BILLINGS ATTORNEY RECEIVES AWARD

MISSOULA—- A Billings attorney has been named recipient of the first Montana Trial Lawyers Association Scholarship award as author of an article dealing with the field of torts or civil suits.

Recipient of the $100 award is Alden W. Pederson, Billings, who received his juris doctor degree at the University of Montana in 1961. Pederson's award-winning article is entitled "Products Liability and Privity." The article appeared in the Montana Law Review, the UM School of Law publication.

H.L. McChesney, a Missoula attorney, is coordinating the award program for the MTLA.
