MISSOULA--

Art classes for children will again be offered on Saturdays beginning April 13 at the University of Montana.

The classes, for students in first through eighth grades, are under direction of the UM art department. There will be eight sessions at a total cost of $4 per student. Cost includes all supplies.

Art classes will be from 9-11 a.m.

Preregistration is invited, due to limited enrollments available. Additional information may be obtained by phoning the UM art office at 243-4181.
