Missoula---

"The Conversion of a Hawk" will be the topic of a speech by Don Luce tonight in Missoula.

Luce, who spent nine years in Vietnam, will speak at 8 o'clock this evening in the Fireside Room of the University Congregational Church.

Luce, who was director of the International Voluntary Service, recently resigned that position in protest over the administration's handling of the war in Vietnam.

He appeared at an informal lunch today in the Lodge on the UM campus and earlier this evening visited the Wesley Foundation.

This evening's address is being sponsored by the Missoula Friends Meeting and is open to the public.
