Information Regarding Assignments

1. Class participation
   - Class attendance and discussion are an important part of your learning experience. Class attendance is mandatory. It is important to share your perspective not only for grading but also for the enhancement of others’ knowledge.

   Each student will be paired up and be responsible for leading the class in the discussion of one reserve readings. The discussion should be 15-20 minutes long. Specific direction will be given the first week of class.

2. Writing Assignments
   - There will be writing assignments. Presentations and discussions of your papers will also be required. The first paper will respond to a case presentation. The second paper will ask for an assessment from a video shown in class. The third paper will be a report on a community service or agency that works with families. The fourth paper will be based on foster care and adoption. Specific information and directions will be given in class.

   Late assignments will be accepted but points will be deducted of the equivalent of one-half grade per day late.
