JOHN LESTER TO JUDGE STATE NATS AUDITIONS

John L. Lester, professor of music at the University of Montana, will be the Montana adjudicator for the 10th annual student auditions conducted by the Montana chapter of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, Inc. The auditions are scheduled Saturday (April 6) in Great Falls.

Earl Dahlstrom, Moore, student auditions chairman, said two adjudicators from outside Montana will join Prof. Lester in judging the contestants.

This year's auditions have been broadened to include persons who want to enter the National Singer of the Year competition, which is open to voice students aged 23 through 36.

The 1968 auditions are partially financed by a grant from the Montana Arts Council.
