Course Purpose

This course presents techniques and materials for diagnosing and accommodating classroom students' reading and writing needs. The content is required for pre-service and in-service teachers earning their endorsements in Reading and/or Special Education.

Considering the Montana Teacher Education Program Standards, 10.58.521, Reading Specialists K-12, this course provides understanding, knowledge, and application of: (a) a planned sequence of study to include a philosophy of reading instruction, sensitivity to individual needs, instruction based on strengths and needs, integration of a wide variety of genre, and research on reading; (b) understanding of the learner and the learning process with application to the importance of embedding literacy instruction with meaningful context; (c) techniques in reading instruction and skills to diagnose reading problems that include knowledge of research-based literacy approaches, sensitivity to individual differences, value of student self-monitoring, understanding reading-related factors, knowledge of literacy strategies in various domains, and providing services in effective settings; (d) instructional materials that reflect curriculum, research, learner’s strengths and needs, and incorporate technology; (h) development, management, and evaluation of literacy approaches that recognize the learner’s strengths and needs, involve parents, use technology, recognize the importance of time, encourage higher order thinking skills, provide alternative instruction, include a variety of assessments, and encourage creative responses to text; and (j) ongoing assessment practices that reflect the complex nature of reading, include high quality text, involve multiple intelligences, include research-based approaches, and provide for teacher and student self-reflection.
Course Objectives

1. To comprehend knowledge and beliefs about reading: the theoretical base, the knowledge base, individual differences, diversity, and aspects of reading difficulties;
2. To understand the domains of oral and written language, including language diversity, reading comprehension, word recognition, and study skills and strategic reading and apply them to devising appropriate instructional strategies;
3. To understand factors affecting the reading process;
4. To administer and use information from formal and informal measures to inform instruction and learning;
5. To conduct assessments that involves multiple indicators of learner progress;
6. To understand analytic teaching which recognizes the reading and writing process, appreciation of diversity and inclusion, and the belief of students as capable human beings;
7. To understand the importance of communicating information about reading to the student, professionals, parents, and others;
8. To introduce the student to research in literacy and professional literacy organizations;
9. To write a case study.

Instructional Methods

The objectives are met through classroom instruction and a diagnostic experience in which each class member chooses a case study subject, diagnoses the person’s reading strengths and needs using direct and indirect measures, writes a case study, and creates literacy lesson plans.

Student Outcomes and Evaluation Criteria (based on 100 points)

10 points: Five (5) chapter reaction papers, maximum one-typed page per chapter, choose from Gipe text or Ashmore text, due by March 19.

30 points: Case study, typed, following the model found in the faculty pac;

20 points: Two remediation/reinforcement strategies (to be included in the case study);

15 points: Class presentation;

25 points: Final exam.

(Grading Scale: A = 90-100, B = 80-89, etc.)
