

The Institute is open to lawyers, accountants, insurance underwriters and trust officers. A $17 fee will be charged.

The Institute will cover a variety of topics. Recent tax cases and rulings, income taxation of estates and trusts, the marital deduction, section 306 stock, death and retirement of partners and the use of insurance to fund buy and sell agreements are some of the planned schedule.

Also on the agenda are taxation of prepaid income, alimony and alimony trusts, installment sales of farms, using computers in preparing tax returns, estate planning problems, and distributions from pensions and profit-sharing plans.
