GRIZZLY COACHES SIGN JC GUARD FOR MONTANA BASKETBALL TEAM

MISSOULA---

George Demos, a 6-2 guard from Peninsula College in Port Angeles, Wash., has signed a letter of intent and will enroll at the University of Montana on a basketball scholarship next fall, Bob Cope, Grizzly head coach, announced Thursday.

Demos was selected to the Washington All-State Junior College basketball team at the conclusion of last season. He averaged 22.4 points per game for Peninsula.

He played his high school basketball in Chicago, Ill., and at the time he played was one of the leading scorers in the entire Chicago area.

"George is a great outside shooter," Cope reported, "and he will contribute greatly to the Grizzly basketball future."

Demos is the second junior college transfer announced by Cope and his assistant, Lou Rocheleau.
