ANDERSON, MARBUT
TO SPEAK AT UM

MISSOULA---

Two political aspirants, State Atty. Gen. Forrest H. Anderson and Gary R. Marbut, a rancher from Grant Creek, will address University of Montana law school students on the Missoula campus this week.

Anderson, Democratic gubernatorial candidate, will speak at 2 p.m. Wednesday (April 24) and Marbut, a Republican candidate for lieutenant governor, will address the law students at 11 a.m. Thursday (April 25).

Both discussions will be in the Law School Building and are part of the program, "Political Forum 1968," which is being sponsored on campus by the UM law school Student Bar Association.

Devlin is the musical director of the Bankers. Some of the material the Bankers will use is original with Greg. He has written a number of songs including "I'm Gonna Row My Boat," which has been copyrighted.

Interspersed with the Broadway show tunes, folk music and current hits, will be a ribbon of comedy that The National Bankers hope will keep the deposits rolling in.

Most of the members have majored in music but two have had no formal training since leaving high school. All play at least one instrument and some are at home with two or more. Guitars will be the mainstay, however.

Blackler is working on arrangements to transport and house the group this summer. He has been dealing for a pickup-camper in which the five males would reside. At each stop the girls would rent a motel room.

Blackler has other hopes for the group including the possibility of making an album and possibly night club work. Admittedly, these are in the future but Edd feels they have to keep their sights set high.

Besides Diane Morrow, Devlin and Blackler, other members of the group are Don Collins, Missoula; Nola Mundt, Glasgow; Steve Melloy, Helena; and Don Gilbert, Billings. Only Melloy and Gilbert are without experience with the Jubileers.

Blackler, an ex-Marine, told of the Jubileer's recent USO tour in which they improvised stages to perform on for just a few or worked before thousands in large halls. "We think we have the professional know-how to entertain," he stated. "We'll know for sure by the end of September."
