HELENA MAN
TO ATTEND POLLUTION
CONFERENCE

MISSOULA---

Ben F. Wake, Helena, director of the Montana Board of Health's air pollution control and industrial hygiene section will be chairman Friday afternoon (Nov. 17) of a panel discussion dealing with air-pollution control measures during a Wyoming conference.

The session will be part of the Rocky Mountain Regional Conference on Air Pollution at the University of Wyoming, Laramie, Thursday and Friday. Between 150 and 200 are expected for the two-day event.

J.O. Julson, director of air and water resources for the Weyerhaeuser Co. in Tacoma, Wash., also is a member of the panel.

Patricia P. Bragg, director of state technical services, Bureau of Business and Economic Research at the University of Montana, Missoula, has additional information concerning the conference.
