COLLEGE ARTS HEADS
WILL CONVENE AT UM

The University of Montana School of Fine Arts will be host to the directors of art, drama and music programs of 11 Montana institutions of higher learning Saturday afternoon, Feb. 24.

UM Fine Arts Dean Charles W. Bolen said about 30 persons are expected to attend the arts conference, billed as "an exploratory meeting to discuss the growth and development of the arts in Montana."

Delegates will discuss the Montana Arts Council, exchange programs and exhibitions and other topics of common interest. They will then divide into groups to talk about problems related to their respective disciplines.

The conference will close with a general session for all participants at which recommendations will be made on specific ways in which Montana colleges and universities can cooperate in promoting the arts.
