ABA ADMINISTRATOR WILL SPEAK
TO UM LAWYERS, GUESTS MONDAY

MISSOULA---

Geoffrey C. Hazard Jr., an administrator of the American Bar Association in Chicago, will speak on "Specialization of the General Practitioner" Monday (Dec. 11) at the University of Montana.

The lecture is sponsored by the UM law school, in conjunction with the Young Lawyers Section of the MBA and the Montana Student Bar Association.

Hazard is a graduate of the Columbia University law school and practiced in Oregon from 1954 to 1957. He was a professor of law at the University of California at Berkeley from 1958 to 1964 when he took the position of administrator of the ABA and professor of law at the University of Chicago.

Emmett Angland, a UM alumnus and Great Falls lawyer, will introduce Hazard. Angland is a member of the UM law school board of visitors and the Board of Governors of the American Bar Assn.

Robert E. Sullivan, dean of the UM law school, invited 13 regional bar association presidents and Montana lawyers to hear the speech. It is open to the public.
