FRIENDS OF LIBRARY EXEC BOARD
MEETS TUESDAY NIGHT AT UM

MISSOULA---

There will be an executive board meeting of the Friends of the Library at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 12, in the University of Montana Library.

The Friends group is currently working for further appropriations and support for the New Library to be constructed on the UM campus and for an archives building program.

Members of the Friends have also assisted the UM Library in its acquisition of several manuscripts. Recently added to the Library's collection are manuscripts written by Frank B. Linderman, ^{Montana}hunter and fur trapper, and state legislator and national congressional candidate in the early 1900s.

Earle C. Thompson, UM library dean, reported at a recent Friends meeting that Mrs. Leslie Wilson of Orinda, Calif., had donated several books to the Library.

Members of Friends executive board include Judge Wallace Clark, president; Mark Jennings, vice president; Thompson, secretary; and Mrs. H.O. Worden, treasurer. There are 19 active members and six ex officio members on the board.
