EASTMAN QUARTET IS COMING TO MISSOULA

The Eastman Quartet will present a concert Sunday, April 21, at 8:15 p.m. in the University of Montana Recital Hall.

The quartet unites the artistry of piano virtuoso Frank Glazer; Millard Taylor, concertmaster of the Rochester Philharmonic; Francis Tursi, violist, and Ronald Leonard, first cellist with the Rochester Philharmonic.

The string players, as the Eastman Trio, have for years been the nucleus of chamber music programs at Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y. With Glazer making the group a quartet, they are now taking a large repertoire for piano and strings to chamber music audiences throughout the country. In Missoula they will play works by Schubert, Faure and Brahms.

The program is sponsored by the School of Fine Arts and the Program Council of the Associated Students of the University.
