CHUMRAU, SCHWANKE
NAMED TO UM
ALUMNI POSTS

MISSOULA---

Paul Chumrau, Missoula, has been elected chairman of the board of directors of the University of Montana Alumni Association, it was announced by Hugh Edwards, executive director of the association.

At the same time, Kermit R. Schwanke, Missoula, was named vice chairman of the board.

Both Chumrau and Schwanke have served the association in several capacities. Each has served a term as president and they have been members of the board of directors for the past three years.

Chumrau succeeds T.C. Davis in the chairman's post. Davis, also of Missoula, is a retired Army colonel.
