ARTS EDUCATORS TO MEET AT UNIVERSITY

At the invitation of the University of Montana School of Fine Arts, about 20 music educators will meet on campus Saturday (Feb. 24) to discuss their role in the growth of the arts in Montana.

UM Fine Arts Dean Charles W. Bolen said the agenda for the general session Saturday afternoon includes discussion of the Montana Arts Council, professional touring groups, Montana Institute of the Arts and the M.I.A. Foundation, standards and college board examinations.

The conferees, all arts administrators in Montana colleges or universities, will then meet in separate sections to discuss their respective major interests (art, music or drama) and will reconvene at 4 p.m. to make general recommendations.

The group will attend the Montana Repertory Theater production of "Julius Caesar" in the University Theater Saturday evening.
