CUBS WRAPPING THINGS UP SATURDAY WITH ROAD GAME AGAINST IDAHO STATE

MISSOULA---

The University of Montana freshman Cubs will try to have a perfect season this Saturday when they go against the also unbeaten Idaho State University frosh in Pocatello.

Cub coach Dan Peters anticipates a close game, since comparative scores against common opponents have been nearly equal in point spread.

The Cubs have defeated the Idaho frosh 29-12, and Montana State frosh 34-6, while the ISU frosh have whipped Idaho 38-20, Montana State 24-6, and Weber State 35-0.

"We think this will be a tremendous game," Peters said. "Our kids are really up for it, because they know if they win they will be virtually the Big Sky Conference freshman champs.

Offensively, Peters will probably start ends Tony Bertuca and Bob Guptill; tackles Ray Stachnik and Willie Postler; guards Joe Lyons and Jim Wier; center Ron Rempel; quarterback John Cloherty; halfbacks Steve Ogilvie and Pat Schruth, and fullback John Waxham.
