COURSE DESCRIPTION:

The basic goal of supervision and leadership in a changing world is to provide you with the knowledge and tools you will need to supervise today's knowledge-based and multicultural workers. Emphasis will include making better decisions, planning and setting goals, organizing jobs and work, interviewing and screening employees, training, motivating, leading team efforts, appraising performance, and handling grievances and labor relations.

TEXT: Supervision and Leadership in a Changing World, by Gary Dessler, Prentice Hall.

STUDENT LEARNING OBJECTIVES:

Develop the ability to integrate the proven, traditional, and functional approach to supervisory management, and apply it to today's knowledge-based and multicultural workforce.

- ❖ Demonstrate the ability to effectively communicate on a professional level with workers, unions, and other management personnel including: leading, motivating, coaching, appraising, disciplining, and problem solving.
- ❖ Develop the ability to analyze problem situations, and suggest possible solutions.
- ❖ Acquire and demonstrate an understanding of management thought including functional relationships and various management theories.

EVALUATION PROCEDURES: Evaluation will use one or more of the following: attendance, quizzes, projects, assignments, presentations, class participation, and other evaluative exercises designed to ensure that the course objectives are met.

ACADEMIC HONESTY STATEMENT: The College of Technology is committed to academic integrity in all its practices. The faculty value intellectual integrity and a high standard of academic conduct. Activities that violate academic integrity undermine the quality and diminish the value of educational achievement.

Cheating on papers, tests, or other academic works is a violation of Student Conduct rules. No student shall engage in behavior that, in the judgment of the instructor of the class, may be construed as cheating. This may include, but is not limited to, plagiarism or other forms of academic dishonesty such as the acquisition without permission of tests or other academic materials and/or distribution of these materials and other academic work. This includes students who aid and abet as well as those who attempt such behavior.

ADA STATEMENT: College of Technology seeks to provide effective services and accommodations for qualified individuals with documented disabilities. The goal of Disability Support Services (DSS) is to provide opportunities for equal access in college programs, services, and activities. DSS assists students with disabilities in achieving their educational goals through such services as academic and career counseling, adaptive testing, tutoring, note taking, interpreting, and test proctoring.
