Barristers, Woodticks to Have Annual Donnybrook Saturday

The annual donnybrook between the Barristers and the Wood Ticks is scheduled for Saturday at 2 p.m. in the Men's Gymnasium.

Don Heiser and Art Tower, the crafty coaches of the Foresters, said, 'We'll let the Barristers have a few points, enough so they won't get discouraged and not play next year.' The trend initiated last year is an indication of the complete immunity of the Foresters to defeat, Heiser said.

Forestry team members are Wayne Zinne, Richard Birgenheier, Armond Joyce, Gene DeBruin, Jerry Parker, Gary Rumley, Bob Bosworth, Rhett Wise, Bob Storch and Jack Schield.

Ex-Grizzly basketball player Dick Pineseault will supervise the barristers. Pineseault said his team would be entering with an unblemished season record. This is the strongest array of talent in many years, he said.

The tentative starters for the lawyers are Ted Corontzos and Doug Allen at guards, Chuck Angel and Nile Aubrey at forwards and Maury Colberg at center. Other team members are Dick Dzivi, Carroll Multz, Keith Burrowes, Tom Dowling, Lino Marsilo, Hugh DeMers, Art Ayers, Ken Wilson, Don Collins, Bob Whalen, Dick Josephson and Andy Haley.

Moot Courts Start Monday

A manslaughter charge rising from an auto collision at the intersection of Brooks and Higgins on Dec. 14, will be the first case before the Law School mock court Monday, Feb. 29, at 7 p.m.

Law seniors will take the parts of the defense and prosecuting attorneys in the mock court sessions, which are a part of a class in courtroom procedures and practices.

Attorneys Named

The counsel for the state will be Robert T. Cummins, Missoula, and Donald J. Dougherty, Butte. The defense attorneys will be M. James Sorte, Scobey, and G. Richard Dzivi, Kalispell. Sherman Lohn, Missoula attorney, will judge the case.

Jurors Needed

Jurors are needed for the two remaining trials slated for March 7 and 14. Each trial will last approximately four hours. Twelve jurors are needed for each trial.

Anyone interested in being on the jury should contact Robert Cummins, clerk of court, at extension 349.

All the trials are open to the public.

Immunity Shots Given for Fee

Students may get polio, tick, and influenza shots at the Health Center for a fee of 50 cents, Mrs. Marcella Fredrickson, receptionist, said yesterday.

Overseas shots are $1 each. These shots immunize against tetanus and typhoid fevers and smallpox, she said.

Shots are available from 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Newburn Will Participate In TV Panel Discussion

President Harry K. Newburn and three other university administrators will participate in a televised panel discussion on the growing needs of higher education today on KREM-TV at 2:30 p.m.

The discussion will center on the great upsurge in demands for college education and its implications for the future in terms of facilities, housing, staff and financial support.

Other panelists are Dr. D. R. Theophilus, president, University of Idaho; Dr. John R. Richards, chancellor, Oregon state system of higher education; and Dr. C. Clement French, president, Washington State University.

Theta Sigma Phi to Hear Press Discussion Sunday

Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalism honorary, will have a breakfast meeting Sunday at 9:30 a.m. to hear two University professors discuss the press in the United States, Turkey and Britain—according to Vera Swanson, president.

Leslie Armour, assistant professor of philosophy, will speak on British journalism. Differences in Turkish and American journalism will be considered by Kemal Karpat, assistant professor of political science.

All sophomore, junior, and senior women in the School of Journalism are invited to attend, Miss Swanson said. Breakfast will be served in a Lodge Territorial Room and the cost is $1 each, she said.

Borden to Talk to Authors On Great Presidents Book

Morton Borden, associate professor of history, will speak to the Author's Club meeting which is scheduled for 7:45 p.m. Saturday. Dr. Borden's talk will be on "The Ten Great Presidents," a book he edited.

Author's Club, which meets once a month, is an organization of faculty and Missoula residents who have had their work published. One author speaks to the group each month, Meyer Chessin, president, said.

The meeting, which was originally scheduled in the faculty house, will be in Territorial Room 1 of the Lodge.

'Tip Fish Host Meet Today After Downing Utah State

Montana's varsity swimming swimming team took first place in 10 of 11 events last night in the University pool to splash by Utah State University 60-34.

Tonight at 8 the Grizzlies will meet their biggest challenge of the season when they again meet Utah State and also the University of Utah in the Western Division Skyline Meet in the University pool.

The Western Division meet matches the four teams of the Skyline Western Division.

Veteran tankmen Bob McKinnon, Wayne Veeneman, Doug James, Ivan Jacobsen and sophomore Gary Homme led the Silvertips in a very impressive victory over the outclassed Utah team. Grizzly Bill Brubaker captured the diving event with 214.4 points.

Montana's freestyle relay team swam to a close victory over Utah in the last event of the meet.

Utah tankmen Sorenson captured his team's only first place when he won in the 100-yard freestyle.

AWS, M Club Dance to Follow Style Show in Lodge Tonight

A Cabaret Dance and Style Show, jointly sponsored by M Club and AWS, will be in the Lodge tonight from 8 p.m. to midnight.

The event will begin with the style show from 8 to 9 p.m. in the Cascade Room. M Club members will serve punch and potato chips throughout the evening. AWS members will act as cigarette girls and waitresses.

A local department store will provide the clothes which will be primarily sportswear, including summer clothes and bathing suits.

Entertainment will be by Gary Fish, a sophomore from Livingston, who will do comedy imitations, and the Blazers, a freshman men's quartet. Members of the quartet are Ted Cooney, Doug James, Norman Mikelson, and Dave Stiles, with Doug Chaffey accompanying. Mary Garrison is chairman of the entertainment committee.

Tickets may be obtained in the Lodge and from M Club members at $1 a couple.

Mystery-Comedy To Be Presented By Faculty Cast

"The Gazebo," the faculty play written by Myra and Alac Cappel, will be presented March 4-6 in the Masquer Theater, Mrs. Chester Beaty, publications chairman, said. The box office will open at noon on March 1. Admission will be $1.

"The Gazebo," which is a mystery-comedy, was a Broadway hit in 1958-59.

Leading roles are being played by Fred S. Honkala, chairman of the geology department; Mrs. Lorraine McCoy, instructor in home economics; and Chester B. Beaty, instructor of geography.

The director is Firman H. Brown, chairman of the drama department. Technical director is Miss Jacqueline Beyer, assistant professor of geography, and Richard James, instructor in drama and speech, is in charge of designing the set.

Loan Applications Due on March 1

Students interested in getting financial loans from the University must make application before March 1, Thomas F. Monahan, assistant to the dean of men, said yesterday.

Students who fail to apply for the loan by March 1 will not be able to apply again until April 15, Monahan said.

To be eligible for any of the 16 loans administered by the University, a student must have an overall 2.0 grade index.

With a loan, students can borrow up to $250 per quarter, and have from six months to a year to pay back the loan.

Brechler Named Boss of Skyline

IOWA CITY, Iowa (UPI) — University of Iowa athletic Director Paul Brechler resigned Wednesday to accept the job of commissioner of the Skyline Conference.

Brechler, who helped Iowa to athletic prominence in many sports during a career that spanned almost 13 years, will succeed E. L. (Dick) Romney, who resigned effective July.

Dr. W. E. Morgan, chairman of the conference council of presidents, indicated Brechler would move to Denver about Aug. 1.

Brechler's salary in the new job was not announced. He had received $18,000 at Iowa but there were reports earlier the Skyline salary would be less, although "fringe benefits" would make up the difference.

No News by Vote

By ROLF OLSON

Kaimin Editor Elect, Spring Quarter

Central Board expressed dissatisfaction during its meeting this week with the accuracy of Kaimin's coverage of student government.

There is some truth in Central Board's complaint which the Kaimin should take to heart. The mistakes cited were trivial, largely the result of the reporter not being able to keep up with the speed of hot air rising during the heat of debate.

What the Kaimin cannot accept is Central Board's remedy for this human element. Central Board proposes that the Kaimin staff get together occasionally with Central Board to discuss errors in reporting.

At first glance, this seems like a reasonable suggestion on the part of Central Board to improve the student newspaper.

However, the Kaimin is not a Central Board committee. The Kaimin puts itself in a dangerous position when it seeks counsel from student government.

An example of this danger occurred during the Central Board meeting when a faculty adviser objected to the editorial and cartoon in Tuesday's Kaimin. He said it detracts from the prestige of the Sentinel editorship, especially at a time crucial to appointing an editor.

In light of the facts, the Kaimin should not retract any part of Tuesday's stand. It was fortunate that such a well qualified candidate finally applied and was appointed to the job.

The faculty member had every right to criticize the editorial, but he went on to suggest the Kaimin write a "nice" story to bolster the prestige of the Sentinel editorship.

Central Board joined in with a you-do-or-else attitude and presented a Kaimin staff member with the candidates letter of application, insisting the Kaimin use its news columns to promote this appointed office.

If this attitude persists, and the Kaimin gives in, it will not be long before Central Board would be an effective censor, controlling the news by vote.

Too Many Tin Cans

The University campus has one predominant need unfulfilled.

There is a niche for the administration, faculty, lawyers, foresters, business administrators, education majors, liberal arts majors, science and mathematics majors, pharmacy majors, home economics majors, physical education majors, music majors, journalism majors, etc. The ROTC is sheltered. The coffee-drinking, card-playing students have a roof over their heads. Even the skating rink has a roof.

But one basic need is out in the cold. The basic need—the need to belong to a group—cannot be denied. This fellowship is found in a church more than anywhere else. Students on seeing others attend church find in themselves the same contagious urge to attend church. Students want someplace to take their problems and someone to talk to about them. Add these up and the sum is a religious center.

The need of a religious center has not gone unrecognized. On the contrary, in July, 1956, President McFarland was authorized by the State Board of Education to arrange for the construction of a University chapel as money became available. The chapel was to be connected to the Lodge by a passageway and constructed of massive stone, wood and glass.

It is 1960 and the space adjacent to the Lodge is occupied by thousands of dollars worth of chrome, steel, plate glass, rubber and mud.

If only the matter were as simple as converting all that mud, chrome, steel, etc., into a chapel. What a unique structure would be visualized. It would be as sleek and as strong as a T-Bird, and in fulfilling a greater basic need, would deny a lesser man-created need. The owners of all that chrome, rubber, steel, etc. parked daily on all that mud would be reduced to

Foresters Respond To Legal Summons

To the Kaimin:

After the sound trouncing the Foresters bestowed upon the members of the Home for Decrepit, Delicate and Physically Degenerates of Eye-Ball Exercising, located near the northeast side of the oval, we find your challenge astounding.

Our curiosity aroused by the impudence of such soft, jelly-like forms of life, we have decided we could spare three minutes from our highly scientific and world-important research to again teach the derby-hatted, white-collared Perpetrators of Rank Injustice that we are still the unequalled champions of pesketrall.

Encountering some difficulty in collecting enough individuals willing to lower themselves to the distasteful contact, we have arranged for two substitutes.

Smoky Bear and Beloved Bertha would be more than a match for the underfed shysters who have scored only seven points in the last 13 years.

We will be on hand, nevertheless, with ready sponges and buckets to clean the Men's Gym of the ill-fated remains of the outspoken bookworms.

'Tips No Match for Hot Aggies

Utah State's famed "Iron Men" out-shot and out-rebounded Montana's Grizzlies last night in Logan to pile up an easy 89-63 Skyline victory. It was Montana's 11th conference loss, compared to one win.

The Grizzlies will be in Provo tomorrow night for a loop battle with Brigham Young. The Cougars downed Montana in a Skyline tilt earlier in the season.

Only two points were scored in the first four minutes of the Logan contest. Terry Screnar chalked up the first two points of the game, but from that time on the Grizzlies were on the short end of the score. Aggie backcourt ace Max Perry tossed through 10 points in the next eight minutes.

The Nationally-ranked Utah squad picked up steam midway in the first half to increase their lead to nine points. The Silvertips staged a quick six-point rally to pull them within striking distance but the Aggies pulled away again—and this time for good.

With five minutes left in the first half, Utah State had doubled the Montana point output, 30-15.

First-half statistics showed that Utah State shot a remarkable 48 per cent of their field goals and outrebounded Montana by a substantial margin. The Grizzlies first-half field goal percentage was a dismal 24 per cent.

The Aggies padded their 44-22 half time bulge with a scoring surge that dispelled any hopes that the Grizzlies would stage a second-half comeback. Perry, guard Ralph Culimore and forward Jerry Schofield each stole the ball at least once from the fast-fading Montanans, and the thefts were converted into points for the league-leaders.

The only effective offensive weapon the Grizzlies could muster came in the form of six-foot five-inch Duane Ruegsegger, who caught fire in the second half to hit the target on seven field goals.

Kalispell Skier Fails to Finish Olympic Slalom After Mistake

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (UPI)—Jim Barrier of Kalispell, Mont., "made a mistake" Wednesday and because of it he failed to finish the men's slalom ski race in the Winter Olympics here.

The slalom, probably the toughest of all the alpine events, involved two courses. One had 66 flagstakes, or gates, the other had 69. Skiers must ski between the stakes, a difficult feat because of the sharp turns and tricky angles. Of the four U.S. skiers in the event, Barrier had the second best time for the first run—1:34.4. Tommy Corcoran, who finished 10th overall, was the best of the Americans.

But Barrier, in the second run, lost his footing on one of the turns and wound up sprawling in the snow. Since he had passed the stakes he should have gone through, he would have had to climb back up the slope to go through them.
