WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL TEAM WINS MEET

MISSOULA---

The University of Montana women's varsity volleyball team was rated first in the Inland Empire Sports Day recently held at Pullman, Wash.

The team, the only women's varsity volleyball team in the state, went undefeated in matches against six opponents.

The UM women defeated two Washington State University teams, as well as Central Washington, Eastern Oregon College, Eastern Washington College and Whitworth College.

The team included: Karen Frick, Renee Gibbs and Davey Schmidt, all of Billings; Peggy Burton, Missoula, Debby Uren, Bigfork; Linda Beckwith, Columbia Falls; Charlene O'Neil, Kalispell, Beth Eastman, La Habra, Calif., and Janice Fenton, Escondido, Calif. Mrs. Deanna Sheriff, UM health and physical education instructor, coached the team.

Mrs. Sheriff said "the win surprised the other teams because most of them have been playing inter-varsity ball much longer than our team."
