This course provides an introduction to the increasingly global nature of the world economy. Components of the course include: the influence of national culture on businesses; national trade and investment policies and laws; theories of international trade and investment; international monetary activity and systems; international business research; modes of entry into foreign markets; international marketing; and international logistics and supply-chain management.

Course Requirements

Eight Exercises/Quizzes	30%
Three Writing Assignments	45%
Final Exam	25%

Quizzes

The quizzes are your class participation and class preparation grade. In addition, these quizzes are used to comprise a major portion of the cumulative final exam. The two lowest will be dropped; this will account for absentees, lack of preparation, illness, etc. There are no make-ups or retakes given for missed or failed quizzes.

Writing Assignments

The three writing assignments are individual papers written by each student on an assigned topic. The writing assignments are listed below. Please note these assignments are tentative. Writing Assignment #1 is a video case called "Lobbying in the USA". Writing Assignment #2 is called the "Palestinian H-Bomb". Writing Assignment #3 is to create a Country Profile on an Emerging Market or Third World Country. The assignments are valued in ascending order: 10%, 15%, and 20%. The details of each assignment will be given at least two weeks prior to the due date. Each assignment is unique in requirements and length. An "Introduction to Writing" lecture will be presented the second Friday of the course.

Final Exam

The only long exam given is a cumulative final.
