BUTTE CENTRAL'S ANDY ANTONOVICH TO ATTEND UNIVERSITY OF MONTANA FOR FOOTBALL

MISSOULA---

Andy Antonovich, 6-2, 215-pound tackle for Butte Central High School, has signed a letter of intent to attend the University of Montana on a football scholarship this fall, according to Jack Elway, UM grid assistant.

Antonovich was one of the eight high school prospects that visited the Missoula campus last weekend. So far, three of those have decided to enroll at the University.

"Andy is one of the best line prospects in Montana this year," Elway said. "He's a good, tough, hard hitter."

Elway said Antonovich, an All-League selection last fall, is only 17 years old right now, and will probably grow in both height and weight.

"We think he could end up being 6-3 to 6-4 and a minimum of 235 pounds," Elway said.

Elway added that Antonovich will probably be used as a defensive tackle, and said, "he should do a fine job there."

Other high school players who will attend the University this fall include Casey Reilly, Anaconda Public halfback; Mick Dennehy, Butte Public quarterback; Allan Dooley, Ottawa, Ill. High linebacker, and Craig Stoenner, Hamilton High halfback.
