Students set up and maintain a fast-paced station and utilize appropriate equipment, proper cooking temperatures, and sanitation practices. The product is evaluated and judged according to standards of quality and consistency which include: flavor, appearance, aroma, body.

STUDENT PERFORMANCE OUTCOMES:

Upon completion of this course, the student will be able to:

- Set up an efficient station
- Have an understanding of classic American-Diner Cuisine and how to prepare basic items
- Prepare the major types of sandwiches and breakfast items to order
- Prepare and store spreads and fillings for sandwiches
- Understand and demonstrate proper portion control
- Utilize vegetables, starches, fruits and vegetables as accompaniments to sandwich presentations
- Store eggs properly
CULA 158 Short Order Cookery

 Prepare eggs according the competencies listed
 Prepare waffles and pancake variations
 Prepare cooked and cold breakfast cereals
 Cook various breakfast meats
 Prepare breakfast compotes, syrups, flavored butters
 Prepare various breakfast potatoes, and starches

STUDENT PERFORMANCE ASSESSMENT METHODS AND GRADING PROCEDURES:
Production and Testing

1) Students will be required to demonstrate daily production assignments requiring pre-planning of methodology and recipes. Recipes must be read and understood by the student before attending class. Students will be evaluated on teamwork, professionalism, mise en place, production guide/timelines, plating diagrams, quality of finished product, sanitation and organizational skills.

2) All assignments, projects and tests will be assigned point values. It is the responsibility of the student to obtain quiz and production competency scores. Weekly tests will be tabulated and returned to the student for review in a timely fashion (usually within one day). Students are strongly encouraged to review their scores and grade sheets often. They can be reviewed by appointment during office hours.

3) The quiz schedule and dates are included in the weekly schedule posted in introductory content area of Moodle shell. Quizzes will be written and given during class time. Grading will take place immediately after the quiz is complete. Makeup for a missed test is not offered unless faculty is notified and guidelines are identified for the individual situation before each test. Students may be able to make up a missed test for emergency situations such as sickness or required work activities, but must submit documented excused absences such as a Doctor note identifying excused dates or mandatory work related travel dates in a timely manner.

4) It will be the student’s responsibility to complete the assigned competencies. Upon completion, it will be the student’s responsibility to have Chef Nack critique the assignment and give feedback to the student on what can be improved, quality standards, etc. At that point, it will be the student’s responsibility to type the feedback and submit the feedback via Moodle Drop Box by the end of the rotation to receive a grade for the competencies.

Total points earned will be divided by points possible, and a letter grade will be assigned based on the following:

Grading Scale:
90 - 100 A
80 - 89 B
70 - 79 C
60 - 69 D

TESTS:

Tests will be given during the semester as announced. Assignments for makeup tests will be made only if faculty is notified by voice mail, e-mail, or personally prior to the test. A score of zero will be averaged into grade determination for any missed test.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY:

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/vpsa/student_conduct.php.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION:

Eligible students with disabilities will receive appropriate accommodations in this course when requested in a timely way. Please contact me after class or in my office. Please be prepared to provide a letter from your DSS Coordinator. For more information, visit the Disability Services website at http://www.umt.edu/dss/ or call 406.243.2243 (Voice/Text) or http://www.umt.edu/dss.

CULINARIAN CODE:

All students are expected to uphold all teachings of the American Culinary Federation’s Culinarian Code:

As a proud member of the American Culinary Federation, I pledge to share my professional knowledge and skill with all culinarians. I will place honor, fairness, cooperation and consideration first when dealing with my colleagues. I will keep all comments professional and respectful when dealing with my colleagues. I will protect all members from the use of unfair means, unnecessary risks and unethical behavior when used against them for another’s personal gain. I will support the success, growth, and future of my colleagues and this great federation.

REQUIRED TEXTBOOK:

SUGGESTED REFERENCE MATERIALS/TEXTS:

SUPPLIES: Knife kit, Bench Scraper, Bread Knife, Camera

CELL PHONE POLICY: Cell phones are allowed in class only as a means to record photos for the final notebook. Text messaging during class or lab is not allowed. Unexcused departures from the kitchen to use cell phones will be treated as an unexcused absence and participation points will be deducted. It is advisable to direct emergency (only) phone messages to the kitchen phone (243-7815).

UNIFORM POLICY: Students will be required to be in full Culinary Uniform to be accepted into class. Daily line-ups will take place and any student that is not in full uniform will be sent home and will lose participation points for the day.

MEAL POLICY: It is the students’ responsibility to read and understand the meal policy. Abuse of the meal policy will be reflected on the grade sheet.
